No Surrender, Faubus Says

Asks Standby Authority To Close Schools

Governor Declares Forced Integration Is Unconstitutional

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Tuesday racial integration never can be constitutionally enforced upon a school. He asked a special legislative session to empower him to close Arkansas schools rather than bow to any federal race-mixing mandate.

The governor also offered a last-ditch measure to the lawmakers—a bill to set up segregated classrooms within an integrated school.

To a standing ovation, Faubus went before an emergency session—first in Arkansas' modern history—to urge upon the Legislature a policy of no surrender.

The immediate objective is to prevent further integration at Central High School, scene of last year's white integration riots. But Faubus said the aim of integrationists is to racially mix classes in all the city's schools by force, if need be.

Faubus, in a baritone voice that quavered at times with emotion, said he has not opposed peaceful integration in his state.

Disagrees With Methods

"My disagreement is with the methods now being employed, and the unseemly haste that is being demanded. There is a law of life that can never be violated, or hurried, without great harm to all concerned, and that is the law of evolution in relation to social and political change," he said.

The galleries were packed to overflowing—with an all-white audience, although Negroes are not barred.

"There is no clear-cut federal statute regarding the integration of the schools. If there were, it would be unconstitutional, for the authority to control public education has never been delegated by the states to the federal government," Faubus said

"This battle for states' rights and constitutional government is not of our choosing. The issue has been forced upon us and we must either choose to defend our rights against those who would usurp them or else surrender.

Court Hearing Thursday

"I hope that no one of you will be influenced by the words of the weak and fearful, and that no one of you will be misled by the mistaken views of those who would surrender all the rights and privileges we have enjoyed to an all-powerful federal government in the unwise course of action which it pursues at the present moment."

Faubus was several times interrupted by applause.

Faubus' address came 48 hours before the U. S. Supreme Court is to hear debate on whether to grant Central High a breathing spell in its year-old integration program, or force immediate reacceptance of Negroes into its classrooms.

The original entry of Negroes into Central a year ago led to white rioting outside the 2,000-pupil school. President Eisenhower sent in federal troops to enforce the court-ordered integration.

Faubus spoke before the Legislature as governor of the State of Arkansas. But he seemed mindful that his speech might well echo the deep, ingrained resistance to integration in much of the South during this critical period in American history.

"The eyes of the nation are upon us," he told the legislators in urging restraint in remarks and actions.

Red Big Guns Pound Quemoy's Airfield; U.S. Fleet On Alert

Chinese Jets, Warships Stay Clear Of Area

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Communist shore batteries singled out Quemoy's one-strip airfield as their target Tuesday night for a heavy shelling. That wound up the fourth straight day of bombardment of the Nationalist island bastion.

But Red jets and warships stayed clear of the area, where the Nationalists claimed air and sea victories Monday.

The defense ministry in Taipei, where top Nationalist and U.S. service officers gathered for talks on the Formosa Strait flare-up, said the Red Chinese gunners fired 8,053 shells at Quemoy. The count on the final action aimed at the airfield was 1,607.

There was no disclosure here how effective it might have been in damaging U.S.-supplied war planes or pitting the field.

Perhaps Communist radar had picked up a flight of Nationalist planes heading to the island from Formosa.

Reds Fire 91,500 Shells

By defense ministry count, the Chinese Reds have now loosed more than 91,500 shells at the Nationalist-held offshore islands since stepping up the pace of the vest-pocket war Saturday.

The Defense Ministry said similar bombardments may be ahead for the Matsu Islands about 100 miles north of Quemoy off the Red mainland.

The Matsus underwent another series of air raid alarms but no Communist planes came over. The ministry said, however, the Reds are reinforcing their artillery strength on the mainland areas opposite the Matsus.

The flareup of action in the long quiet Formosa Strait is being watched closely by U. S. authorities both here and in Washington.

U. S. 7th Fleet Alerted

The U. S. 7th Fleet, pledged to defend Formosa from invasion, has been placed on the alert. So have the U. S. 5th Air Force, guarding Japan and Korea, and naval forces in Japan. U. S. officials in Japan called their alerts simply routine.

A landing force of 1,600 U. S. Marines set sail from Singapore Monday, their destination undisclosed. Presumably the convoy of four attack transports and four naval ships is moving closer to Formosa.

Maj. Gen. Thomas F. Moorman, commander of the U. S. 13th Air Force in the Phippines, arrived in Formosa for talks with top Nationalist and U. S. officers.

Taipei newspapers praised Secretary of State Dulles' warning to Red China against attacking the offshore islands, but called for a U. S. declaration to defend Quemoy and the Matsus. The United States now is pledged to defend only Formosa and the adjacent Pescadores.

Wallet Finder Boosts Reward Check, Jailed

NEW YORK (AP) — Evelyn Casper thought she was being generous enough when she wrote out a $75 check as a reward to Leopold Goetz, 67, for returning her lost wallet.

But Tuesday Goetz was in court on a charge of boosting the amount on the check to $175.

"An ungrateful thief," said Asst. Dist. Atty. Charles McDonough.

Goetz was held for trial on a charge of petit larceny.

"BOUGHT" LOCAL—Harold Gibbons (above), one of Teamster President James R. Hoffa's right-hand men, was accused yesterday by Senate rackets investigators of buying control of a St. Louis local for $78,410 in 1949 and running it on a pattern of arson, shootings and violence. (AP Photofax)

Dag Arrives In Beirut Amid New Shooting

BEIRUT, Aug. 26 (AP) — Dag Hammarskjold landed Tuesday night on his Mideast peace mission soon after a gunfight had blazed across the airport road. The shooting was near newly established U. S. troop positions.

Hospital sources said two Lebanese were killed and six injured. The clash was reported to have developed between Lebanese security units and Palestine refugee agitators within rebel lines as the U. N. secretary general was en route by plane from Rome.

U. S. Air Force officers said they understood one American was hit. Confirmation was lacking. A strict curfew prevented newsmen from making an on-the-spot check. The Lebanese government Tuesday night re-imposed censorship on outgoing dispatches after it was suspended 24 hours earlier.

The shooting was one of the most serious such outbreaks since Lebanon's Parliament chose Gen. Fuad Chehab July 31 as successor to President Camille Chamoun, who retires Sept. 23.

Lebanese security forces set up a heavy guard about Hammarskjold as he emerged from his plane. Reporters and photographers were crowded away. A Lebanese drew a gun to force back one cameraman.

No Lebanese or American officials were on hand to greet Hammarskjold. He is stopping here for tonight's rest before going on to Jordan to tackle the big job under his mandate from the Emergency U.N. General Assembly.

Pilots Plan Strike

CHICAGO (AP) — The Air Line Pilots Assn. announced Tuesday some 160 pilots of the Piedmont Airlines will strike at 11:59 p.m. (local time) Sept. 1 in a dispute over contract terms.

Seizure Of Tan Islets Viewed As Possibility

WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomatic officials speculated Tuesday on whether the Chinese Communists might invade the tiny Tan Islands as a follow-up to intensive artillery and air bombardment of the Quemoy area.

However, as Red guns blasted away for a fourth straight day, these authorities stuck to their predictions that the Communists planned no sudden invasion of heavily defended Quemoy, Matsu or Formosa at this time.

They reviewed the Far East outlook as 7th Fleet warships and U.S. Air Force units stepped up their Far East alert as a precaution against surprise attack.

Islets Lightly Defended

Most official attention focused on two island specks, Titan and Ertan, as possible targets of a swift Red thrust.

These two Tan islets, only 23 acres in area, are lightly defended. Situated 2½ miles south of the island of Amoy, their main value to Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists is as sentinels watching Chinese Red shipping along the coast.

Red forces could easily capture both with a minimum of casualties officials said, and without interference by American fleet and Air Force units.

The Peiping regime could then ballyhoo this as a substantial achievement, portraying it as another of its step-by-step moves to "liberate" Formosa and the Pescadores from Chinese Nationalist forces.

Reds Bolster Air Strength

Neither the Tan islets nor the island of Tungting, 17 miles south of Quemoy, is viewed by American authorities as worth fighting for. In a decision made nearly two years ago, it was said, not to oppose any Chinese Communist effort to grab them.

Pentagon and State Department officials reported new evidence the Reds have bolstered jet fighter and bomber strength along the Fukien coast.

More Soviet MIG17s and IL28 light bombers are understood to have been moved onto five coastal airfields the Reds put into operation at the end of July.

Despite this, intelligence circles foresaw no major invasion pending. No invasion fleet of ships has been assembled, they reported, nor is there any sign that invasion troops have been mobilized along the coastal areas.

Conditional Russian Acceptance Of Ike's A-Test Plan Seen

MOSCOW (AP) — Diplomatic sources predicted Tuesday the Soviet Union would accept President Eisenhower's proposals for a halt in nuclear weapons tests, but with conditions.

The President announced last Friday the United States and Britain would join the Soviet Union in a one-year ban starting Oct. 31 provided the Russians agreed to enter negotiations then on an international control network.

The diplomatic sources said, however, the Russians probably would ask for immediate negotiations for the suspension of all tests.

Alaskans Making Good On Forecast Of Big Vote

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Alaskans apparently were making good Tuesday on predictions of a record vote as the big Northern territory decided whether it would become the 49th state.

Heavy early voting was reported at precincts in cities throughout the territory, and election officials at outlying precincts predicted a rush to the polls in the late evening.

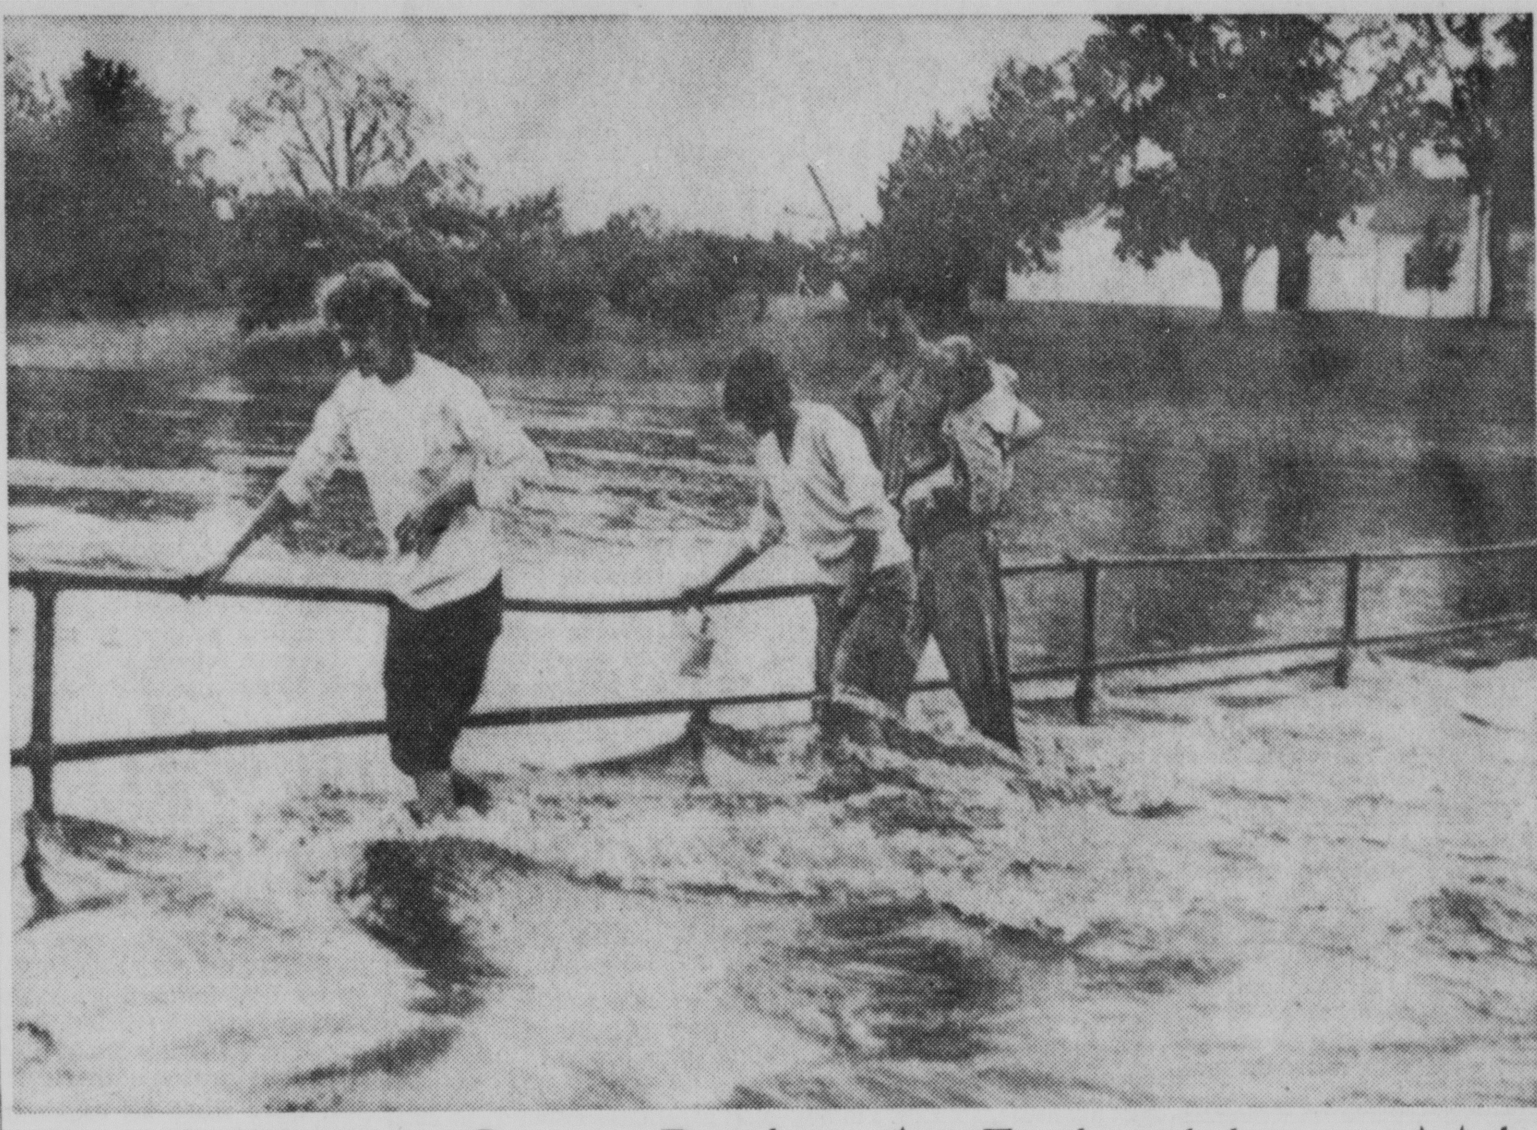
Polls opened at 8 a.m. and were to remain open until 8 p.m., local time, in the four time zones of the vast territory.

More than 35,000 ballots were expected to be cast on the three-proposition referendum on which admission into the Union depends. Most observers forecast Alaskans would approve admission by margins of better than 2-1.

Brisk, fall-like weather was reported in much of the territory, but fog and overcast skies were reported at Nome on the Bering Sea. Snow was mixed with rain at Kotzebue, north of the Bering Strait.

Alaskans were answering yes or no on three separate ballots. The first was expected to be the key to the long-debated question. It asked, "Shall Alaska immediately be admitted into the Union as a state?"

The second proposition would accept as the boundaries of the new state the present boundaries of the big territory. The third calls for acceptance of more than 103 million acres of public land for the new state, and would reserve to the President the right to make military land withdrawals in times of national emergency.



Flood Waters Cover Bridge At Federalsburg, Md.

Flood waters from a swollen branch of the Choptank River inundated this bridge at Federalsburg, Md., yesterday, forcing evacuation of about 25 families. One of the families, unidentified, is shown crossing the bridge. A dam about five miles north of Federalsburg gave way early yesterday, adding to the deluge. Water was five to six feet deep in some homes. Since Saturday night, nearly nine inches had fallen on the area. (Story on page 2) (AP Photofax)

Prod From Ike Puts Keating In Senate Race

By The Associated Press

New York Republicans nominated a reluctant Rep. Kenneth B. Keating for the U.S. Senate Tuesday after an indirect prod from President Eisenhower helped persuade him to run.

But the New York Democratic convention was bogged down and split in disagreement after Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City eliminated himself as Keating's November opponent.

And voters went to the polls in Alaska and Mississippi elections.

Alaskans, apparently producing a heavy vote, were expected to give a "yes" decision on three separate ballots that decide whether their sprawling territory will become the 49th state. They also nominated candidates for two U.S. Senate seats, one House seat, governor and other state offices which must be filled when statehood becomes an actuality.

Only two incumbents were opposed in Mississippi, where Democrats nominated a U.S. senator and six congressional representatives. Nomination in these races amounts to election in the predominantly Democratic state.

In the New York situation, Keating had been reluctant to accept the GOH nomination to succeed Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-NY), who is quitting because of poor health. Keating hesitated at risking his seniority in the House, where he is the ranking Republican on the judiciary committee.

Republican leaders in the Rochester convention, including former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, worked to persuade Keating. It was during a four-hour conference with Nelson A. Rockefeller—when word from Eisenhower came—that he made up his mind. Rockefeller was chosen Monday night as the GOP gubernatorial candidate to oppose Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman in November.

The White House said Vice President Nixon had talked over the situation with Eisenhower during the day and that Nixon had telephoned Keating. Nixon told him both the President and himself thought Keating would be a fine candidate. Keating said Nixon "told me it would please him and President Eisenhower if I ran."

Hurricane Inches Closer To Fla. Coast

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Daisy, a small compact storm with 85 mile an hour winds, pounded the Atlantic Ocean only 215 miles off Cape Canaveral Tuesday—still unsure of its direction.

The storm "inched" closer to the upper Florida coast, but chief forecaster Gordon Dunn stuck to his prediction that it would curve northward and miss the mainland.

But until he is sure, Dunn and hurricane hunter planes kept a wary eye on Daisy.

Meanwhile, all residents along the Atlantic Coast from north Florida to the Carolinas were advised to be on the alert. Gales from the storm were expected to reach within 100 miles of the north Florida-Georgia coast, kicking up rough seas near shore. Small craft were cautioned to stay near protected waters.

Ex-Cabbie Admits Working As 'Goon' For Teamster Local

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A 200-pound ex-cabbie fearfully admitted to Senate rackets investigators Tuesday that he had been a "goon" for a St. Louis Teamster local run by one of President James R. Hoffa's right-hand men.

Harold Sparks, the burly unemployed taxi driver, was followed on the witness chair by Mary Lou Bledsoe, a tall brunette who said that Sparks used threats to scare her out of testifying about Teamster violence in a 1953 taxi strike.

Their testimony capped a rackets committee session at which Harold Gibbons, the Hoffa aide, was accused of buying control of St. Louis Teamster Local 688 for $78,410 in 1949 and running it on a pattern of arson, shootings and other violence.

St. Louis police Capt. Thomas L. Moran, head of the city's bomb and arson squad, told the committee that organizing and picket line violence were "common to Local 688 and other unions dominated by Harold Gibbons."

Sparks, a 38-year-old ex-convict, said "sure I'm afraid" when he refused at first to verify a January affidavit in which he had described his own activities as a self-described "goon."

Sparks said his fears were based, not on Gibbons, but on newspaper accounts of killings, hoodlums and "that element." He finally verified his affidavit.

Miss Bledsoe, who figured in Sparks' affidavit as a decoy in a sabotage operation during the 1953 dispute, wore dark glasses, a wide brimmed hat and a voluminous white coat during her testimony.

Her attire obviously was meant to conceal her identity as much as possible and McClellan, who promised her protection, refused to allow cameramen to photograph her.

She testified that Sparks and John F. Poole, another member of the wrecking party, threatened violence if she testified in the trial that followed the attempt to overturn a taxi. She did not testify even though she had made a statement to police.

As described in Sparks affidavits, Joe Ferrera, a former prize fighter, and Miss Bledsoe took a Yellow Cab at the railroad station and asked to be driven to a special address. There Miss Bledsoe fled while the driver was beaten and the cab windows were broken with chains.

Alcorn Predicts Big GOP Upset

CHICAGO (AP)—Meade Alcorn, GOP National Committee chairman, predicted Tuesday Republicans in the November elections will provide "the greatest upset since Harry Truman stumped the experts in 1948."

Alcorn, speaking to a meeting of Republican National Committee members, said that despite some political predictions, "there is no reason for us to lose a single Senate or House seat or a single governorship."

The Eisenhower administration's handling of the recession is one of the largest reasons, Alcorn said, why Republicans will make a strong showing in 1958 elections.

"To the everlasting credit of President Eisenhower, his administration refused to panic when Democrats were shouting, with a curious mixture of alarm and elation, that the country was on the skids," Alcorn said.

He continued: "Our economy is now moving forward and upward at a healthy pace. The recession has bottomed out during the spring months and there has been a steady, continuing upturn ever since. As we move toward the 1958 elections, it now seems clear that the economy will surge to even higher ground."

Motorist In Crash Goes Berserk, Runs Down Other Driver

ARMONK, N.Y. (AP)—An advertising executive was deliberately run down and killed by a motorist who went berserk after a minor traffic accident Monday night, police reported.

The victim was Charles A. Wiggins, 63, of Bedford Village, an executive for General Foods Corp.

The crazed driver, James R. Amour, 33, of Girardville, Pa., was taken to Grasslands Hospital, Valhalla, N.Y., for psychiatric observation.

Police said Wiggins stepped out of his car following a collision with Amour's car. Amour then drove his car straight at Wiggins, knocking him 70 feet.

Negro Qualifies

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—The University of Florida announced Tuesday that a Negro had qualified for admission to its law school this fall.

If the student is enrolled in September, it will mark the beginning of racial integration at the all-white state-supported university.

Ike Proposes New Global Aid Association

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower Tuesday proposed establishment of a new international development association and increased funds for two existing credit agencies to promote economic growth of underdeveloped nations.

He instructed Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson in a letter to seek a "major expansion in the international programs designed to promote" Free World economic growth at the October meeting in New Delhi of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

The President's plan would involve an increase in member country subscriptions to both the fund and the bank to "better equip them for the tasks of the decade ahead."

He said an international development association "could provide a useful supplement to the existing lending activities of the bank and thereby accelerate the pace of economic development in the less developed member countries of the bank."

Anderson said the New Delhi meeting might lead to a general agreement on the need for the program. But he said final details, such as the amount of money required, would have to be worked out later by technical experts.

Eisenhower said a central objective of U.S. policy is "a sound and sustainable rate of economic growth in the Free World." But he said American aid programs, even though recently expanded, "can do only a part of the job".

Anderson said he foresaw no deficiency in either the World Bank's or the international Monetary Fund's capacity to meet the need for capital and foreign exchange by the less developed countries in the next year or so.

But Eisenhower said he felt the time had arrived for some long-range planning in the economic development field. He said his proposal "would require intensified international cooperation directed to a broad attack upon some of the major economic problems of our time."

Income Up Over Last Year But Buying Power Down

WASHINGTON (AP) - Personal income in the first seven months of 1958 was up over last year but purchasing power was off, the Commerce Department reported Wednesday.

After making allowances for the usual summer slack, the department said the nature of business activity in July was firm. Consumer income, employment and industrial production were above monthly averages of the second quarter.

In its monthly survey of current business, the department's Office of Business Economics said personal income averaged an annual rate of 350 billion dollars for the first seven months of the year. For the same period of 1957 it averaged 346 billion.

Purchasing power was somewhat off because living costs increased.

The government reported previously that income reached a high in July, hitting an annual rate of 354½ billion. Counting retroactive pay increases given government employes, the seasonally adjusted rate would have been nearly 359 billion.

In its latest survey, the department attributed the climb to an increase in unemployment and Social Security payments, rise in farm income, maintenance of corporate dividends despite a drop in profits and a continued advance in wage rates, including the hike in government pay.

Socialite Lands In Jail After Row With Policemen

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Horace E. Dodge II of the Detroit automobile family was jailed Tuesday on drunk and battery charges after a violent row with police officers and matrons.

Her companion, Chicago Sun-Times columnist Irv Kupcinet, was booked on a drunk driving charge.

She and Kupcinet were released later on bail, pending a Wednesday court appearance.

Mrs. Dodge, 35, the former Gregg Sherwood, film actress, used violent language, spat on one officer and spat on and struck two matrons, policemen Lawrence Brown and Kenneth Bernard reported.

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—Alaskans apparently were making good Tuesday on predictions of a record vote as the big Northern territory decided whether it would become the 49th state.

Heavy early voting was reported at precincts in cities throughout the territory, and election officials at outlying precincts predicted a rush to the polls in the late evening.

Polls opened at 8 a.m. and were to remain open until 8 p.m., local time, in the four time zones of the vast territory.

More than 35,000 ballots were expected to be cast on the three-proposition referendum on which admission into the Union depends. Most observers forecast Alaskans would approve admission by margins of better than 2-1.

Brisk, fall-like weather was reported in much of the territory, but fog and overcast skies were reported at Nome on the Bering Sea. Snow was mixed with rain at Kotzebue, north of the Bering Strait.

Alaskans were answering yes or no on three separate ballots. The first was expected to be the key to the long-debated question. It asked, "Shall Alaska immediately be admitted into the Union as a state?"

The second proposition would accept as the boundaries of the new state the present boundaries of the big territory. The third calls for acceptance of more than 103 million acres of public land for the new state, and would reserve to the President the right to make military land withdrawals in times of national emergency.

Flood Waters Cover Bridge At Federalsburg, Md.

Flood waters from a swollen branch of the Choptank River inundated this bridge at Federalsburg, Md., yesterday, forcing evacuation of about 25 families. One of the families, unidentified, is shown crossing the bridge. A dam about five miles north of Federalsburg gave way early yesterday, adding to the deluge. Water was five to six feet deep in some homes. Since Saturday night, nearly nine inches had fallen on the area. (Story on page 2) (AP Photofax)

Prod From Ike Puts Keating In Senate Race

By The Associated Press

New York Republicans nominated a reluctant Rep. Kenneth B. Keating for the U.S. Senate Tuesday after an indirect prod from President Eisenhower helped persuade him to run.

But the New York Democratic convention was bogged down and split in disagreement after Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City eliminated himself as Keating's November opponent.

And voters went to the polls in Alaska and Mississippi elections.

Alaskans, apparently producing a heavy vote, were expected to give a "yes" decision on three separate ballots that decide whether their sprawling territory will become the 49th state. They also nominated candidates for two U.S. Senate seats, one House seat, governor and other state offices which must be filled when statehood becomes an actuality.

Only two incumbents were opposed in Mississippi, where Democrats nominated a U.S. senator and six congressional representatives. Nomination in these races amounts to election in the predominantly Democratic state.

In the New York situation, Keating had been reluctant to accept the GOH nomination to succeed Sen. Irving M. Ives (R-NY), who is quitting because of poor health. Keating hesitated at risking his seniority in the House, where he is the ranking Republican on the judiciary committee.

Republican leaders in the Rochester convention, including former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, worked to persuade Keating. It was during a four-hour conference with Nelson A. Rockefeller—when word from Eisenhower came—that he made up his mind. Rockefeller was chosen Monday night as the GOP gubernatorial candidate to oppose Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman in November.

The White House said Vice President Nixon had talked over the situation with Eisenhower during the day and that Nixon had telephoned Keating. Nixon told him both the President and himself thought Keating would be a fine candidate. Keating said Nixon "told me it would please him and President Eisenhower if I ran."

Hurricane Inches Closer To Fla. Coast

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Daisy, a small compact storm with 85 mile an hour winds, pounded the Atlantic Ocean only 215 miles off Cape Canaveral Tuesday—still unsure of its direction.

The storm "inched" closer to the upper Florida coast, but chief forecaster Gordon Dunn stuck to his prediction that it would curve northward and miss the mainland.

But until he is sure, Dunn and hurricane hunter planes kept a wary eye on Daisy.

Meanwhile, all residents along the Atlantic Coast from north Florida to the Carolinas were advised to be on the alert. Gales from the storm were expected to reach within 100 miles of the north Florida-Georgia coast, kicking up rough seas near shore. Small craft were cautioned to stay near protected waters.

Ex-Cabbie Admits Working As 'Goon' For Teamster Local

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A 200-pound ex-cabbie fearfully admitted to Senate rackets investigators Tuesday that he had been a "goon" for a St. Louis Teamster local run by one of President James R. Hoffa's right-hand men.

Harold Sparks, the burly unemployed taxi driver, was followed on the witness chair by Mary Lou Bledsoe, a tall brunette who said that Sparks used threats to scare her out of testifying about Teamster violence in a 1953 taxi strike.

Their testimony capped a rackets committee session at which Harold Gibbons, the Hoffa aide, was accused of buying control of St. Louis Teamster Local 688 for $78,410 in 1949 and running it on a pattern of arson, shootings and other violence.

St. Louis police Capt. Thomas L. Moran, head of the city's bomb and arson squad, told the committee that organizing and picket line violence were "common to Local 688 and other unions dominated by Harold Gibbons."

Sparks, a 38-year-old ex-convict, said "sure I'm afraid" when he refused at first to verify a January affidavit in which he had described his own activities as a self-described "goon."

Sparks said his fears were based, not on Gibbons, but on newspaper accounts of killings, hoodlums and "that element." He finally verified his affidavit.

Miss Bledsoe, who figured in Sparks' affidavit as a decoy in a sabotage operation during the 1953 dispute, wore dark glasses, a wide brimmed hat and a voluminous white coat during her testimony.

Her attire obviously was meant to conceal her identity as much as possible and McClellan, who promised her protection, refused to allow cameramen to photograph her.

She testified that Sparks and John F. Poole, another member of the wrecking party, threatened violence if she testified in the trial that followed the attempt to overturn a taxi. She did not testify even though she had made a statement to police.

As described in Sparks affidavits, Joe Ferrera, a former prize fighter, and Miss Bledsoe took a Yellow Cab at the railroad station and asked to be driven to a special address. There Miss Bledsoe fled while the driver was beaten and the cab windows were broken with chains.

Alcorn Predicts Big GOP Upset

CHICAGO (AP)—Meade Alcorn, GOP National Committee chairman, predicted Tuesday Republicans in the November elections will provide "the greatest upset since Harry Truman stumped the experts in 1948."

Alcorn, speaking to a meeting of Republican National Committee members, said that despite some political predictions, "there is no reason for us to lose a single Senate or House seat or a single governorship."

The Eisenhower administration's handling of the recession is one of the largest reasons, Alcorn said, why Republicans will make a strong showing in 1958 elections.

"To the everlasting credit of President Eisenhower, his administration refused to panic when Democrats were shouting, with a curious mixture of alarm and elation, that the country was on the skids," Alcorn said.

He continued: "Our economy is now moving forward and upward at a healthy pace. The recession has bottomed out during the spring months and there has been a steady, continuing upturn ever since. As we move toward the 1958 elections, it now seems clear that the economy will surge to even higher ground."

Motorist In Crash Goes Berserk, Runs Down Other Driver

ARMONK, N.Y. (AP)—An advertising executive was deliberately run down and killed by a motorist who went berserk after a minor traffic accident Monday night, police reported.

The victim was Charles A. Wiggins, 63, of Bedford Village, an executive for General Foods Corp.

The crazed driver, James R. Amour, 33, of Girardville, Pa., was taken to Grasslands Hospital, Valhalla, N.Y., for psychiatric observation.

Police said Wiggins stepped out of his car following a collision with Amour's car. Amour then drove his car straight at Wiggins, knocking him 70 feet.

Negro Qualifies

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—The University of Florida announced Tuesday that a Negro had qualified for admission to its law school this fall.

If the student is enrolled in September, it will mark the beginning of racial integration at the all-white state-supported university.

Income Up Over Last Year But Buying Power Down

WASHINGTON (AP) - Personal income in the first seven months of 1958 was up over last year but purchasing power was off, the Commerce Department reported Wednesday.

After making allowances for the usual summer slack, the department said the nature of business activity in July was firm. Consumer income, employment and industrial production were above monthly averages of the second quarter.

In its monthly survey of current business, the department's Office of Business Economics said personal income averaged an annual rate of 350 billion dollars for the first seven months of the year. For the same period of 1957 it averaged 346 billion.

Purchasing power was somewhat off because living costs increased.

The government reported previously that income reached a high in July, hitting an annual rate of 354½ billion. Counting retroactive pay increases given government employes, the seasonally adjusted rate would have been nearly 359 billion.

In its latest survey, the department attributed the climb to an increase in unemployment and Social Security payments, rise in farm income, maintenance of corporate dividends despite a drop in profits and a continued advance in wage rates, including the hike in government pay.

Ike Proposes New Global Aid Association

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower Tuesday proposed establishment of a new international development association and increased funds for two existing credit agencies to promote economic growth of underdeveloped nations.

He instructed Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson in a letter to seek a "major expansion in the international programs designed to promote" Free World economic growth at the October meeting in New Delhi of the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund.

The President's plan would involve an increase in member country subscriptions to both the fund and the bank to "better equip them for the tasks of the decade ahead."

He said an international development association "could provide a useful supplement to the existing lending activities of the bank and thereby accelerate the pace of economic development in the less developed member countries of the bank."

Anderson said the New Delhi meeting might lead to a general agreement on the need for the program. But he said final details, such as the amount of money required, would have to be worked out later by technical experts.

Eisenhower said a central objective of U.S. policy is "a sound and sustainable rate of economic growth in the Free World." But he said American aid programs, even though recently expanded, "can do only a part of the job".

Anderson said he foresaw no deficiency in either the World Bank's or the international Monetary Fund's capacity to meet the need for capital and foreign exchange by the less developed countries in the next year or so.

But Eisenhower said he felt the time had arrived for some long-range planning in the economic development field. He said his proposal "would require intensified international cooperation directed to a broad attack upon some of the major economic problems of our time."

Socialite Lands In Jail After Row With Policemen

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Horace E. Dodge II of the Detroit automobile family was jailed Tuesday on drunk and battery charges after a violent row with police officers and matrons.

Her companion, Chicago Sun-Times columnist Irv Kupcinet, was booked on a drunk driving charge.

She and Kupcinet were released later on bail, pending a Wednesday court appearance.

Mrs. Dodge, 35, the former Gregg Sherwood, film actress, used violent language, spat on one officer and spat on and struck two matrons, policemen Lawrence Brown and Kenneth Bernard reported.

Federalsburg, Md., Battles High Water

FEDERALSBURG, Md. (AP)—A combination of high tides and more rain added Tuesday night to the troubles of this Eastern Shore town battling swollen Marshyhope Creek.

The stream, which runs through this community of some 2,000 persons, was just about filled carrying off an excessive rainfall of the weekend.

Then early Tuesday an earth dam at Smithville, about eight miles north, gave way and spilled more water into the creek.

Water up to a foot deep covered sections of Federalsburg. An estimated 200 telephones were out of order. The State Roads Commission closed the bridge carrying Maryland 313 traffic across the creek.

Several other highways in the Maryland-Delaware area were under water and impassable.

Federalsburg's business district and a number of homes along the creek were flooded. About 25 families in low-lying sections had to abandon their homes. Merchants in several stores near the flood area moved their stock to higher elevations.

The Smithville dam was being rebuilt by the Game and Inland Fish Commission. Metal plates had been put in front of the gates to check the water after the lake had been drained.

The excessive rains backed up the water and the temporary barrier gave way early Tuesday.

The Denton office of the Soil Conservation Department reported that 8.78 inches of rain had fallen on the area since Saturday night, and it was still coming down Tuesday. The rainfall then was about two-thirds the amount recorded when a 1935 flood caused an estimated $1,000,000 damage.

All of Federalsburg had been alerted to the danger about 4 a.m. Tuesday when State Police advised the fire department of the break in the dam at Smithville.

At the time the town had about several inches of water in low sections, and the flow increased by the dam break raised the level rapidly.

Auto Industry Wildcat Strike Wave Spreads

DETROIT (AP) — Production workers in the auto industry continued to walk off their jobs in rapidly growing numbers Tuesday.

They walked the picket lines with months of short work weeks behind them and the prospect of a general strike ahead of them.

More than 10,000 members of the United Auto Workers Union were idle as the wave of wildcat walkouts hit two more plants — General Motors' Pontiac plant at Pontiac, Mich., and Chrysler Corp.'s Dodge truck plant in Detroit.

The rash of strikes, biggest since the UAW's contracts with the big auto makers expired almost three months ago, posed a mounting threat to production of 1959 models by GM, Chrysler and Ford.

Most of the strikes stemmed from disagreement on the companies' policies for calling back laid-off workers for new car production. The union has demanded the companies call in jobless workers rather than schedule overtime for workers already on the job.

At the Pontiac plant, where 5,000 were idled when tool room workers and machinery repairmen walked out over unsettled grievances, an officer of the local said:

"These guys are damned tired of working without a contract."

On the picket line many are sure that a showdown in contract talks will result in a strike against one of the big auto makers next month—which means more weeks without a payday.

"Man, they got me in a knot," said a tall, thin man carrying a strike placard. "There's eight of us at my house, six kids. I'm buying a house. I don't know what I'm going to do. But I'll hold out as long as anybody else."

30 Hurt As Bus Plows Into Truck

COOK, Ind. (UPI) — A Greyhound bus smashed into the rear of a big truck loaded with encyclopedias on a four-lane highway near here early Tuesday, injuring at least 30 persons.

The bus did not overturn, and most passengers suffered only cuts and bruises. Hours after the accident, only four persons were still hospitalized.

29th Praised By Col. Salee

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—Army Col. Hartford F. Salee said Tuesday that the 29th National Guard Infantry Division is in a "very high state of training."

Col. Salee made his comment after inspecting the approximately 8,000 citizen - soldiers from Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia taking their two weeks summer training at this sprawling installation near Harrisburg.

The 29th has completed its training of the individual, Col. Salee said, "and from reports received from the inspectors is ready to begin training of its small units."

The rating board in Col. Salee's office gave the largest number of superior marks to the 104th Medical Battalion and the 729th Ordnance Battalion, both of Maryland, and the 197th Tank Battalion of West Virginia.

Limping Bank Bandit Suspect Is Indicted

BALTIMORE (AP) — A federal grand jury Tuesday indicted Benjamin Glenn Barney, 27, of Saginaw, Mich., as the limping bank bandit who robbed a Maryland bank of $38,500 July 16.

The robbery was staged at a branch of the First National Bank of Southern Maryland in the Washington suburb of Marlowe Heights. Barney is being returned to Baltimore from Laredo, Tex., where he was arrested last week as he returned to the United States from Mexico.

The five-count indictment against Barney included a charge brought under the federal hostage law, which carries a possible death penalty. He is accused of endangering the lives of three persons, including Manager George R. Sellner, while carrying out the robbery.

Three French Policemen Shot By Terrorists

PARIS (UPI) — Three policemen were gunned down in their jeep Tuesday night during a nation-wide man-hunt for Algerian rebels who struck simultaneously in 16 points throughout the country Monday in an attempt to weaken the French military machine in Algeria.

The police were wounded in an ambush in the working-class 14th Ward where thousands of Algerians live. The gunmen were believed to be Algerian terrorists.

Twenty Algerians have been arrested in Paris thus far in the roundup and more arrests were expected.

In Cairo, an Algerian FLN rebel source declared the hit-run blows were a success.

"The Algerian Nationalist attacks in France and the heavy damage which has been inflicted on the French will have a practical and evident effect on the situation in Algeria during the next few days," he said.

The FLN "minister of war," Kerim Bel Kassem, said in Cairo that Wednesday's attacks were a "warning." He said it depended on the situation whether there would be any more.

Integration Order Appeal Indicated

LEONARDTOWN, Md. (AP) — St. Mary's County school officials indicated Tuesday they will appeal a Federal court order to admit a Negro girl to Great Mills High School.

Robert King, county school superintendent, said the St. Mary's board of education will announce its decision Wednesday. He said the order was discussed at a lengthy meeting, but two of the five board members were not present.

"We're pretty sure we know what we're going to do," he said, "but we'd like to contact these two members first."

Asked if this indicated the board planned to appeal the order by Federal Judge Roszel C. Thomsen, King replied:

"I'd say that's 100 per cent accurate."

County officials had set up a program which called for desegregation of elementary school grades last year, junior high school grades this fall and high schools next year.

Bids shall be for cash, and each bid must be accompanied by a certified or a cashier's check of a Cumberland, Maryland, bank for 5% of the amount bid.

Payment in full for the property shall be made by the successful bidder upon delivery of possession and a deed conveying a good and marketable, fee simple title to the property, free and clear of liens and encumbrances, and if possible, such deliveries will be made on or before January 1, 1959, and State, County and City taxes and Water and Sewer rents shall be adjusted to the date of transfer of the property. Should The Potomac Edison Company be unable to deliver possession of said property on or before January 1, 1959, because of its inability to move into its new warehouse on Fourth Street, Cumberland, Maryland, by that time, or for any other reason, the sale and transfer of the aforesaid property shall be completed on December 31, 1958, and thereafter, The Potomac Edison Company shall pay to the purchaser as rent for said property the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per month until possession of said property has been given to the purchaser.

The check of the successful bidder will be retained and applied to the purchase price, and in the event the purchaser defaults, the amount of said check will be retained as liquidated damages for such default. Checks of unsuccessful bidders shall be returned to them on or before September 20, 1958.

The Potomac Edison Company specifically reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

A plat of the above property is on file at the general offices of the Company, 112 Union Street, Cumberland, Maryland, and a copy of this plat will be furnished to each prospective bidder, and the Company will be glad to arrange for an inspection of the property by each prospective bidder.

Each bid shall specifically state that the bidder has examined the property, is familiar with its dimensions and improvements, and understands that the 14 foot street or alley known as Smith Street, runs through the length of the property from North Centre Street to the Western Maryland Railway Company right-of-way between Nos. 327 and 401 North Centre Street, Cumberland, Maryland, and that the bidder also understands that there is a 5 foot right-of-way running from the westerly side of said Smith Street along the rear of No. 401 North Centre Street into the Langer property at Nos. 403 and 405 North Centre Street.

Auto Industry Wildcat Strike Wave Spreads

DETROIT (AP) — Production workers in the auto industry continued to walk off their jobs in rapidly growing numbers Tuesday.

They walked the picket lines with months of short work weeks behind them and the prospect of a general strike ahead of them.

More than 10,000 members of the United Auto Workers Union were idle as the wave of wildcat walkouts hit two more plants — General Motors' Pontiac plant at Pontiac, Mich., and Chrysler Corp.'s Dodge truck plant in Detroit.

The rash of strikes, biggest since the UAW's contracts with the big auto makers expired almost three months ago, posed a mounting threat to production of 1959 models by GM, Chrysler and Ford.

Most of the strikes stemmed from disagreement on the companies' policies for calling back laid-off workers for new car production. The union has demanded the companies call in jobless workers rather than schedule overtime for workers already on the job.

At the Pontiac plant, where 5,000 were idled when tool room workers and machinery repairmen walked out over unsettled grievances, an officer of the local said:

"These guys are damned tired of working without a contract."

On the picket line many are sure that a showdown in contract talks will result in a strike against one of the big auto makers next month—which means more weeks without a payday.

"Man, they got me in a knot," said a tall, thin man carrying a strike placard. "There's eight of us at my house, six kids. I'm buying a house. I don't know what I'm going to do. But I'll hold out as long as anybody else."

The blood of an adult leaves the heart, circulates through the body and returns in a matter of about one minute.

30 Hurt As Bus Plows Into Truck

COOK, Ind. (UPI) — A Greyhound bus smashed into the rear of a big truck loaded with encyclopedias on a four-lane highway near here early Tuesday, injuring at least 30 persons.

The bus did not overturn, and most passengers suffered only cuts and bruises. Hours after the accident, only four persons were still hospitalized.

About 20 thousand pounds of pressure would be required to flatten a regulation football to the point where it exploded.

29th Praised By Col. Salee

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—Army Col. Hartford F. Salee said Tuesday that the 29th National Guard Infantry Division is in a "very high state of training."

Col. Salee made his comment after inspecting the approximately 8,000 citizen - soldiers from Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia taking their two weeks summer training at this sprawling installation near Harrisburg.

The 29th has completed its training of the individual, Col. Salee said, "and from reports received from the inspectors is ready to begin training of its small units."

The rating board in Col. Salee's office gave the largest number of superior marks to the 104th Medical Battalion and the 729th Ordnance Battalion, both of Maryland, and the 197th Tank Battalion of West Virginia.

Limping Bank Bandit Suspect Is Indicted

BALTIMORE (AP) — A federal grand jury Tuesday indicted Benjamin Glenn Barney, 27, of Saginaw, Mich., as the limping bank bandit who robbed a Maryland bank of $38,500 July 16.

The robbery was staged at a branch of the First National Bank of Southern Maryland in the Washington suburb of Marlowe Heights. Barney is being returned to Baltimore from Laredo, Tex., where he was arrested last week as he returned to the United States from Mexico.

The five-count indictment against Barney included a charge brought under the federal hostage law, which carries a possible death penalty. He is accused of endangering the lives of three persons, including Manager George R. Sellner, while carrying out the robbery.

Three French Policemen Shot By Terrorists

PARIS (UPI) — Three policemen were gunned down in their jeep Tuesday night during a nation-wide man-hunt for Algerian rebels who struck simultaneously in 16 points throughout the country Monday in an attempt to weaken the French military machine in Algeria.

The police were wounded in an ambush in the working-class 14th Ward where thousands of Algerians live. The gunmen were believed to be Algerian terrorists.

Twenty Algerians have been arrested in Paris thus far in the roundup and more arrests were expected.

In Cairo, an Algerian FLN rebel source declared the hit-run blows were a success.

"The Algerian Nationalist attacks in France and the heavy damage which has been inflicted on the French will have a practical and evident effect on the situation in Algeria during the next few days," he said.

The FLN "minister of war," Kerim Bel Kassem, said in Cairo that Wednesday's attacks were a "warning." He said it depended on the situation whether there would be any more.

Premier Charles de Gaulle, in French West Africa on his whirlwind campaign to whip up support for his proposed new constitution, kept in touch with developments by telephone and cable.

Integration Order Appeal Indicated

LEONARDTOWN, Md. (AP) — St. Mary's County school officials indicated Tuesday they will appeal a Federal court order to admit a Negro girl to Great Mills High School.

Robert King, county school superintendent, said the St. Mary's board of education will announce its decision Wednesday. He said the order was discussed at a lengthy meeting, but two of the five board members were not present.

"We're pretty sure we know what we're going to do," he said, "but we'd like to contact these two members first."

Asked if this indicated the board planned to appeal the order by Federal Judge Roszel C. Thomsen, King replied:

"I'd say that's 100 per cent accurate."

County officials had set up a program which called for desegregation of elementary school grades last year, junior high school grades this fall and high schools next year.

Pennsy In Red

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The Pennsylvania Railroad reported Tuesday a net loss of $4,978,400 on July operations, against net income of $1,035,100 or eight cents a share in July 1957, but said earnings for August "definitely will be in the black."

City Has Advantages But Small-Town Boy Gets To Know People

By ARTHUR EDSON

MONETT, Mo. (AP)—This has become a citified nation, which means a lot of youngsters are getting a bad break. They'll never know the fun of growing up in a small town.

This thought comes up every time I return to Monett (Pop. 4,771), a spunky Ozark Mountain town in southwest Missouri where I grew up.

Sure, a city boy or girl has certain advantages.

A youngster raised in Washington, D.C., can, if he chooses, look at the world's greatest pictures in the National Art Gallery, see the great men of this and other countries, listen to democracy in action as some of the world's best, and some of the world's most long-winded, orators perform in the national legislature.

Any city has attractions beyond the dreams of us former small-town boys.

Yet if the small-town boy is short-changed here, he has other compensations.

He quickly learns about basic economics. What it means to have a killing frost when strawberries are in bloom. How a summer like this one, when the rains came at last, fills the haybarns and granaries. How a town has to hustle when its main industry—in Monett's case, railroading—gradually moves away.

But, best of all, he gets to know people.

It's strange how few people you really know in a city filled with them.

In a small town, everyone knows everyone.

This has its drawbacks, and indignant authors repeatedly have pointed out how cruel gossip can be. But an observant boy knows people who might be swallowed up by a big city.

Men like Logan D. McKee and Nick Humy.

Both are dead now, and it seems to me that Monett has lost a couple of valuable resources in addition to the roundhouse.

Take Logan, one of the town's druggists. He was a small man, hardly more than a gnome, but like many a small man what there was of him was all bounce.

He crackled with ideas, all of them splendid. When airplanes were new, and before he ever had seen one, he sent off for plans and built his own. I can't remember now whether it flew or not, but he still seems to me to have been only a shade less daring than the Wright brothers.

He rode a bicycle constantly, and took his grandsons on long bike trips. "How many miles per gallon do you get? asked the town joker. "Ten miles for each gallon of pop," said Logan, and buzzed off to some new venture.

Or take Nick Humy. He came from Russia expecting to meet his brother. But just before he arrived, the brother disappeared and never was heard of again.

Penniless, not knowing a word of English, Nick was undaunted. He wound up as a first-rate barber, a pillar in the church and in the American Legion.

Because of his own rough time, he was a sucker for anyone asking help.

Once he gave a tramp a dollar in advance to cut some wood. As soon as Nick was out of sight, the tramp fled. His wife called to tell Nick the bad news.

"Did he take the ax?" Nick asked.

"No," she said.

"You see," said Nick, his faith in mankind restored, "he was an honest man."

I still can hear his hearty laugh, a constant reminder that, despite its leadership, Russia still must have men as friendly and gay as Nick Humy.

Stardust Space Ship Described

AMSTERDAM (AP) — A space ship flying on stardust was described Monday by an American scientist.

It conceivably could approach the speed of light—183,000 miles a second. It would draw its power from hydrogen gas—stardust—out in space ejected by stars like our sun.

The hydrogen is scarce, but Dr. Bela Karlovitz and Bernard Lewis propose an ingenious system for using it. Dr. Karlovitz, of Combustion and Explosive Research, Pittsburgh, described it to the International Astronautical Federation meeting.

The rocket ship shoots out streams of electrons as it speeds through space. This creates a great electromagnet field, like a doughnut around the ship, stretching out to distances of 500 to 1,000 miles.

The big electromagnetic field runs into a good bit of the hydrogen. The hydrogen atoms are speeded up and kicked backward at higher speed.

This reaction pushes the magnetic field forward at higher speed than originally, and the electromagnetic field as it speeded up, would carry the space ship forward at higher speed.

Such a system could cut years from the time needed to reach another star. The nearest star to ours is so distant its light reaches us only after 4 1-3 years of travel.

This idea may be far in the future. But then, astronauts only a few years ago were talking imaginatively of shooting satellites into orbit around the earth—and they are up there now.

The first case of a vessel's being sent over Niagara falls was in 1827, with a bear, a fox, a buffalo, a dog and some geese aboard. The dog, fox and buffalo were lost.

Margaret Castle Honored At Prenuptial Shower

Mrs. Melissa Mullis, Washington, entertained with a miscellaneous shower and prenuptial party in compliment to Miss Margaret Castle, fiancee of George F. Riggs, last evening. It was held at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Koch, Arch Street.

The marriage of Miss Castle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Castle, 127 Arch Street, to Mr. Riggs, son of Mrs. Willard Spiker Riggs, Parkside Boulevard, LaVale, is to be solemnized at 7 p. m. Friday in Grace Methodist Church.

A yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations last evening. The hostess had the shower gifts concealed beneath a yellow and white umbrella. White bells with yellow streamers were suspended above the refreshment table, which was centered with a tiered wedding cake, decorated in yellow and white. The same colors were repeated in the miniature parasols given as favors. Bouquets of roses were used throughout the house.

Guests were Mrs. Ivetta Mauk, Mrs. Elizabeth Koch, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Hopwood, Mrs. Willard Riggs, Mrs. William Castle, Mrs. Dorothy Dickens, Mrs. Ann Koch, Mrs. Mary Koch, Mrs. Mary Talley, Miss Anna Lee Koch, Mrs. John R. Wilson, Miss Jacqueline Wilson, Miss Linda Wilson, Mrs. Paige Shank, Mrs. Barbara Reiley, and Miss Sandra Thwaites.

Historical Open House Is Today

Articles given as memorials to the Allegany County Historical Society and a group of outstanding pieces from the Gold Medallion collection of Mrs. William L. Wilson Jr. will feature the exhibit at the fifth Wednesday Open House of the society today.

Open house will be held at 218 Washington Street from 2 until 5 o'clock. The public is invited, and there is no charge.

Hostesses for the day are Mrs. Harry Beneman, Mrs. Simon Rosenbaum II, Mrs. Brooke Whiting and Mrs. Walter Capper, chairman of the weekly affairs.

Family Outing To Be Thursday

Cresap Homemakers Club will entertain with a family outing Thursday at the Celanese pool. In case of rain it will be transferred to Cresaptown Methodist Church. It will begin with a wiener roast at 7. Each member is to bring wieners and rolls for her own family.

A brief business session will be conducted by Mrs. Harold Lewis, followed by a vesper service.

Farm Queen Contest To Be Saturday

Miss Marlene Clark, Allegany County Farm Queen, will be among the 23 "queens" to compete for the title of Maryland Farm Queen, Saturday evening at the Timonium State Fair. The event will take place at 8 p. m. in front of the new grandstand. The contests have been under the direction of the Associated Women of the Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Edgar Matthews, president of the Allegany County Associated Women, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Clark, Baltimore Pike, will accompany their daughter to the fair, where they will be guests of the fair management at a dinner before the state contest.

Miss Clark was winner of the 4-H public speaking contest this year; and is active in the Bedford Road 4-H Club, having won awards in cooking, baking, sewing and the preparation of salads and dairy foods. In 1956, she was the winner in the individual dairy foods demonstration.

John Zink, chairman of the evening program, has arranged for Bob Jones to be master of ceremonies and interview the contestants. A queen and four others as members of her court are to be named. The queen will receive a four-year scholarship to the University of Maryland.

The Maryland Farm Queen will be crowned at 2 p. m. Sunday before the grandstand.

Frederick contestant is Miss Beverly Rapp; Garrett, Miss Sue Hershberger; and Washington, Miss Phyllis Green.

League Plans Card Party, Dance

The annual card party and Yom Kippur dance were discussed at a meeting of the Women's League of Beth-Jacob Synagogue. Mrs. Harry Stein presided. The card party will be September 3 and the dance September 24.

Mrs. Stein was named chairman for the card party, which will be held at Clarysville Inn, beginning at 8:15. Duplicate bridge and other card games will be played. Prizes will be awarded winners at each table. Other members of the committee consist of Mrs. Samuel Artz, Mrs. Robert Dezen, Mrs. Jerome Farber, Mrs. Henry Getz, Mrs. Marvin Kaplon, Mrs. Helen Kauffman, Mrs. David Klein, Mrs. Sander Lewine, Mrs. Harry Lichtenstein and Mrs. Edward Pallik.

Refreshments will be served and candy and cookies will be sold. Players are to bring their own cards.

The dance will be held in the synagogue vestry room. Mrs. Klein will be chairman, assisted by Mrs. Pallik, Mrs. George Waingold, Mrs. Alvin Finesman, Mrs. Sol Glicksman, Mrs. Robert Goldfine, Mrs. Walter Brock, Mrs. Lewine and Mrs. Mel Sacks.

Margaret Castle Honored At Prenuptial Shower

Mrs. Melissa Mullis, Washington, entertained with a miscellaneous shower and prenuptial party in compliment to Miss Margaret Castle, fiancee of George F. Riggs, last evening. It was held at the home of her mother, Mrs. Alice Koch, Arch Street.

The marriage of Miss Castle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Castle, 127 Arch Street, to Mr. Riggs, son of Mrs. Willard Spiker Riggs, Parkside Boulevard, LaVale, is to be solemnized at 7 p. m. Friday in Grace Methodist Church.

A yellow and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations last evening. The hostess had the shower gifts concealed beneath a yellow and white umbrella. White bells with yellow streamers were suspended above the refreshment table, which was centered with a tiered wedding cake, decorated in yellow and white. The same colors were repeated in the miniature parasols given as favors. Bouquets of roses were used throughout the house.

Guests were Mrs. Ivetta Mauk, Mrs. Elizabeth Koch, Mrs. Margaret Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Hopwood, Mrs. Willard Riggs, Mrs. William Castle, Mrs. Dorothy Dickens, Mrs. Ann Koch, Mrs. Mary Koch, Mrs. Mary Talley, Miss Anna Lee Koch, Mrs. John R. Surplus Food Setup Still Needs Changes

A snag developed in the progress of obtaining approval of the application of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners for a surplus food program.

William Brugger, supervisor of the donable food program for the State Department of Budget and Procurement, wrote the board that several additional changes must be made in the application, and various forms required by the federal government before the plan can be approved.

The commissioners were visibly displeased at this turn of events yesterday as the surplus food program has run into one obstacle after another in recent months. It had been hoped to have the program in effect by the end of this month.

Brugger telephoned the board later in the meeting to say that the income allowance table for applicants for surplus food has been decreased slightly. As it appears now the program will probably not get under way until late next month or early in October, provided there are no more delays.

The Associated Charities has notified the board it estimates more than 400 families comprising about 1,000 people are eligible for the surplus federal food.

Port Group To Meet

The Cumberland Municipal Airport Commission will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the office of Mayor J. Edwin Keech.

Poisons of various animals are used in treating human ailments. Rattlesnake poison is used in yellow fever work and cobra poison is a heart remedy.

Picnic Plans Progressing

Plans are progressing for the Labor Day picnic to be held at Fairgo Monday by the Western Maryland Labor Council.

The event, for union members, their friends and families, will be held from 9:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. Attending the basket picnic will be delegations from Hagerstown, Baltimore, Washington and the Eastern Shore.

General chairmen for the event are Stanley Zorick, Graydon S. Dunlap, and Joseph V. Burke. They also compose the program committee.

Committee members are:

Earl Sills, Harold Riggleman, Garnett M. Yost, Joseph Freno, and Charles E. Stutzman, refreshments.

F. Patrick Allender, Zorick and Burke, publicity and finance.

Andrew Lewis and Roy Craze, recreation. The City Recreation Department will arrange the program.

M. R. Samson and Stutzman, police protection.

John Mace and Joseph Mullenex, games.

Charles Bramble and George Brown, safety and health.

Skelly Aids In Study

Harry T. Skelly, county roads supervisor, is a member of a committee of the County Engineers Association of Maryland which is making a study of the distribution of gasoline tax revenues to the counties and Baltimore City.

Skelly submitted a report to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday outlining the gasoline tax situation and stating that the Engineers Association will submit a report to the Legislative Council on its findings.

The association is working with the State Association of County Commissioners in the study. Both groups say the distribution is unfair to the counties because Baltimore City gets 30 per cent of the total, 50 per cent goes to the state and the counties get only 20 per cent.

Skelly said the four large suburban counties of Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Montgomery and Prince Georges get a total of $3,500,000 while Baltimore City gets more than $17,000,000 under the percentage formula in use.

He pointed out that the counties get $800 for each mile of roadway from gasoline tax revenue while Baltimore City receives $9,900 for each mile of its streets.

18 Honored For Services

Eighteen employes of the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation of America were presented watches last week in recognition of 25 years service.

W. E. Crooks, plant manager, presented the watches, while section superintendents presented five-star service emblems to the employes.

Receiving the awards were James M. Baker, Harry L. Carns, Roy F. Everstine, John J. Nolan, John W. Thomas and James W. Tyree of the engineering department; Harry W. Alderton, Reuben B. Broadwater, Oscar C. Chaney, Amos Lambert and Sampson J. Sions of cellulose compounds.

William A. Brown, James C. Riley, Percy R. Sansom, Hazel H. Wiley and Wayne C. Wolford, of extrusion manufacturing; James W. Padfield of textile manufacturing and Harry M. Stafford of solvent recovery.

Americans Cautioned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department Monday cautioned Americans not to travel along Austria's frontier adjoining Communist Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

The Austrian Interior Ministry recently said: "Shots from beyond the border, mine explosions, electric barbed wire fences, and possibly even abductions threaten anyone in the immediate vicinity of the border with Hungary or Czechoslovakia."

Once included in a vast territory embraced by the ancient Toltec cultures, Mexico was settled by the Aztec peoples in the northwest.

Sgt. Divico High Scorer Among Guard Riflemen

Sgt. First Class John J. Divico posted the highest score with the rifle among members of Cumberland's National Guard Unit undergoing training at Indiantown Gap, Pa.

Sgt. Divico posted a 186 score out of a possible 200 points.

The scores for the expert shooters were: Sgt. Divico, 186; Sgt. First Class Matthew Skidmore, 185; Master Sgt. Walter W. Hartman Jr., 184; Sgt. First Class James E. Mullennex, 184; SP 2 Richard F. GOOD Advice to Give a Boy!

See About Getting a Newspaper Route!

- MANY A DAD has discovered that doling out extra spending money is not the constructive solution to a boy's ever-growing financial problem. For it gives the lad a false value of a dollar; also denies him the thrill of earning his own funds, and being able to do and buy things on his own!

THAT'S WHY the wise dad advises his son to see about a newspaper route as soon as he is old enough. With a spare-time route, a boy goes into business for himself. Buys papers wholesale, delivers them at retail price, makes collections, pays bills and keeps records.

AS A RESULT, he soon learns the value of an earned dollar—to spend it wisely, save regularly, and always try to increase his profits by good service and smart selling. Also, he learns that good habits and business ability pay off today—and will help him step ahead faster tomorrow! Does YOUR son have a newspaper route?

Surplus Food Setup Still Needs Changes

A snag developed in the progress of obtaining approval of the application of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners for a surplus food program.

William Brugger, supervisor of the donable food program for the State Department of Budget and Procurement, wrote the board that several additional changes must be made in the application, and various forms required by the federal government before the plan can be approved.

The commissioners were visibly displeased at this turn of events yesterday as the surplus food program has run into one obstacle after another in recent months. It had been hoped to have the program in effect by the end of this month.

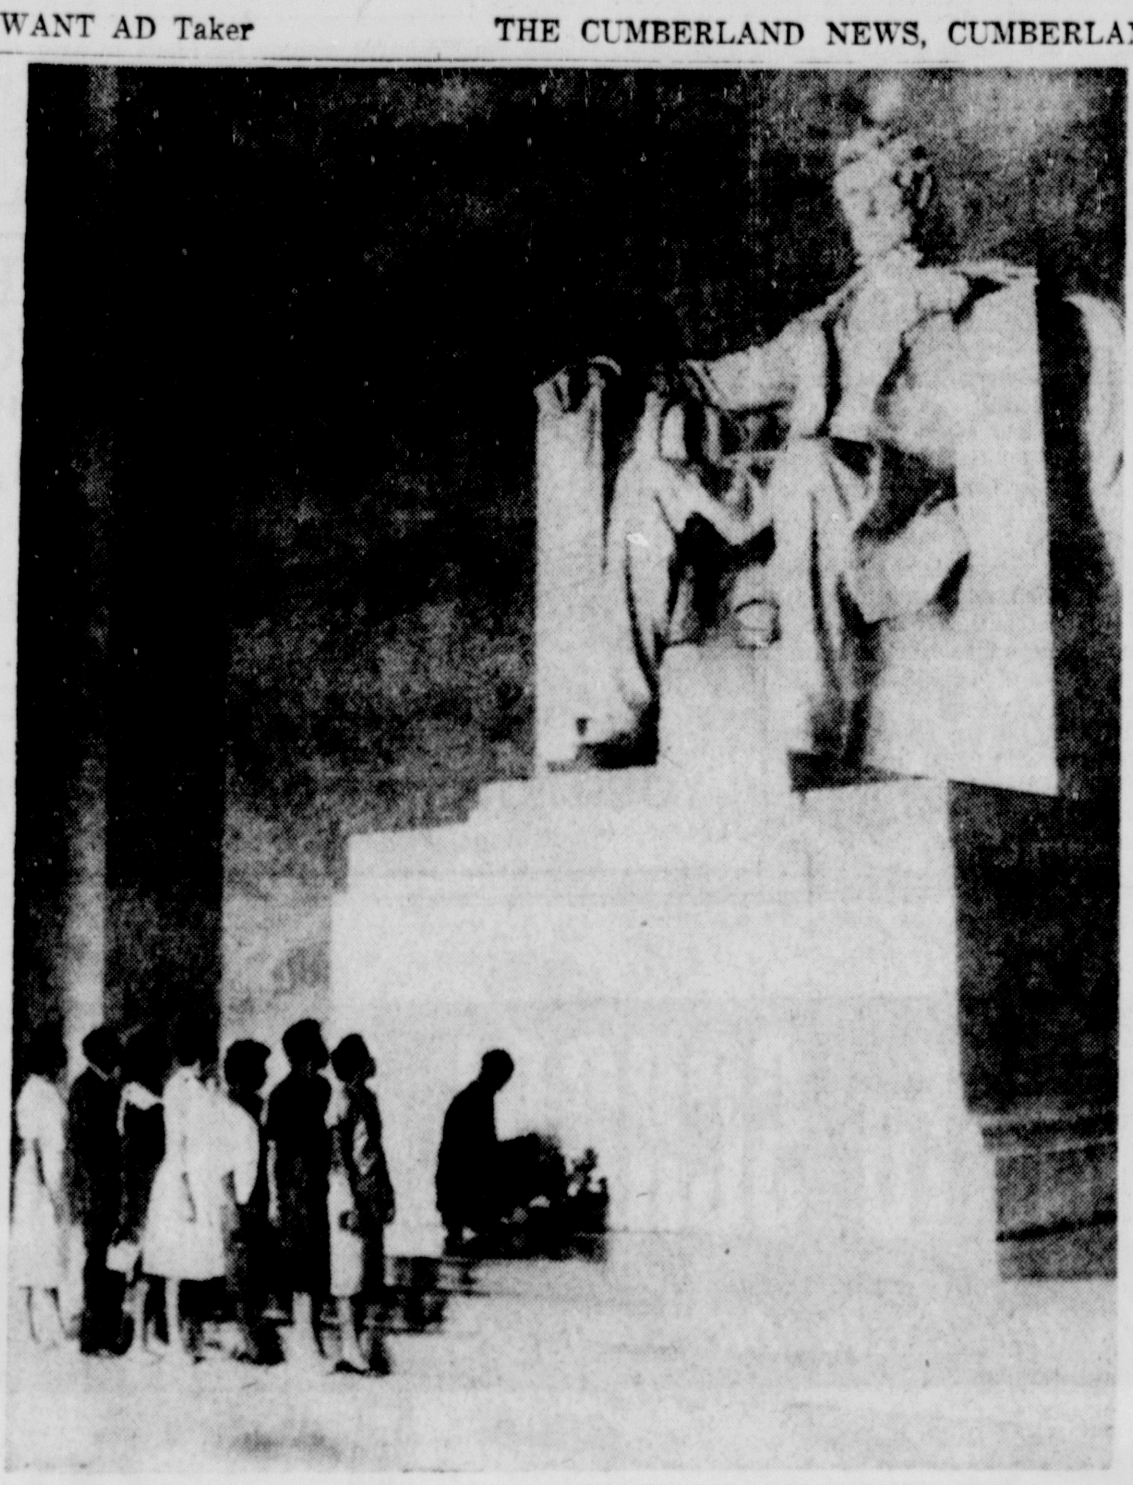
Brugger telephoned the board later in the meeting to say that the income allowance table for applicants for surplus food has been decreased slightly. As it appears now the program will probably not get under way until late next month or early in October, provided there are no more delays.

The Associated Charities has notified the board it estimates more than 400 families comprising about 1,000 people are eligible for the surplus federal food.

Port Group To Meet

The Cumberland Municipal Airport Commission will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the office of Mayor J. Edwin Keech.

Poisons of various animals are used in treating human ailments. Rattlesnake poison is used in yellow fever work and cobra poison is a heart remedy.



PAYING HOMAGE TO LINCOLN — The towering statue of Abraham Lincoln dwarfs seven Negro students who last year attended Central High School at Little Rock, Ark., as one of their number — Terrance Roberts — places a wreath at the statue's base during a visit yesterday to the Lincoln Memorial in Washington. Accompanying the students is Mrs. Daisy Bates. (AP Photofax)

The Articles of Confederation, though adopted by the Continental Congress in 1778, were not ratified by all the states until March 1, 1781.

Picnic Plans Progressing

Plans are progressing for the Labor Day picnic to be held at Fairgo Monday by the Western Maryland Labor Council.

The event, for union members, their friends and families, will be held from 9:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. Attending the basket picnic will be delegations from Hagerstown, Baltimore, Washington and the Eastern Shore.

General chairmen for the event are Stanley Zorick, Graydon S. Dunlap, and Joseph V. Burke. They also compose the program committee.

Committee members are:

Earl Sills, Harold Riggleman, Garnett M. Yost, Joseph Freno, and Charles E. Stutzman, refreshments.

F. Patrick Allender, Zorick and Burke, publicity and finance.

Andrew Lewis and Roy Craze, recreation. The City Recreation Department will arrange the program.

M. R. Samson and Stutzman, police protection.

John Mace and Joseph Mullenex, games.

Charles Bramble and George Brown, safety and health.

Skelly Aids In Study

Harry T. Skelly, county roads supervisor, is a member of a committee of the County Engineers Association of Maryland which is making a study of the distribution of gasoline tax revenues to the counties and Baltimore City.

Skelly submitted a report to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday outlining the gasoline tax situation and stating that the Engineers Association will submit a report to the Legislative Council on its findings.

The association is working with the State Association of County Commissioners in the study. Both groups say the distribution is unfair to the counties because Baltimore City gets 30 per cent of the total, 50 per cent goes to the state and the counties get only 20 per cent.

Skelly said the four large suburban counties of Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Montgomery and Prince Georges get a total of $3,500,000 while Baltimore City gets more than $17,000,000 under the percentage formula in use.

He pointed out that the counties get $800 for each mile of roadway from gasoline tax revenue while Baltimore City receives $9,900 for each mile of its streets.

18 Honored For Services

Eighteen employes of the Amcelle plant of the Celanese Corporation of America were presented watches last week in recognition of 25 years service.

W. E. Crooks, plant manager, presented the watches, while section superintendents presented five-star service emblems to the employes.

Receiving the awards were James M. Baker, Harry L. Carns, Roy F. Everstine, John J. Nolan, John W. Thomas and James W. Tyree of the engineering department; Harry W. Alderton, Reuben B. Broadwater, Oscar C. Chaney, Amos Lambert and Sampson J. Sions of cellulose compounds.

William A. Brown, James C. Riley, Percy R. Sansom, Hazel H. Wiley and Wayne C. Wolford, of extrusion manufacturing; James W. Padfield of textile manufacturing and Harry M. Stafford of solvent recovery.

Americans Cautioned

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department Monday cautioned Americans not to travel along Austria's frontier adjoining Communist Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

The Austrian Interior Ministry recently said: "Shots from beyond the border, mine explosions, electric barbed wire fences, and possibly even abductions threaten anyone in the immediate vicinity of the border with Hungary or Czechoslovakia."

Once included in a vast territory embraced by the ancient Toltec cultures, Mexico was settled by the Aztec peoples in the northwest.

Sgt. Divico High Scorer Among Guard Riflemen

Sgt. First Class John J. Divico posted the highest score with the rifle among members of Cumberland's National Guard Unit undergoing training at Indiantown Gap, Pa.

Sgt. Divico posted a 186 score out of a possible 200 points.

Headquarters Company of the local unit had 15 men fire expert scores, 12 sharpshooters and 13 marksmen. Some of the firing was conducted at Barton's range before the unit left for camp, while other men fired at Indiantown Gap.

The scores for the expert shooters were: Sgt. Divico, 186; Sgt. First Class Matthew Skidmore, 185; Master Sgt. Walter W. Hartman Jr., 184; Sgt. First Class James E. Mullennex, 184; SP 2 Richard F. Hawse, 180; Sfc Anthony McKenzie, 179; Master Sgt. Graydon S. Dunlap, 176; Staff Sgt. Franklin Crabtree, 176; SP 2 Robert C. Wade Jr., 176; Master Sgt. Roy C. Hawse, 174; Master Sgt. William C. Northcraft, 171; SP 3 Robert F. Cosgrove, 170; Sfc William C. Earle, 169, and Pfc Walter L. Bosley, 169.

Firing sharpshooter scores were Sgt. William D. Shipway, 165; SP 2 George J. Thomas, 165; Pfc Leonard E. Heller, 163; Pfc Neil H. Moore, 158; Master Sgt. Robert C. Wade, 156; Sgt. Television and Radio

by John Crosby

Out Thar In Radioland

On "The Breakfast Club" the other day, Don McNeill flushed a detective out of the studio audience and set him to tracking down another member of the audience who was described as "cotton-pickin', chicken-plucking" farmer type guy. Darned if he didn't do it.

"How did you find him?" asked McNeill.

"Do I have to tell?" asked the detective who was named, so help me, Shotgun.

"No, but it'd be interesting," said McNeill.

"Well, I used a stool pigeon. I got somebody else to point him out."

In short, real honest police work.

It's stunts like that that have kept "Breakfast Club" alive for twenty-five years, which anniversary it celebrated a couple months ago. Anyhow, something kept Breakfast Club alive for twenty-five years and the stunts are as good a theory as any other. Lately television has been so unmitigatedly awful that it has driven me and probably countless millions of others to radio, and you can hardly find any more old-fashioned earthy radio show than McNeill's, by cracky.

"I say, isn't this Wembley?"

"No, it's Thursday."

"So am I. Let's have a drink."

Where else can you hear that time-honored jest except on McNeill's show which has a reverence for corn that amounts to worship? The jokes have got to be good or they would hardly have lasted so long. Besides the jokes, they still have memory time, hymn time, and a lot of good wholesome songs like "The Best Things In Life Are Free" which was sung the other morning and which, you might say, almost represents the philosophy of the program.

Memory time is devoted to poesy and prose of profoundly sentimental nature. The other day, if I got it down right and I'm not at all sure that I did, it went like this: "Children need to feel security, something just to do. Children all over the world feel anger, hatred and love and that's what makes the world what it is." I don't think it was meant to rhyme.

Then there's Aunt Fanny (Fran Allison) the redoubtedly corn-fed old party, who took one look at a handsome new singer on the show and declared: "By jings, if they're still raisin' things like that on farms, agriculture's got nothing to worry about." Then she fell to talking about her local summer theater which put on "Blame Yankees—I'm not gonna say that word."

And McNeill winds it all up by saying: "Goodbye and be good to your neighbor." Not once did he say a blessed word about motherhood.

Flipping around in what used to be called radioland (and for all I know still is called radioland) is more interesting and certainly more unexpected than watching television.

I tuned in Art Linkletter the other day and found him still interviewing moppets which is becoming his life's work. "How do you fry a chicken? What do you do first?" he asked, just like a straight man. "Catch the chicken," said small fry, sounding like Moran and Mack.

Over on "Pepper Young's Family" I found Pepper wearing a hole in the maternity ward carpet waiting for Linda to have a baby, and uttering terribly wholesome remarks. And on "Backstage Wife," I got there just in time to hear Mary Noble, Backstage Wife, wrest herself away from Trevor, panting: "Let go of me, you hideous old man!"

It's almost as if I'd never been away.

Flood Control Funds Provided By Congress

An appropriation for $1,751,000 approved Monday by the House and Senate is the amount anticipated for the completion of contracts on the Cumberland-Ridgeley flood protection project.

The appropriation bill is awaiting the signature of President Eisenhower.

The majority of contract work is expected to be completed during the current year, according to Rex E. Dexter, resident engineer for the Corps of Engineers, who explained that should unforeseen developments hold up work all phases will be completed before the end of the fiscal year.

The termination dates on all existing contracts fall within the current year, he continued, and an extension is anticipated on only one of the phases of the Section 4 contract.

That is for the new Western Maryland Railway bridge where bed rock has not been encountered and where plans must be revised to meet the condition.

Section 2 of the Potomac River project, being handled by E. J. Albrecht firm, is about 95 per cent completed. The work is at a standstill, Dexter explained, pending completion of the new Western Maryland interchange bridge and the removal of the old bridge. Rip rap will be placed where the abutments of the old bridge now are, and some levee and seeding work also remains to be done.

The Wills Creek phase of the flood protection project being done by Albrecht crews is also progressing favorably, Dexter said, with paving and excavation work moving on schedule. Dexter said the last of three pumping stations is nearing completion, with tests for the equipment in the viaduct station scheduled in about three weeks.

Dexter, who has been resident engineer since 1952, said the value of the project was demonstrated during the high water several weeks ago when the completed portions handled the large volume of water without any trouble.

Of particular importance when the project is turned over to civil authority for maintenance is that the Wills Creek bed will be practically self-cleaning, Dexter pointed out. The flow of water on the concreted base of Wills Creek takes care of very heavy stone and other matter, while the lack of abutments in the river bed will prevent trees and other debris from holding back water.

Dexter said the last work on the flood control project probably will be the removal of a portion of Smith Island from the Potomac River. However, he continued, tests are being conducted to determine if the flow of the river will take care of the earth by erosion.

Flood Control Funds Provided By Congress

An appropriation for $1,751,000 approved Monday by the House and Senate is the amount anticipated for the completion of contracts on the Cumberland-Ridgeley flood protection project.

The appropriation bill is awaiting the signature of President Eisenhower.

Jobless Pay Claims Increase

BALTIMORE (AP) — The number and amount of Maryland's jobless benefit payments during July were still running almost twice as high as last year.

Both factors showed little change from June, said Robert B. Kimble, executive director of the Department of Employment Security.

Initial claims for benefits during July—a barometer of new unemployment—did rise almost 18 per cent over June, Kimble said. But much of this new unemployment was of short duration—being associated with one and two-week plant shutdowns for vacations.

Maryland residents received 158,549 benefit checks totaling $4,640,919 in July. This was a drop of three-tenths of 1 per cent from June in both number and amount.

Added to this, the department said, were 14,786 checks amounting to $460,822 paid claimants now living outside the state.

This put the total paid out by the department at slightly more than five million dollars for the month, a drop of about $6,000 from June. Said Kimble:

"Because of differences in the average amount per check, the number of checks is a better indicator of unemployment in the over-the-year comparisons than is the dollar amount."

Initial claims for benefits, representing new ranks of jobless, rose to 24,828 in July—up 17.8 per cent from June's 21,078 which was the 1958 low.

Marylanders continued to exhaust the 26 weeks of benefits they are entitled to at a greater rate in fact than during June. But the program extending eligible weeks to 39 meant that some of these claimants received checks anyway.

Claimants exhausting payments in July totaled 3,925, the department said. The cumulative rate of exhaustion reached 19.8 per cent July 31—as compared with 16.7 per cent during June.

This brought the total since last Oct. 1 to 24,187 but about two-fifths of them were receiving checks under the new supplementary program.

Of those exhausting benefits, 10,269 had received one or more checks under the temporary unemployment compensation program. Of the 10,000 claimants, 8,632 received their first checks in July and 1,637 in June.

The number of checks and dollar amounts of this special program now total 37,057 and $1,158,527 in July, and 1,637 and $52,960 in June.

Heavy Rains Slow Harvest Of State Crops

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Maryland and Delaware farmers had sunny weather most of last week but heavy rains hampered their work the latter part of the period.

The Maryland-Delaware Crop Reporting Service said of the week ended Aug. 23:

"Soil moisture conditions throughout the two-state area were mostly normal with a few reports of wet soil."

Hay harvesting continued to make progress, tomatoes were of improved quality and were moving in heavy volume, and corn remained in excellent condition—with about 70 per cent of it in the roasting ear stage.

At week's end, harvest of Sullivan Elberta peaches had past the peak. Regular Elbertas, J. H. Hale and Shippers Late Red are expected to begin this week with harvest of Jonathan and Grimes apples scheduled the first week in September.

Montgomery Blair Addition Approved

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP) — Preliminary plans for a half million dollar addition to Montgomery Blair High School in Silver Spring were approved Monday night by the Montgomery County School Board.

Estimated cost is $536,000, of which $524,000 has been appropriated. The addition would be to the central building and would include 16 classrooms, new administrative facilities and a cafeteria.

This year's enrollment is expected to be 2,150. By 1963 the enrollment is expected to be 2,400.

The board also approved the purchase of 28 television sets for use in the teaching of science in elementary schools. The sets will be distributed among one-third of the county's elementary schools.

Byrd's Picnic Set

BERRYVILLE, Va. (AP) — Preparations are being made to serve 3,500 persons at Sen. Harry F. Byrd's (D-Va) annual orchard picnic Saturday.

Principal speakers will be Dr. L. P. Batjer, chief physiologist of the Department of Agriculture in Wenatchee, Washington, and Bernard J. Imming, secretary of the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Assn.

Another Barb Tossed At Beall By D'Alesandro

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro suggested Tuesday night that Sen. J. Glenn Beall had unwittingly called four of his fellow Republican senators "dreamers who do not understand government financing."

It was the latest barb tossed in the battle between the Democratic Baltimore mayor and the man he's trying to unseat in the November election. And like so many previous ones, it referred to Beall's stand on social security.

Criticized by D'Alesandro for voting against a 10 per cent increase in social security benefits, Beall last week offered an explanation for "those dreamers who do not understand government financing." He voted instead for a 7 per cent increase, which was enacted.

In a speech prepared for an Annapolis meeting of Southern Maryland Democratic leaders and candidates, D'Alesandro noted that those who voted for the greater increase included Republican Sens. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Chapman Revercomb of West Virginia and Charles E. Potter of Michigan.

"I assume that these veteran Republican senators who voted for the increase would . . . be rudely shocked to learn that their colleague and fellow Republican, Senator Beall, describes them, among others, as 'dreamers who do not understand government financing'," said the mayor.

D'Alesandro compared the 7 per cent increase in social security benefits with 10 per cent increases in retirement benefits for government employes in the civil, military, foreign and postal services.

"What apparently Senator Beall did not understand when he voted, and does not understand yet," said the Democratic candidate, "is that he voted to deprive the people of Maryland, qualified to receive social security benefits, of the sum of three million dollars annually at the same rate voted to so many others."

San Francisco's "White Christmas" in 1948 was the first one in the history of the city's weather bureau.

Sweden and New Zealand have the lowest mortality rate of all countries.

Fightin' Woman Misses 'Referee'

BALTIMORE (AP) — A woman got more riled up when a man stepped in to break up her hair-pulling tussle with another of her sex in a tavern tuesday.

She went away, brought back a gun and fired. The aim was poor. She missed the self-appointed referee and hit a man sitting in a booth.

The bullet hit Earl Scriber, 37, in the chest.

Five Md. Polio Cases So Far This Year

BALTIMORE (AP) — With two recent cases reported in Baltimore County, Maryland has a total of five polio victims to date this year.

Last year there were 12 cases as of Aug. 26, Dr. Edward Davens, deputy state health director, reported Tuesday.

He said the national rate of infantile paralysis has risen during the past two weeks but Maryland's situation is favorable.

Cops' Check Yields No Car Stealers

BALTIMORE (AP) — Police started their first all-night spot check of young drivers Monday night but didn't turn up any car stealers.

Of 51 teen-age drivers checked, only 3 were charged with violations.

One person was driving without a license, another failed to have his registration in his possession, and the third was wanted on a warrant charging non-support.

Police inaugurated the checkup to try to stem a wave of car thefts. Originally planned for Saturday nights, it was successful enough to extend to weekdays as well.

Another Barb Tossed At Beall By D'Alesandro

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro suggested Tuesday night that Sen. J. Glenn Beall had unwittingly called four of his fellow Republican senators "dreamers who do not understand government financing."

It was the latest barb tossed in the battle between the Democratic Baltimore mayor and the man he's trying to unseat in the November election. And like so many previous ones, it referred to Beall's stand on social security.

Criticized by D'Alesandro for voting against a 10 per cent increase in social security benefits, Beall last week offered an explanation for "those dreamers who do not understand government financing." He voted instead for a 7 per cent increase, which was enacted.

In a speech prepared for an Annapolis meeting of Southern Maryland Democratic leaders and candidates, D'Alesandro noted that those who voted for the greater increase included Republican Sens. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin, Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Chapman Revercomb of West Virginia and Charles E. Potter of Michigan.

"I assume that these veteran Republican senators who voted for the increase would . . . be rudely shocked to learn that their colleague and fellow Republican, Senator Beall, describes them, among others, as 'dreamers who do not understand government financing'," said the mayor.

D'Alesandro compared the 7 per cent increase in social security benefits with 10 per cent increases in retirement benefits for government employes in the civil, military, foreign and postal services.

"What apparently Senator Beall did not understand when he voted, and does not understand yet," said the Democratic candidate, "is that he voted to deprive the people of Maryland, qualified to receive social security benefits, of the sum of three million dollars annually at the same rate voted to so many others."

Fightin' Woman Misses 'Referee'

BALTIMORE (AP) — A woman got more riled up when a man stepped in to break up her hair-pulling tussle with another of her sex in a tavern tuesday.

She went away, brought back a gun and fired. The aim was poor. She missed the self-appointed referee and hit a man sitting in a booth.

The bullet hit Earl Scriber, 37, in the chest.

Five Md. Polio Cases So Far This Year

BALTIMORE (AP) — With two recent cases reported in Baltimore County, Maryland has a total of five polio victims to date this year.

Last year there were 12 cases as of Aug. 26, Dr. Edward Davens, deputy state health director, reported Tuesday.

He said the national rate of infantile paralysis has risen during the past two weeks but Maryland's situation is favorable.

Cops' Check Yields No Car Stealers

BALTIMORE (AP) — Police started their first all-night spot check of young drivers Monday night but didn't turn up any car stealers.

Of 51 teen-age drivers checked, only 3 were charged with violations.

One person was driving without a license, another failed to have his registration in his possession, and the third was wanted on a warrant charging non-support.

Police inaugurated the checkup to try to stem a wave of car thefts. Originally planned for Saturday nights, it was successful enough to extend to weekdays as well.

Annual Audit Submitted To County Commissioners

The annual audit of Allegany County was submitted to the county commissioners yesterday by James P. Rogers, Baltimore, certified public accountant.

Rogers in his summary states that during the current year the county contributed the following sums for school purposes. Operating expenses, $1,890,009.10; interest charges, $154,025.21 and debt retirement, $364,025.97. This makes a total outlay of $2,408,060.28 which is an increase of $320,360.76.

This does not include motor vehicle license fees of $63,383.10 paid to the Board of Education in the current year.

Cash on hand as of June 30 was $2,280,128.28 with the amounts verified by direct communication with the depositories. Taxes receivable amounted to $95,391.59.

Long term indebtedness of the county is $8,825,962.38 and debt service of the county for the year ended June 30 amounted to $709,272.34. Of this amount, $215,781.25 was applied to interest charges.

Total revenues of the county for the current year total $4,077,546.46 compared to $4,103,574.30 for the preceding year. The decrease in revenue was due principally to a decrease in state shared taxes, motor vehicle license fees paid the Board of Education, and a lack of an appropriation by the City of Cumberland toward maintanence of the County Health Department.

Total expenditures during the current year, exclusive of debt service, amounted to $3,693,700.42 compared to $3,384,734.12 for the preceding year. Total increase in expenditures was $309,000 with the schools accounting for $153,500 and salary increases of $74,500.

PLANT SOLD

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Georgia-Pacific Corp. Tuesday announced the sale of one of its three Olympia, Wash., plywood plants to the Simpson Logging Co. The sale includes the purchase of equipment and long-term lease of the building. Details of the transaction were not disclosed.

Worker Keeps Seniority

The Civil Service Commission of the City of Cumberland meeting Monday night at its office in city hall, ruled on the seniority of a woman employe whose job had been abolished while she was on a leave of absence.

The commission ruled that Mrs. Ruth V. Morgan, a junior stenographer, would retain her seniority and if a vacancy exists in that classification, she will get first preference. Her name remains on the seniority list, the commission said.

Mrs. Morgan had been employed in the office of the Mayor when she took her leave of absence prior to the new administration taking office in July.

In another action last night, the commission approved a leave of absence for Mrs. Margaret Sisk, records clerk in the Police Department, for a year.

Efficiency rating forms were discussed. The forms are to be prepared and forwarded to various departments for completion. The reports are required by law and rate the efficiency of employes.

Attending the meeting were Francis A. Kenney, chairman, Ralph R. Webster and Fred E. Ryan, members.

Cemetery Road Grading Slated

At the suggestion of Commissioner Charles N. Wilkinson, the Allegany County Board of Commissioners has authorized the Roads Department to grade the roadway leading into the Dawson Cemetery on McMullen Highway.

The commissioners also discussed the problem of brush growing up in the stream bed of Georges Creek at Shaft. William G. Meagher appeared before the board to ask for some relief from the situation. He said when high water occurs the residence he owns is damaged by the overflow.

A decision will be made at Friday's session of the board. Harry T. Skelly, county roads supervisor, will attend the meeting so that the problem can be fully discussed.

Soviets Claim New Low

LONDON (AP)—A temperature of 125.3 degrees below zero (fahrenheit), claimed to be the lowest ever recorded, was reported Monday night by Radio Moscow. The broadcast said it was recorded by Soviet polar explorers at Vostok, a Russian scientific base in the region of the South Magnetic Pole.

Manges Asks Meeting

Earl E. Manges, attorney to the Allegany County Board of Election Supervisors has notified the county commissioners he would like to arrange a meeting with the county board's attorney, Gorman E. Getty, to discuss legal matters involving the election agency.

A letter was also received by the county commissioners from William C. Walsh of the Allegany Chapter, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, requesting the county to send its annual $600 donation to the foundation to the County United Fund.

Walsh explained that the foundation is a member of the CUF and is allotted the $600 which the county provides. The procedure would eliminate some bookkeeping if followed. The commissioners agreed to the proposal.

A report was received from the State Department of Health on the revised population figures for Allegany County as of June, 1958.

The report stated the figures were arrived at by using a "composite" method which adjusted ratios by population to births, deaths and school enrollment.

There was no change in the population in the report from the 1957 figure of 83,000. Garrett County's population also remained at 19,000. Washington County listed a gain of 500 to 87,500 from the previous year.

Retrenchment

TOKYO (AP)—The U.S. armed forces, which once employed nearly 300,000 Japanese ranging from physicians to laborers, expect to have only 74,879 on the payroll Dec. 1. Retrenchment has been going on for months. The July figure was 86,542.

Black Widow Spider Found In Garden

A Locust Grove woman escaped being bitten by a spider she believes is a black widow Friday while picking tomatoes in her garden.

Mrs. Maurice Whiteman said she was picking tomatoes when she noticed the spider in the bucket she was using. She was able to get the spider into a jar and will take it to the county farm agent's office for examination.

She said the spider had the red hourglass marking on its back which identifies the poisonous black widow.

You can stop faster and see better on safe CONCRETE STREETS

It's a dark, wet night. Your son is riding home on his bike. Suddenly he swerves into the path of an oncoming car. Can the driver stop? Yes, thanks to safe, tire-gripping concrete, he stops without skidding on the wet pavement. And you're mighty thankful that cars can stop faster on skid-resistant concrete!

Concrete streets also offer an extra measure of protection at night. That's because their light-colored surface reflects more light than other pavements. You can see farther and better at night on concrete streets. Remember, if you can't see, you can't be safe!

Concrete also lasts years longer, and costs much less to maintain than other pavements. It is the true low-annual-cost pavement.

Plot Ahead For A Perfect Evening

It's to be a very special evening. That night you want to look radiant and enchanting if ever you can. The evening is three days from now, but you want to start getting ready for it right away.

Good idea. Start preparing at this early date and leave nothing to chance. Press the beautiful dress and hang it where it can't get wrinkled once you're sure from a try-on that it's exactly right and comfortable. Inspect heels while there's still time to have them repaired and tend to cleaning and polishing. If the shoes are new, wear them around the house for a break-in. Decide on all the underpinnings and see that nothing will need a stitch in time at the last minute. Get set with a bag and gloves in perfect condition.

But do several more things for sure. Most important is to get two extra long nights of sleep. It's wonderful for both the looks and the disposition, and don't forget that an extra pleasant disposition turns right around and helps your looks. It makes your sweetest smile come most readily and inspires thoughts that put a sparkle in your eye.

Then don't wait until the big day to have your hair done. Have it done the day before — most coiffures look easier and more natural after they've had time to adjust from an original setting. If you are your own manicurist, give your hands the basic treatment now and apply new polish along with last minute extra care if need be. Experiment with any new cosmetic you might try beginning now—something might not be right after all and there's time to find out.

TOMORROW: Acquire Poise

YOUR COLOR TYPE—Here's your personal colorscope, scientifically designed to determine just which colors keep you looking complexion-perfect and charming of dress. A copy of my all-new Booklet "Your Color Type" is on its way to you for 25c and a stamped, return envelope sent to "Secrets of Charm," c/o this paper.

India And Pakistan Halt Border "War"

NEW DELHI, India (UPI) — India and Pakistan called a halt Tuesday to the month-long battle that has been going on between their armed forces along the East Pakistan-Indian border.

Cease-fires, effective at noon Tuesday, were ordered in New Delhi by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and in Karachi by Prime Minister Malik Firoz Khan Noon.

Shortly afterward, Nehru told the Indian parliament he hoped his meeting with Noon scheduled for Sept. 9 would lead to an end to the border troubles between the two nations.

Late Rally Caps Market Session Of Irregularity

NEW YORK (UPI) — Steel shares, selected aircrafts, drugs, shipbuilders and rails highlighted a late rally which capped a session of routine irregularity.

Bell Aircraft was the day's big feature, responding to announcement that it has successfully applied liquid flourine to rocket propulsion, increasing the potential performance of power plants for space vehicles.

Bell ran up 3⅞ to 22 on the day's heaviest volume and other "nuclear" issues also moved up. Lockheed gained a point, Cessna 1⅝. New York Shipbuilding and Bath Iron Works were up a point or more. U.S. Borax, however, lost a point, ex-dividend

U.S. Steel, which Tuesday announced it has under production a new ultra-high strength alloy sheet steel for use on missiles, led steels higher, touching a new high for the year and holding a point gain on the day. Both U.S. Steel and Bethlehem, up fractionally, were among the day's ten most active issues. Jones & Laughlin ran up over 2 points and Wheeling Steel gained over a point.

Among drug stocks, Pfizer, Schering, Parke Davis, Merck and Warner Lambert rose a point to two.

N. Y. Eggs And Butter

NEW YORK (AP) — (USDA) — Eggs unsettled today. Receipts 17,300.

Nearby whites: Top quality (48-50 lbs) 52-56; mediums 35-37½; smalls 26-27.

Butter steady, receipts 315,000. Wholesale prices on bulk cartons (fresh):

Creamery, 93 score (AA) 60¼-60¾ cents; 92 score (A) 60¼-60½; 90 score (B) 59½-59¾.

CHOKES ON GUM

MANCHESTER, England (UPI) —An inquest Tuesday that chewing gum caused the death of 17-year-old Doris Morgan, previously believed to have drowned.

Dr. D. F. Kerr said that when Miss Morgan fell into a brook Saturday she apparently drew in her breath quickly and the gum lodged in her windpipe, blocking it.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) —Grain futures prices closed mixed but mostly steady to firm on the Chicago Board of Trade Tuesday.

Wheat closed up ⅝ to off ⅛ cent; corn (old) up ⅜ to ⅝ cent; (new) up ¼ to 1 cent; oats up ⅝ to ¾ cent; rye up ⅞ to 1⅜ cents; soybeans unchanged to up ½ cent; lard futures up 3 to off 13 points.

Monday's rise continued early this morning on news of the continued bombardment of the Quemoy islands off the Chinese mainland and cool weather in corn and soybean belt. Later in the day, however, grains eased somewhat due to profit taking and scattered hedging.

Trade in wheat futures was comparatively moderate in contrast to Monday's action. Some support during early trading was attributed to a report that disappointing crop news had forced France to suspend offers of wheat for export.

In corn, there was a material amount of spreading and changing largely involving the September contract against the new crop positions.

A fair amount of changing over of hedges from September to December contracts in oats was also noted. Trade was rather slow.

Soybeans rallied again with the September contract equaling the high set on Aug. 21. Local traders who were the early buyers, however, turned to the selling side of the market but had little effect on the prices.

Late Rally Caps Market Session Of Irregularity

NEW YORK (UPI) — Steel shares, selected aircrafts, drugs, shipbuilders and rails highlighted a late rally which capped a session of routine irregularity.

Bell Aircraft was the day's big feature, responding to announcement that it has successfully applied liquid flourine to rocket propulsion, increasing the potential performance of power plants for space vehicles.

Bell ran up 3⅞ to 22 on the day's heaviest volume and other "nuclear" issues also moved up. Lockheed gained a point, Cessna 1⅝. New York Shipbuilding and Bath Iron Works were up a point or more. U.S. Borax, however, lost a point, ex-dividend

U.S. Steel, which Tuesday announced it has under production a new ultra-high strength alloy sheet steel for use on missiles, led steels higher, touching a new high for the year and holding a point gain on the day. Both U.S. Steel and Bethlehem, up fractionally, were among the day's ten most active issues. Jones & Laughlin ran up over 2 points and Wheeling Steel gained over a point.

Among drug stocks, Pfizer, Schering, Parke Davis, Merck and Warner Lambert rose a point to two.

N. Y. Eggs And Butter

NEW YORK (AP) — (USDA) — Eggs unsettled today. Receipts 17,300.

Nearby whites: Top quality (48-50 lbs) 52-56; mediums 35-37½; smalls 26-27.

Butter steady, receipts 315,000. Wholesale prices on bulk cartons (fresh):

Creamery, 93 score (AA) 60¼-60¾ cents; 92 score (A) 60¼-60½; 90 score (B) 59½-59¾.

CHOKES ON GUM

MANCHESTER, England (UPI) —An inquest Tuesday that chewing gum caused the death of 17-year-old Doris Morgan, previously believed to have drowned.

Dr. D. F. Kerr said that when Miss Morgan fell into a brook Saturday she apparently drew in her breath quickly and the gum lodged in her windpipe, blocking it.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) —Grain futures prices closed mixed but mostly steady to firm on the Chicago Board of Trade Tuesday.

Wheat closed up ⅝ to off ⅛ cent; corn (old) up ⅜ to ⅝ cent; (new) up ¼ to 1 cent; oats up ⅝ to ¾ cent; rye up ⅞ to 1⅜ cents; soybeans unchanged to up ½ cent; lard futures up 3 to off 13 points.

Monday's rise continued early this morning on news of the continued bombardment of the Quemoy islands off the Chinese mainland and cool weather in corn and soybean belt. Later in the day, however, grains eased somewhat due to profit taking and scattered hedging.

Trade in wheat futures was comparatively moderate in contrast to Monday's action. Some support during early trading was attributed to a report that disappointing crop news had forced France to suspend offers of wheat for export.

In corn, there was a material amount of spreading and changing largely involving the September contract against the new crop positions.

A fair amount of changing over of hedges from September to December contracts in oats was also noted. Trade was rather slow.

Soybeans rallied again with the September contract equaling the high set on Aug. 21. Local traders who were the early buyers, however, turned to the selling side of the market but had little effect on the prices.

Auditor Finds $95,846 Discrepancy In W.Va. Motor Dept. Accounts

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Members of the Legislature's interim committee on Government and Finance were told Tuesday a discrepancy of $95,846 had been found in records of the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Legislative Auditor C. H. Koontz made the statement in a 50-page report which covered the department's licensing period between May and Dec. 31, 1957. He said the difference was between the department's cash balance and the amount records indicate it should have.

However, no blame was placed by Koontz for the unaccounted for funds and he did not indicate if it was a question of missing money or incorrect records.

"It would be next to impossible to trace the apparent discrepancy to any individual or division of the Motor Vehicles Department," he said. Koontz pointed out that two commissioners headed the agency during the eight-month span covered.

Hubert A. Kelly, present commissioner, came into office Aug. 1, 1957, succeeding Joseph Condry. Koontz told the committee there are no receipts or records available to determine funds on hand on that date.

The committee received the legislative auditor's report and deferred any action until its next meeting. Koontz had asked if the members wanted to recommend a complete audit which he said could not be performed in a "reasonable" time and would be very expensive.

The report cited the department's accounting practices and procedures as its chief weakness. Department accounting methods fail to prove cash against related documents, the report said.

Fatal Crash

chael girl are reported in "satisfactory" condition at the hospital.

A native of Reynolds, Mrs. Jose was a daughter of William and Erma (Miller) Brasher, of Westernport. Surviving besides her parents are five children, Carol, Connie Ann, Frederick W., John and Andrew Jose, all at home.

Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Faye Spencer, Mill Run, Mrs. Ruth Young, Beaver, Pa., Mrs. Retha Miller, Keyser, Mrs. Gloria Jean Syromi, Westernport, and six brothers, Wayne, Billie, Paul, Donald, Roger and Timothy Brashear, all of Westernport.

The body is at the Boal Funeral Home, where a service will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p. m. with burial in the Miller Cemetery, Stoney Run.

Grocer Arrested For Working On Sunday

CLARKSBURG, W. Va. (UPI)—Joe Pulice, the first businessman to be arrested here under the city's new "blue law" prohibiting the Sunday operation of certain types of businesses, will be given a hearing next Tuesday.

Pulice, operator of a grocery store, charged with unlawful operation of his establishment last Sunday, posted a $200 bond pending the hearing.

Some church and business groups opposed the "blue law" ordinance when it was enacted.

Hyndman Man Hurt In Crash

A 34-year-old Hyndman, Pa., man was injured yesterday morning in a rear-end collision of two cars on Route 96, three miles east of Hyndman.

Injured was Glenn Evans, 34, who was admitted to Memorial Hospital here for treatment of a fractured left ankle.

He was injured when a car driven by Donald E. Sheetz, 24, Route 1, Hyndman, ran into the rear of his car as he slowed down to make a right turn.

Elmer Cecil, 30, of Akron, escaped injury yesterday at 2:30 a. m. when the tractor-trailer he was operating rolled over on State Route 30 near Schellsburg, Pa. Damage to the rig was estimated at $5,000, State Police said.

Former W.Va. State Trooper Says Superintendent 'Ruthless'

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Former State Police Sgt. E. D. Bazzie told a legislative interim committee Tuesday that he thought Col. Hazen H. Fair was "ruthless" in having him transferred and demoted.

During part of a three-hour hearing into operations of the Department of Public Safety, Bazzie indicated he felt his two transfers and demotion within a period of two months worked back to a raid on a beer tavern in 1955. Bazzie retired with 20 years service not long after his demotion.

Fair was asked after Bazzie's lengthy testimon whether he desired to offer rebuttal. He said he did not desire to go into his full version of the case. He said he thought it was "ridiculous that this committee sit here and listen to statements made by Bazzie — statements that are far from true."

The committee virtually bypassed Hopemont Sanitarium among items on its agenda. Senate President Ralph J. Bean (D-Hardy), committee co-chairman, had hinted earlier this summer of possible irregularities at the Preston County institution.

But a recent visit by Bean and some other interim committee members to Hopemont apparently satisfied them that there was nothing major amiss. Bean did mention that there might be too many employes in ratio to patients and that some employes appeared to be dissatisfied.

The committee sessions were opened to newsmen in spite of a request to the contrary Monday night by Gov. Cecil H. Underwood. He said he felt it would hinder the State Police's effectiveness if some of its investigating methods were publicized.

Bean rejected this argument and said the public was entitled to know how the department operates.

Most of the statements made by State Police officers relative to the department's operations largely had to do with their personal views on personnel procedures and morale within the department.

After the department's five captains — four of them commanders of the State Police companies in the state — had been questioned by committee members, co-chairman Harry Pauley (D-McDowell), newly-elected House speaker, called on Bazzie.

Pauley asked Bazzie if he thought he had been fairly dealt with. Bazzie said he did not, and later said "I think Fair was ruthless in my case."

He said he was transferred from Princeton to South Charleston some 10 days after a story appeared in a Bluefield newspaper saying that he (Bazzie) was to be a Democratic candidate for sheriff of Mercer County.

The story was written by a Republican newspaper editor who Bazzie said was the owner of the tavern raided in 1955. Bazzie said he was led by Fair to believe that the transfer would result in a promotion.

Later he said he asked for a transfer to a detachment as close to his Princeton home as possible. The day afterward, he said, he received transfer orders to Elkins where there was no vacancy for sergeant, resulting in his demotion to trooper. Bazzie said he did not voluntarily accept the transfer and demotion.

Fair said at the time Bazzie asked for transfer from South Charleston for health reasons and realized there was no sergeantcy opening at Elkins.

Asked about allegations that he helped distribute Democratic campaign posters in Mercer County in 1956, Bazzie said, "If that was true, I should have been fired."

Bazzie said he thought the department was hampered by "politics" as well as insufficient personnel and equipment. He said he felt remarks by some of the captains before his testimony were "guarded" because they were "speaking in front of the superintendent or feared possible disciplinary action."

He said the morale of the department "is very low from the brass down whether they want to admit it or not."

Auditor Finds $95,846 Discrepancy In W.Va. Motor Dept. Accounts

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Members of the Legislature's interim committee on Government and Finance were told Tuesday a discrepancy of $95,846 had been found in records of the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

Legislative Auditor C. H. Koontz made the statement in a 50 - page report which covered the department's licensing period between May and Dec. 31, 1957. He said the difference was between the department's cash balance and the amount records indicate it should have.

However, no blame was placed by Koontz for the unaccounted for funds and he did not indicate if it was a question of missing money or incorrect records.

"It would be next to impossible to trace the apparent discrepancy to any individual or division of the Motor Vehicles Department," he said. Koontz pointed out that two commissioners headed the agency during the eight-month span covered.

Hubert A. Kelly, present commissioner, came into office Aug. 1, 1957, succeeding Joseph Condry. Koontz told the committee there are no receipts or records available to determine funds on hand on that date.

The committee received the legislative auditor's report and deferred any action until its next meeting. Koontz had asked if the members wanted to recommend a complete audit which he said could not be performed in a "reasonable" time and would be very expensive.

The report cited the department's accounting practices and procedures as its chief weakness. Department accounting methods fail to prove cash against related documents, the report said.

chael girl are reported in "satisfactory" condition at the hospital.

A native of Reynolds, Mrs. Jose was a daughter of William and Erma (Miller) Brasher, of Westernport. Surviving besides her parents are five children, Carol, Connie Ann, Frederick W., John and Andrew Jose, all at home.

Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Faye Spencer, Mill Run, Mrs. Ruth Young, Beaver, Pa., Mrs. Retha Miller, Keyser, Mrs. Gloria Jean Syromi, Westernport, and six brothers, Wayne, Billie, Paul, Donald, Roger and Timothy Brashear, all of Westernport.

The body is at the Boal Funeral Home, where a service will be conducted tomorrow at 2 p. m. with burial in the Miller Cemetery, Stoney Run.

Grocer Arrested For Working On Sunday

CLARKSBURG, W. Va. (UPI)—Joe Pulice, the first businessman to be arrested here under the city's new "blue law" prohibiting the Sunday operation of certain types of businesses, will be given a hearing next Tuesday.

Pulice, operator of a grocery store, charged with unlawful operation of his establishment last Sunday, posted a $200 bond pending the hearing.

Some church and business groups opposed the "blue law" ordinance when it was enacted.

Hyndman Man Hurt In Crash

A 34-year-old Hyndman, Pa., man was injured yesterday morning in a rear-end collision of two cars on Route 96, three miles east of Hyndman.

Injured was Glenn Evans, 34, who was admitted to Memorial Hospital here for treatment of a fractured left ankle.

He was injured when a car driven by Donald E. Sheetz, 24, Route 1, Hyndman, ran into the rear of his car as he slowed down to make a right turn.

Elmer Cecil, 30, of Akron, escaped injury yesterday at 2:30 a. m. when the tractor-trailer he was operating rolled over on State Route 30 near Schellsburg, Pa. Damage to the rig was estimated at $5,000, State Police said.

Former W.Va. State Trooper Says Superintendent 'Ruthless'

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Former State Police Sgt. E. D. Bazzie told a legislative interim committee Tuesday that he thought Col. Hazen H. Fair was "ruthless" in having him transferred and demoted.

During part of a three - hour hearing into operations of the Department of Public Safety, Bazzie indicated he felt his two transfers and demotion within a period of two months worked back to a raid on a beer tavern in 1955. Bazzie retired with 20 years service not long after his demotion.

Fair was asked after Bazzie's lengthy testimon whether he desired to offer rebuttal. He said he did not desire to go into his full version of the case. He said he thought it was "ridiculous that this committee sit here and listen to statements made by Bazzie — statements that are far from true."

The committee virtually bypassed Hopemont Sanitarium among items on its agenda. Senate President Ralph J. Bean (D-Hardy), committee co-chairman, had hinted earlier this summer of possible irregularities at the Preston County institution.

But a recent visit by Bean and some other interim committee members to Hopemont apparently satisfied them that there was nothing major amiss. Bean did mention that there might be too many employes in ratio to patients and that some employes appeared to be dissatisfied.

The committee sessions were opened to newsmen in spite of a request to the contrary Monday night by Gov. Cecil H. Underwood. He said he felt it would hinder the State Police's effectiveness if some of its investigating methods were publicized.

Bean rejected this argument and said the public was entitled to know how the department operates.

Most of the statements made by State Police officers relative to the department's operations largely had to do with their personal views on personnel procedures and morale within the department.

After the department's five captains — four of them commanders of the State Police companies in the state — had been questioned by committee members, co - chairman Harry Pauley (D-McDowell), newly - elected House speaker, called on Bazzie.

Pauley asked Bazzie if he thought he had been fairly dealt with. Bazzie said he did not, and later said "I think Fair was ruthless in my case."

He said he was transferred from Princeton to South Charleston some 10 days after a story appeared in a Bluefield newspaper saying that he (Bazzie) was to be a Democratic candidate for sheriff of Mercer County.

The story was written by a Republican newspaper editor who Bazzie said was the owner of the tavern raided in 1955. Bazzie said he was led by Fair to believe that the transfer would result in a promotion.

Later he said he asked for a transfer to a detachment as close to his Princeton home as possible. The day afterward, he said, he received transfer orders to Elkins where there was no vacancy for sergeant, resulting in his demotion to trooper. Bazzie said he did not voluntarily accept the transfer and demotion.

Fair said at the time Bazzie asked for transfer from South Charleston for health reasons and realized there was no sergeantcy opening at Elkins.

Asked about allegations that he helped distribute Democratic campaign posters in Mercer County in 1956, Bazzie said, "If that was true, I should have been fired."

Bazzie said he thought the department was hampered by "politics" as well as insufficient personnel and equipment. He said he felt remarks by some of the captains before his testimony were "guarded" because they were "speaking in front of the superintendent or feared possible disciplinary action."

He said the morale of the department "is very low from the brass down whether they want to admit it or not."

Air Safety Must Have A Priority

They say air crashes come in threes. This is an old wives' tale with no statistical support whatsoever, but recently the world was shocked by two disasters, one of which was the worst in commercial airline history.

It is wise to keep a sense of proportion in these matters. No form of travel is free from hazard; accidents are inseparable from living. More than a million people cross the Atlantic by air each year, and during the last eight years there had been no serious accidents on the route. Surely no other form of travel has a comparable record.

As airliners become bigger and carry more passengers accidents will tend to be more serious. The new jet airliners coming into service will carry upwards of 150 passengers at cruising speeds considerably in excess of 400 mph. Every safety device available should be employed. In recent months there have been several mid-air collisions. Air space, particularly over some countries, is becoming crowded and high approach speeds of modern planes make visual detection and evasive action extremely difficult.

The cost of fitting passenger aircraft with radar is expensive but it seems that the time is coming when this equipment will no longer be a mere refinement but a necessity. A Strategic Air Command H-bomber costs the United States $8 million and is not considered prohibitive at that, neither is the $2 million expended on an intercontinental ballistic missile. Nor is expense being spared to girdle the moon with a rocket.

Surely, then, spurning on the ground of expense equipment that will make air travel in our own atmosphere safer would be foolish.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Price Of Politics

The major problem that faces the so-called democracies is whether they can survive as representative governments under the terrific pressures of the totalitarian forces let loose by the revolutions that accompanied World War I and World War II.

We have already witnessed the disappearance of nearly all the free governments created by the treaties following these wars. We have already witnessed a revolution in France which may end the Fourth Republic and which has established some kind of dictatorship under General de Gaulle, who is laboring to prevent this from occurring. China, which under the Kuomintang, from Sun Yat-sen to Chiang Kai-shek, attempted to establish some form of constitutional government, finally failed and the Communists took over all but Formosa.

The test will, of course, come in Great Britain and the United States where representative government, based upon capitalistic economics, achieved its highest form. Great Britain, that economically cannot be self-sustaining, was erected upon a system of colonies and dependent states, which the home government defended by a navy that kept the sea-lanes open for all nations. From Elizabeth I to George V, the navy was Britain's strength. That is lost. What is left is prestige and wit, two not valueless imponderables.

But can Great Britain survive its trend toward suicide so expressively represented in Parliament by the Labourite leader, Hugh Gaitskell, and by the newspaper, the "Manchester Guardian?"

This British trend toward suicide is an amazing phenomenon because obviously the British have only wisdom and know-how to offer the world; their manufactures are unnecessary for any country because most of the markets of the world will ultimately be supplied by those nations which possess within their boundaries the raw materials from which durable or consumers goods are made. Such countries as Great Britain and Japan in a quarter of a century will not be able to compete with the United States, the Soviet group, Red China or with a Latin American group centered on Brazil because the import of raw materials is becoming increasingly costly and nations will not go to war for trade as they do not go to war for dynasties.

The United States possessed power in 1945 with Great Britain, France and Nationalist China as partners. It frittered the opportunity away in an orgy of idealism centered on the United Nations. By 1948, it was altogether clear that Soviet Russia had taken full advantage of American sentimentalism and had gone off on an imperialistic spree which showed its full force in the Korean War (1950-1953) and the Vietnam War (1946-1954).

As long as the United States believed that it enjoyed the monopoly of the atom bomb; it believed that time was working in its favor. By unbelievable flukes and carelessness, it permitted the atom bomb and the hydrogen bomb developments to be stolen by Dr. Klaus Fuchs, the Rosenbergs, Dr. Bruno Pontecorvo and others.

The United States did not actually lose the bomb, the scientific data concerning which would have become known anyhow in due course. What the United States lost was the overwhelming advantage of time.

Recognizing this one principal factor in this situation, Soviet Russia starved its people, robbed its satellites, brought the world close to war, but it closed the time gap in scientific development. In fact, in some respects, Soviet Russia's rush for time resulted in achievements swifter than those achieved in the United States. Sputnik was an example.

The delays in the United States are generally attributed to faulty education — not enough engineers, mathematicians, etc. The explanation is too simple. In the disclosure of the difficulties of General James Gavin and Admiral Hyman Rickover, we witness another difficulty, namely, that our governmental machine works too slowly and too ineffectively in its receptivity of new ideas and new methods. This was not so when Franklin D. Roosevelt accepted the recommendations of Albert Einstein and Alexander Sachs and created the Manhattan Project which made the atom bomb in the most profound secrecy.

But it is true today. The Hoover Commission discovered this weakness but neither the President nor Congress has done much about it because what is involved is an alteration of the Federal Government's methods of doing business. Where vested interests are involved, changes are hard to make in a free country.

Scene On Senate Floor Is Tense During Debate On Supreme Court

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Unforgettable scenes were stamped on the minds of Senators as the last weary days of the 85th Congress dragged to a close. Most tense, most poignant of all was the 41-40 vote to table the resolution curtailing the powers of the Supreme Court. As the vote was announced, John McClellan of Arkansas trembled. Perspiration stood out on his forehead. He was white with anger . . . Twenty years before, another Arkansas Senator had stood on the Senate floor also arguing that the power of the Supreme Court must be curbed. As Majority Leader, Joe Robinson of Arkansas was loyal to his chief in the White House, and when President Roosevelt introduced his court-packing bill, Robinson fought for it. His heart, however, was never in his argument. His heart was with his Southern friends, Senator Jimmy Byrnes of South Carolina, Harry Byrd of Virginia, Walter George and Dick Russell of Georgia. So Robinson, overworked and heartsick, died during the court battle. His heart failed him . . . Last week John McClellan, tired from the long Hoffa hearings, looked as if he might collapse as the one-vote margin to preserve the independence of the court was announced . . . Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina was not so emotional. But behind his flashing eyes and stern features you could see the same emotions that must have welled up in another famous South Carolinian, John C. Calhoun, as he championed "nullification" . . . Byrd of Virginia looked calm. Twenty years before he had battled against Roosevelt to keep the Supreme Court independent. Three years before he had joined with all of Virginia in paying tribute to John Marshall, who as Chief Justice had established, in his fight with Jefferson, the independence of the Supreme Court. Now Byrd voted to curtail that independence.

Grandson of a Slave-Holder — Senator Tom Hennings of Missouri, whose great grandfather held more slaves than any other plantation owner in Georgia and whose grandfather was an officer in the Confederate Army, led the Senate argument for the Court. "In these late days of the session," he said, "the Senate may be doing something which will plague not only the Senate, but the people of the country, other Senates and other Congresses for years to come . . . should this enactment be enacted," said the grandson of a slave-holder. "I believe there will be chaos. There will be litigation; indeed, a great compounding of litigation. We will find ourselves in an endless labyrinth of uncertainty and indecision." . . . Senator John Carroll of Colorado supported Hennings. "At no time," he said, "did we ever have a single hearing of the Senate Judiciary Committee based on the consideration of this important pending legislation."

Silent Republicans—The debate was chiefly between Democrats. Republicans voted overwhelmingly against the Court, but stayed on the sidelines during debate. Obviously they relished this as a North-South Democratic battle, one which would play up the spilt inside the Democratic Party . . . The votes were cast. Unkindest vote of all came from Senator Kuchel of California, Republican. He threw in his lot with the enemies of Chief Justice Warren, though it was Warren, when Governor of California, who appointed Kuchel to the Senate . . . Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, the only lady, lined up against the Court which had supported her in various decisions on McCarthyism . . . Gore of Tennessee took the easy course; his colleague Kefauver the hard course. Kefauver's vote for the Court was one of only three from the South. Gore had just been assured of re-election. Kefauver comes up for re-election in 1960. His vote took real courage. So did the vote of Johnson and Yarborough of Texas.

What is courage?—The word "courage" was tossed around the Senate floor like a basketball. Almost every Senator was complimenting every other Senator on his great courage. Most of them had shown no great courage.

It takes no great courage for a Northern Senator representing a Negro bloc of big city voters to line up for civil rights or for the Supreme Court. In contrast, the Kefauver - Yarborough - Johnson votes did take courage. Johnson went even further. He persuaded George Smathers of Florida, who was against the Court, to pair with Mike Monroney of Oklahoma who, though for the Court, was absent. This gave the one-vote margin needed for the Court . . . Furthermore, Johnson had two aces up his sleeve. He had persuaded his two good friends, Senators Bob Kerr of Oklahoma and Allen Frear of Delaware, both Democrats who would have voted against the Court, to remain in the cloakroom and not vote. As the vote was taken, Democratic whip Mansfield of Montana announced: "The Senator from Delaware (Frear), the Senator from Florida (Holland), and the Senators from Oklahoma (Kerr and Monroney) are absent on official business." This was not exactly true. Holland was in Florida campaigning frantically for his renomination, while Kerr and Frear were in the Senate cloakroom restlessly waiting. In deference to a friend who had a tough job on his hands and who had worked miracles at keeping Democratic harmony during a long and grueling session, they did not vote.

George's Place

Traveling to Washington by plane, Congressmen Gene McCarthy of Minnesota and Charles Boyle of Illinois whiled away the time talking politics and listening to the pilot discoursing through a loudspeaker.

"We are now flying at an altitude of 10,000 feet . . . It's a beautiful day, isn't it folks? . . . No humidity up here . . . That beautiful scenely directly eblow us is the Ohio countryside . . ."

As the plane approached Washington, the pilot said: "We will arrive in the Nation's Capital in a few minutes. That's the historic Potomac River you see down there."

The loudspeaker clicked off, then apparently by mistake clicked back on again as the pilot spoke to the co-pilot: "I'll be glad to get a little shuteye in Washington. Won't be long now. We just passed George's place."

The plane's passengers, who weren't supposed to hear this, exchanged mystified glances.

"George's place?" grumbled Boyle. "What does he mean by that?"

McCarthy, a former school teacher, looked out the window, then reported to Boyle: "We just flew over Mount Vernon."

Did Johnson Scuttle Court Bill For Own Ends?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 — Did Senator Lyndon Johnson, Democratic Majority Leader, betray the South in its fight to preserve states' rights? Did he do so in order to curry favor with Northern "liberals" who might help him get the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1960?

These questions are being asked today on Capitol Hill as many indignant Southerners hold the Texas Senator responsible for lining up the votes that killed anti-subversive legislation as well as bills proposed to correct Supreme Court decisions on states' rights questions.

The main criticism is that Lyndon Johnson cleverly manipulated the parliamentary situation in such a way as to hold off till the last minute action by the Senate on crucial bills, when it was a question either of a filibuster that would have delayed adjournment or killing the legislation at this session.

The key roll-call came in the Senate last week when, by a 41-to-40 vote, a most important measure—giving states the right to punish sedition and subversion and also dealing with the broader question of states' rights—was defeated. Mr. Johnson himself voted with the Northern "liberals." The only other defections from the Southern group were Senator Yarborough of Texas and Senator Kefauver of Tennessee. Even Senator Gore of Tennessee, often called a "moderate," voted with his Southern colleagues.

There is a lot of talk about the tricks that were used to line up the votes of Senators. Here is how Anthony Lewis, a member of the Washington staff of the "New York Times," describes it in his dispatch:

"The Senate Majority Leader has never demonstrated greater mastery of the legislative process than in his handling of a group of bills aimed at the Supreme Court. All the bills went down the drain at the session's end after a dramatic week of debate and maneuver.

"Observers agree that Senator Johnson is largely responsible for that result. Precisely how he managed it is something only he knows."

Another report on what transpired behind the scenes comes from Roland Evans Jr., of the Washington staff of the "New York Herald Tribune," who writes:

"A remarkable display of legislative black magic, a strange and occult art for which Senator Lyndon Johnson is justly famous, swept from the Senate floor the Smith Bill, the potent weapon of rebuke that the anti-court coalition had wheeled up against the Supreme Court . . . .

"The Smith Bill, in short, had to be sent back to committee, and by a combination of ingenious plays it finally was."

What was this "black magic"? The Majority Leader is usually the only one who knows in advance how each Senator may vote. The story goes that Senator Johnson told many a Senator that his particular vote was needed to break a tie and then, with lots of legislative favors that a Majority Leader alone can bestow to benefit the interests of a Senator in question when bills in which he happens to be interested may come up subsequently in the session, the trade is supposed to have been made. It's the oldest game in politics: "You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours."

The betrayal of the South occurred in the Senate. The House had passed various bills which would have limited the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court in certain types of cases, which Congress has a right to do under the Constitution. Among them were several measures dealing with Communist subversion and passport control, and with steps to prevent confessed criminals from escaping punishment through technicalities. Prominent Democrats like Representative Howard Smith of Virginia, chairman of the Rules Committee, and Representative Francis E. Walter, chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, had been able to get through the House their bills to correct such abuses. It was in the Senate that the death blow was inflicted, largely by the efforts of a Democratic Senator who comes from the South but who, through his position of leadership, was able to thwart the will of his fellow Southerners.

At the same time a serious blow was also dealt to the national interest, because the battle against Communism and subversion is by no means sectional but affects the entire national and international situation. Indeed, J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, told The American Bar Association this week that Communist agents are "at work in our nation today, at this very moment, both openly and secretly, attempting to obtain our latest technological and scientific developments."

Just what Lyndon Johnson's true motive was in sponsoring the death of so many bills desired by his Southern colleagues set off quite a lot of conjecturing in the press galleries at the Capitol. Some observers suggested that perhaps the Majority Leader thought he was impressing the labor-union leaders and some of the big pressure groups on the so-called "liberal" side that he is a "moderate," and that they had better give some thought to him as a Presidential possibility and less to Senator Kennedy of Massachusetts. In any event, the opponents of the legislation can be grateful to Senator Johnson.

The Texas Senator has been declaring right along that he isn't a Presidential candidate, but around the Capitol there is an insistence now that his behavior has encouraged rather than discouraged the idea.

There isn't any reason why a Southerner shouldn't aspire to be a Presidential nominee, but the big question mark now is what are Senator Johnson's real convictions and will he be able to square himself with the South, which hitherto has looked kindly on making him a Presidential nominee.

Recent unanimous caucus of the ear-phone delegation may finish the brush-fire warfare.

The brush was the matted undergrowth in Uncle Sam's chinstrap.

Never did a man get the hotfoot so far above timberline.

Brush-fire war was an old caper of the Plains Indians who pulled the Samson gimmick. They set fire to jack-rabbits to spread the indirect illumination.

That silhouetted their enemies and made 'em easier picking than huckleberries downhill.

That kind of warfare was the motto of the volunteer fire-brigades of the Bowery. Keep 'er going until we get there.

Some Thrive On Stress, Others Buckle Under It

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Some persons seem to thrive on stress; others buckle under the smallest decisions. Progress is made when men in all walks of life realize their potentialities and limitations. What is productive for one may be futile for another.

A certain amount of stress is necessary for survival but when it creates distress such as illness, it is of concern to the physician. Emotional causes of disease may damage the tissues in much the same way as bacteria, tumors, and metabolic disturbances.

We could go a step further by classifying the type of emotional conflict that produces specific conditions such as high blood pressure, peptic ulcer, dermatitis, and colitis. According to Dr. C. H. Houston of Aspen, Colo., the stress created by fear, ambition, insecurity, and work are possible offenders in peptic ulcer.

Arthritis, asthma, and nervous rashes come from conflicting areas between ambition and accomplishment, between creative talent and expression. The hypertensive is all bottled up; the stress of self-containment, fear, and resentment pushes up his blood pressure. He should let off steam more often.

Can anything be done to allow men peace of mind without disrupting our present habits, needs, and customs? This is a moot question. Some prefer to accept the more exciting environment as it is; others are seeking bigger and better tranquilizers.

Those not endowed with nerves of steel, executive ability, or great intelligence should learn to live within their abilities and be happy for blessings received. But there is no need to change our government and our American way of life to secure happiness. This comes from doing, not taking. Neither is there any need to discourage progress because it creates stress in some persons.

Many creative people pay the extreme sacrifice for leaving the nation a better place in which to live. But they usually are criticized or condemned because advances made during peace time rarely are given the same consideration as those made during war times.

Mrs. C. writes: A woman of 63 feels all right when she doesn't do anything but when she gets active, as in doing housework, she gets shaky and dizzy and has a clammy feeling. She has to sit down and rest until she feels well again.

REPLY

This woman needs a complete physical examination. She may have anemia, high blood pressure, low blood sugar, ear infection, poor circulation, or a nervous or neurological condition.

TORN TENDON

Mrs. J. writes: My son tore his Achilles' tendon while playing basketball. I'd like to know something about this mishap.

REPLY

This unusual accident stems from a sudden violent stretching of the tendon leading to the heel while jumping and landing on a foot that is flexed. Most victims are athletes, acrobats, or dancers. The plan of treatment depends upon the severity of the rupture and varies from the use of tape to surgery.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Only one thing stood in the way of the marriage of Daphne and Osbert, but that was the very forceful and formidable mother of Daphne. "I'm afraid she thinks you're effeminate." Osbert compressed his lips angrily and admitted, "Next to her, I really am."

The schools are ready for another year. So are the teachers. The students — well, that's always a question. The very young ones will be led, spick and span and screaming, to the kindergarten. The older ones, jaded and suspicious, will study the teachers and they, in turn, will study the students.

What we have in America is a good second-rate educational system. This isn't as bad as it sounds. In the past decade or two, some of our better known universities have moved up from fourth-rate to third to second. If we had a first-rate system, we wouldn't have to send our brightest students abroad to finish their studies. Nor would we have to import refugee teachers to head college departments.

We have become a nation of vapid conformists, unable to sustain a conversation for more than a few minutes without the aid of television, music or a drink. In high school, our children spend time studying how to drive an automobile and how to appreciate music. Some of them wouldn't know an adverb if they fell over one, and think that Mandalay is an instrument.

The weaknesses in our educational system are, in my estimation, multitudinous. It starts with the parents. Too many of them are so self-centered that they have no time to guide their young. When homework time is at hand, mother has a headache and daddy is busy watching a night ballgame.

From the start, children get from their parents the notion that education is distasteful, abhorrent, a chore. A teacher who must face this attitude, starts with a handicap. Many of the youngsters are sent to school unclean, emotionally as well as physically. Millions of parents show no interest in education except on the day that the report card arrives.

All Boards of Education should be composed of retired teachers. Election to these boards attracts the politically ambitious and those who have an old grudge against education. Some of the finest school principals have found that it is easier to lower one's standards than to fight the board.

The subjects one can study are not always suited to the talents of the student. One of the brightest young artists in the New York area quit school and joined the Navy because art would not give him sufficient points to qualify for a bachelor of science degree, and he cared not a fig for the things he had to study.

Still, we cannot broaden the range of subjects to be studied until we have qualified teachers for the work. Anybody for space engineering?

If my country could improve but one of its educational needs, I would choose the field of discipline. I would not teach for a hundred thousand dollars a year if I had to be at the mercy of one bully in a class of 25. Nor would I be a student for the same amount if I had to contend with a teacher who was a sadist.

Couldn't we have better discipline if, in each school, a Master of Discipline was appointed? Couldn't the teacher and the offending student appear in his office for a ten-minute hearing if there were trouble? The Master of Discipline could hear both sides of the story and decide the issue without feeling angry at either of the parties.

He could also administer punishment work for the student, if necessary, or a suspension. A teacher would not be prone to bring charges against a student for trivial offenses if he knew that he would have to make an appearance to support the charges. And a student would not court such trouble if he realized that the Master of Discipline was the law around the school.

The best schooling a man can get was given to me at St. Patrick's School in Jersey City, N. J. Sisters Maria Alacoque, Mary Edmund, Helen Dolores, Maria Agatha and Marie Eustelle accepted nothing less than 100 per cent attention and diligence.

My hands remember their rulers. We admired our teachers, and we feared them. At 50, I remember all of them with gratitude. . .

Air Safety Must Have A Priority

They say air crashes come in threes. This is an old wives' tale with no statistical support whatsoever, but recently the world was shocked by two disasters, one of which was the worst in commercial airline history.

It is wise to keep a sense of proportion in these matters. No form of travel is free from hazard; accidents are inseparable from living. More than a million people cross the Atlantic by air each year, and during the last eight years there had been no serious accidents on the route. Surely no other form of travel has a comparable record.

As airliners become bigger and carry more passengers accidents will tend to be more serious. The new jet airliners coming into service will carry upwards of 150 passengers at cruising speeds considerably in excess of 400 mph. Every safety device available should be employed. In recent months there have been several mid-air collisions. Air space, particularly over some countries, is becoming crowded and high approach speeds of modern planes make visual detection and evasive action extremely difficult.

The cost of fitting passenger aircraft with radar is expensive but it seems that the time is coming when this equipment will no longer be a mere refinement but a necessity. A Strategic Air Command H-bomber costs the United States $8 million and is not considered prohibitive at that, neither is the $2 million expended on an intercontinental ballistic missile. Nor is expense being spared to girdle the moon with a rocket.

Surely, then, spurning on the ground of expense equipment that will make air travel in our own atmosphere safer would be foolish.

These Days

The Price Of Politics

The major problem that faces the so-called democracies is whether they can survive as representative governments under the terrific pressures of the totalitarian forces let loose by the revolutions that accompanied World War I and World War II.

We have already witnessed the disappearance of nearly all the free governments created by the treaties following these wars. We have already witnessed a revolution in France which may end the Fourth Republic and which has established some kind of dictatorship under General de Gaulle, who is laboring to prevent this from occurring. China, which under the Kuomintang, from Sun Yat-sen to Chiang Kai-shek, attempted to establish some form of constitutional government, finally failed and the Communists took over all but Formosa.

The test will, of course, come in Great Britain and the United States where representative government, based upon capitalistic economics, achieved its highest form. Great Britain, that economically cannot be self-sustaining, was erected upon a system of colonies and dependent states, which the home government defended by a navy that kept the sea-lanes open for all nations. From Elizabeth I to George V, the navy was Britain's strength. That is lost. What is left is prestige and wit, two not valueless imponderables.

But can Great Britain survive its trend toward suicide so expressively represented in Parliament by the Labourite leader, Hugh Gaitskell, and by the newspaper, the "Manchester Guardian?"

This British trend toward suicide is an amazing phenomenon because obviously the British have only wisdom and know-how to offer the world; their manufactures are unnecessary for any country because most of the markets of the world will ultimately be supplied by those nations which possess within their boundaries the raw materials from which durable or consumers goods are made. Such countries as Great Britain and Japan in a quarter of a century will not be able to compete with the United States, the Soviet group, Red China or with a Latin American group centered on Brazil because the import of raw materials is becoming increasingly costly and nations will not go to war for trade as they do not go to war for dynasties.

The United States possessed power in 1945 with Great Britain, France and Nationalist China as partners. It frittered the opportunity away in an orgy of idealism centered on the United Nations. By 1948, it was altogether clear that Soviet Russia had taken full advantage of American sentimentalism and had gone off on an imperialistic spree which showed its full force in the Korean War (1950-1953) and the Vietnam War (1946-1954).

As long as the United States believed that it enjoyed the monopoly of the atom bomb; it believed that time was working in its favor. By unbelievable flukes and carelessness, it permitted the atom bomb and the hydrogen bomb developments to be stolen by Dr. Klaus Fuchs, the Rosenbergs, Dr. Bruno Pontecorvo and others.

The United States did not actually lose the bomb, the scientific data concerning which would have become known anyhow in due course. What the United States lost was the overwhelming advantage of time.

Recognizing this one principal factor in this situation, Soviet Russia starved its people, robbed its satellites, brought the world close to war, but it closed the time gap in scientific development. In fact, in some respects, Soviet Russia's rush for time resulted in achievements swifter than those achieved in the United States. Sputnik was an example.

The delays in the United States are generally attributed to faulty education — not enough engineers, mathematicians, etc. The explanation is too simple. In the disclosure of the difficulties of General James Gavin and Admiral Hyman Rickover, we witness another difficulty, namely, that our governmental machine works too slowly and too ineffectively in its receptivity of new ideas and new methods. This was not so when Franklin D. Roosevelt accepted the recommendations of Albert Einstein and Alexander Sachs and created the Manhattan Project which made the atom bomb in the most profound secrecy.

But it is true today. The Hoover Commission discovered this weakness but neither the President nor Congress has done much about it because what is involved is an alteration of the Federal Government's methods of doing business. Where vested interests are involved, changes are hard to make in a free country.

Did Johnson Scuttle Court Bill For Own Ends?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26 — Did Senator Lyndon Johnson, Democratic Majority Leader, betray the South in its fight to preserve states' rights? Did he do so in order to curry favor with Northern "liberals" who might help him get the Democratic Presidential nomination in 1960?

These questions are being asked today on Capitol Hill as many indignant Southerners hold the Texas Senator responsible for lining up the votes that killed anti-subversive legislation as well as bills proposed to correct Supreme Court decisions on states' rights questions.

The main criticism is that Lyndon Johnson cleverly manipulated the parliamentary situation in such a way as to hold off till the last minute action by the Senate on crucial bills, when it was a question either of a filibuster that would have delayed adjournment or killing the legislation at this session.

The key roll-call came in the Senate last week when, by a 41-to-40 vote, a most important measure—giving states the right to punish sedition and subversion and also dealing with the broader question of states' rights—was defeated. Mr. Johnson himself voted with the Northern "liberals." The only other defections from the Southern group were Senator Yarborough of Texas and Senator Kefauver of Tennessee. Even Senator Gore of Tennessee, often called a "moderate," voted with his Southern colleagues.

There is a lot of talk about the tricks that were used to line up the votes of Senators. Here is how Anthony Lewis, a member of the Washington staff of the "New York Times," describes it in his dispatch:

"The Senate Majority Leader has never demonstrated greater mastery of the legislative process than in his handling of a group of bills aimed at the Supreme Court. All the bills went down the drain at the session's end after a dramatic week of debate and maneuver.

"Observers agree that Senator Johnson is largely responsible for that result. Precisely how he managed it is something only he knows."

Another report on what transpired behind the scenes comes from Ro land Evans Jr., of the Washington staff of the "New York Herald Tribune," who writes:

"A remarkable display of legislative black magic, a strange and occult art for which Senator Lyndon Johnson is justly famous, swept from the Senate floor the Smith Bill, the potent weapon of rebuke that the anti-court coalition had wheeled up against the Supreme Court . . . .

"The Smith Bill, in short, had to be sent back to committee, and by a combination of ingenious plays it finally was."

What was this "black magic"? The Majority Leader is usually the only one who knows in advance how each Senator may vote. The story goes that Senator Johnson told many a Senator that his particular vote was needed to break a tie and then, with lots of legislative favors that a Majority Leader alone can bestow to benefit the interests of a Senator in question when bills in which he happens to be interested may come up subsequently in the session, the trade is supposed to have been made. It's the oldest game in politics: "You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours."

The betrayal of the South occurred in the Senate. The House had passed various bills which would have limited the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court in certain types of cases, which Congress has a right to do under the Constitution. Among them were several measures dealing with Communist subversion and passport control, and with steps to prevent confessed criminals from escaping punishment through technicalities. Prominent Democrats like Representative Howard Smith of Virginia, chairman of the Rules Committee, and Representative Francis E. Walter, chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, had been able to get through the House their bills to correct such abuses. It was in the Senate that the death blow was inflicted, largely by the efforts of a Democratic Senator who comes from the South but who, through his position of leadership, was able to thwart the will of his fellow Southerners.

At the same time a serious blow was also dealt to the national interest, because the battle against Communism and subversion is by no means sectional but affects the entire national and international situation. Indeed, J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, told The American Bar Association this week that Communist agents are "at work in our nation today, at this very moment, both openly and secretly, attempting to obtain our latest technological and scientific developments."

Just what Lyndon Johnson's true motive was in sponsoring the death of so many bills desired by his Southern colleagues set off quite a lot of conjecturing in the press galleries at the Capitol. Some observers suggested that perhaps the Majority Leader thought he was impressing the labor-union leaders and some of the big pressure groups on the so-called "liberal" side that he is a "moderate," and that they had better give some thought to him as a Presidential possibility and less to Senator Kennedy of Massachusetts. In any event, the opponents of the legislation can be grateful to Senator Johnson.

The Texas Senator has been declaring right along that he isn't a Presidential candidate, but around the Capitol there is an insistence now that his behavior has encouraged rather than discouraged the idea.

There isn't any reason why a Southerner shouldn't aspire to be a Presidential nominee, but the big question mark now is what are Senator Johnson's real convictions and will he be able to square himself with the South, which hitherto has looked kindly on making him a Presidential nominee.

Recent unanimous caucus of the ear-phone delegation may finish the brush-fire warfare.

The brush was the matted undergrowth in Uncle Sam's chinstrap.

Never did a man get the hotfoot so far above timberline.

Brush-fire war was an old caper of the Plains Indians who pulled the Samson gimmick. They set fire to jack-rabbits to spread the indirect illumination.

That silhouetted their enemies and made 'em easier picking than huckleberries downhill.

That kind of warfare was the motto of the volunteer fire-brigades of the Bowery. Keep 'er going until we get there.

We're glad the Near East voted for arbitration before our experts had to decode Arabian in a sandstorm.

There never was a good war or a bad peace. They can be some pretty miserable confabulations.

Scene On Senate Floor Is Tense During Debate On Supreme Court

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Unforgettable scenes were stamped on the minds of Senators as the last weary days of the 85th Congress dragged to a close. Most tense, most poignant of all was the 41-40 vote to table the resolution curtailing the powers of the Supreme Court. As the vote was announced, John McClellan of Arkansas trembled. Perspiration stood out on his forehead. He was white with anger . . . Twenty years before, another Arkansas Senator had stood on the Senate floor also arguing that the power of the Supreme Court must be curbed. As Majority Leader, Joe Robinson of Arkansas was loyal to his chief in the White House, and when President Roosevelt introduced his court-packing bill, Robinson fought for it. His heart, however, was never in his argument. His heart was with his Southern friends, Senator Jimmy Byrnes of South Carolina, Harry Byrd of Virginia, Walter George and Dick Russell of Georgia. So Robinson, overworked and heartsick, died during the court battle. His heart failed him . . . Last week John McClellan, tired from the long Hoffa hearings, looked as if he might collapse as the one-vote margin to preserve the independence of the court was announced . . . Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina was not so emotional. But behind his flashing eyes and stern features you could see the same emotions that must have welled up in another famous South Carolinian, John C. Calhoun, as he championed "nullification" . . . Byrd of Virginia looked calm. Twenty years before he had battled against Roosevelt to keep the Supreme Court independent. Three years before he had joined with all of Virginia in paying tribute to John Marshall, who as Chief Justice had established, in his fight with Jefferson, the independence of the Supreme Court. Now Byrd voted to curtail that independence.

Grandson of a Slave-Holder — Senator Tom Hennings of Missouri, whose great grandfather held more slaves than any other plantation owner in Georgia and whose grandfather was an officer in the Confederate Army, led the Senate argument for the Court. "In these late days of the session," he said, "the Senate may be doing something which will plague not only the Senate, but the people of the country, other Senates and other Congresses for years to come . . . should this enactment be enacted," said the grandson of a slave-holder. "I believe there will be chaos. There will be litigation; indeed, a great compounding of litigation. We will find ourselves in an endless labyrinth of uncertainty and indecision." . . . Senator John Carroll of Colorado supported Hennings. "At no time," he said, "did we ever have a single hearing of the Senate Judiciary Committee based on the consideration of this important pending legislation."

Silent Republicans—The debate was chiefly between Democrats. Republicans voted overwhelmingly against the Court, but stayed on the sidelines during debate. Obviously they relished this as a North-South Democratic battle, one which would play up the spilt inside the Democratic Party . . . The votes were cast. Unkindest vote of all came from Senator Kuchel of California, Republican. He threw in his lot with the enemies of Chief Justice Warren, though it was Warren, when Governor of California, who appointed Kuchel to the Senate . . . Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, the only lady, lined up against the Court which had supported her in various decisions on McCarthyism . . . Gore of Tennessee took the easy course; his colleague Kefauver the hard course. Kefauver's vote for the Court was one of only three from the South. Gore had just been assured of re-election. Kefauver comes up for re-election in 1960. His vote took real courage. So did the vote of Johnson and Yarborough of Texas.

What is courage?—The word "courage" was tossed around the Senate floor like a basketball. Almost every Senator was complimenting every other Senator on his great courage. Most of them had shown no great courage.

It takes no great courage for a Northern Senator representing a Negro bloc of big city voters to line up for civil rights or for the Supreme Court. In contrast, the Kefauver - Yarborough - Johnson votes did take courage. Johnson went even further. He persuaded George Smathers of Florida, who was against the Court, to pair with Mike Monroney of Oklahoma who, though fo. the Court, was absent. This gave the one-vote margin needed for the Court . . . Furthermore, Johnson had two aces up his sleeve. He had persuaded his two good friends, Senators Bob Kerr of Oklahoma and Allen Frear of Delaware, both Democrats who would have voted against the Court, to remain in the cloakroom and not vote. As the vote was taken, Democratic whip Mansfield of Montana announced: "The Senator from Delaware (Frear), the Senator from Florida (Holland), and the Senators from Oklahoma (Kerr and Monroney) are absent on official business." This was not exactly true. Holland was in Florida campaigning frantically for his renomination, while Kerr and Frear were in the Senate cloakroom restlessly waiting. In deference to a friend who had a tough job on his hands and who had worked miracles at keeping Democratic harmony during a long and grueling session, they did not vote.

George's Place

Traveling to Washington by plane, Congressmen Gene McCarthy of Minnesota and Charles Boyle of Illinois whiled away the time talking politics and listening to the pilot discoursing through a loudspeaker.

"We are now flying at an altitude of 10,000 feet . . . It's a beautiful day, isn't it folks? . . . No humidity up here . . . That beautiful scenely directly eblow us is the Ohio countryside . . ."

As the plane approached Washington, the pilot said: "We will arrive in the Nation's Capital in a few minutes. That's the historic Potomac River you see down there."

The loudspeaker clicked off, then apparently by mistake clicked back on again as the pilot spoke to the co-pilot: "I'll be glad to get a little shuteye in Washington. Won't be long now. We just passed George's place."

The plane's passengers, who weren't supposed to hear this, exchanged mystified glances.

"George's place?" grumbled Boyle. "What does he mean by that?"

McCarthy, a former school teacher, looked out the window, then reported to Boyle: "We just flew over Mount Vernon."

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Some persons seem to thrive on stress; others buckle under the smallest decisions. Progress is made when men in all walks of life realize their potentialities and limitations. What is productive for one may be futile for another.

A certain amount of stress is necessary for survival but when it creates distress such as illness, it is of concern to the physician. Emotional causes of disease may damage the tissues in much the same way as bacteria, tumors, and metabolic disturbances.

We could go a step further by classifying the type of emotional conflict that produces specific conditions such as high blood pressure, peptic ulcer, dermatitis, and colitis. According to Dr. C. H. Houston of Aspen, Colo., the stress created by fear, ambition, insecurity, and work are possible offenders in peptic ulcer.

Arthritis, asthma, and nervous rashes come from conflicting areas between ambition and accomplishment, between creative talent and expression. The hypertensive is all bottled up; the stress of self-containment, fear, and resentment pushes up his blood pressure. He should let off steam more often.

Can anything be done to allow men peace of mind without disrupting our present habits, needs, and customs? This is a moot question. Some prefer to accept the more exciting environment as it is; others are seeking bigger and better tranquilizers.

Those not endowed with nerves of steel, executive ability, or great intelligence should learn to live within their abilities and be happy for blessings received. But there is no need to change our government and our American way of life to secure happiness. This comes from doing, not taking. Neither is there any need to discourage progress because it creates stress in some persons.

Many creative people pay the extreme sacrifice for leaving the nation a better place in which to live. But they usually are criticized or condemned because advances made during peace time rarely are given the same consideration as those made during war times.

SHAKES FROM HOUSEWORK

Mrs. C. writes: A woman of 63 feels all right when she doesn't do anything but when she gets active, as in doing housework, she gets shaky and dizzy and has a clammy feeling. She has to sit down and rest until she feels well again.

REPLY

This woman needs a complete physical examination. She may have anemia, high blood pressure, low blood sugar, ear infection, poor circulation, or a nervous or neurological condition.

TORN TENDON

Mrs. J. writes: My son tore his Achilles' tendon while playing basketball. I'd like to know something about this mishap.

REPLY

This unusual accident stems from a sudden violent stretching of the tendon leading to the heel while jumping and landing on a foot that is flexed. Most victims are athletes, acrobats, or dancers. The plan of treatment depends upon the severity of the rupture and varies from the use of tape to surgery.

HICCUP HUSHING

S. G. writes :What is the best way to stop hiccups?

REPLY

The best methods probably are the most common—taking a drink of water, holding the breath, or diverting the attention.

TOMORROW: The steroid story.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

Eagles To Hold Annual Picnic In Frostburg

Outing Planned In Junior Order Park

FROSTBURG — The annual picnic and outing of Frostburg Aerie 1273, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will be held at the Junior Order Park Sunday.

The affair, which is in charge of Kenneth Pollock, chairman of the Entertainment committee, will get under way at 10 a. m. and will continue until 6 p. m.

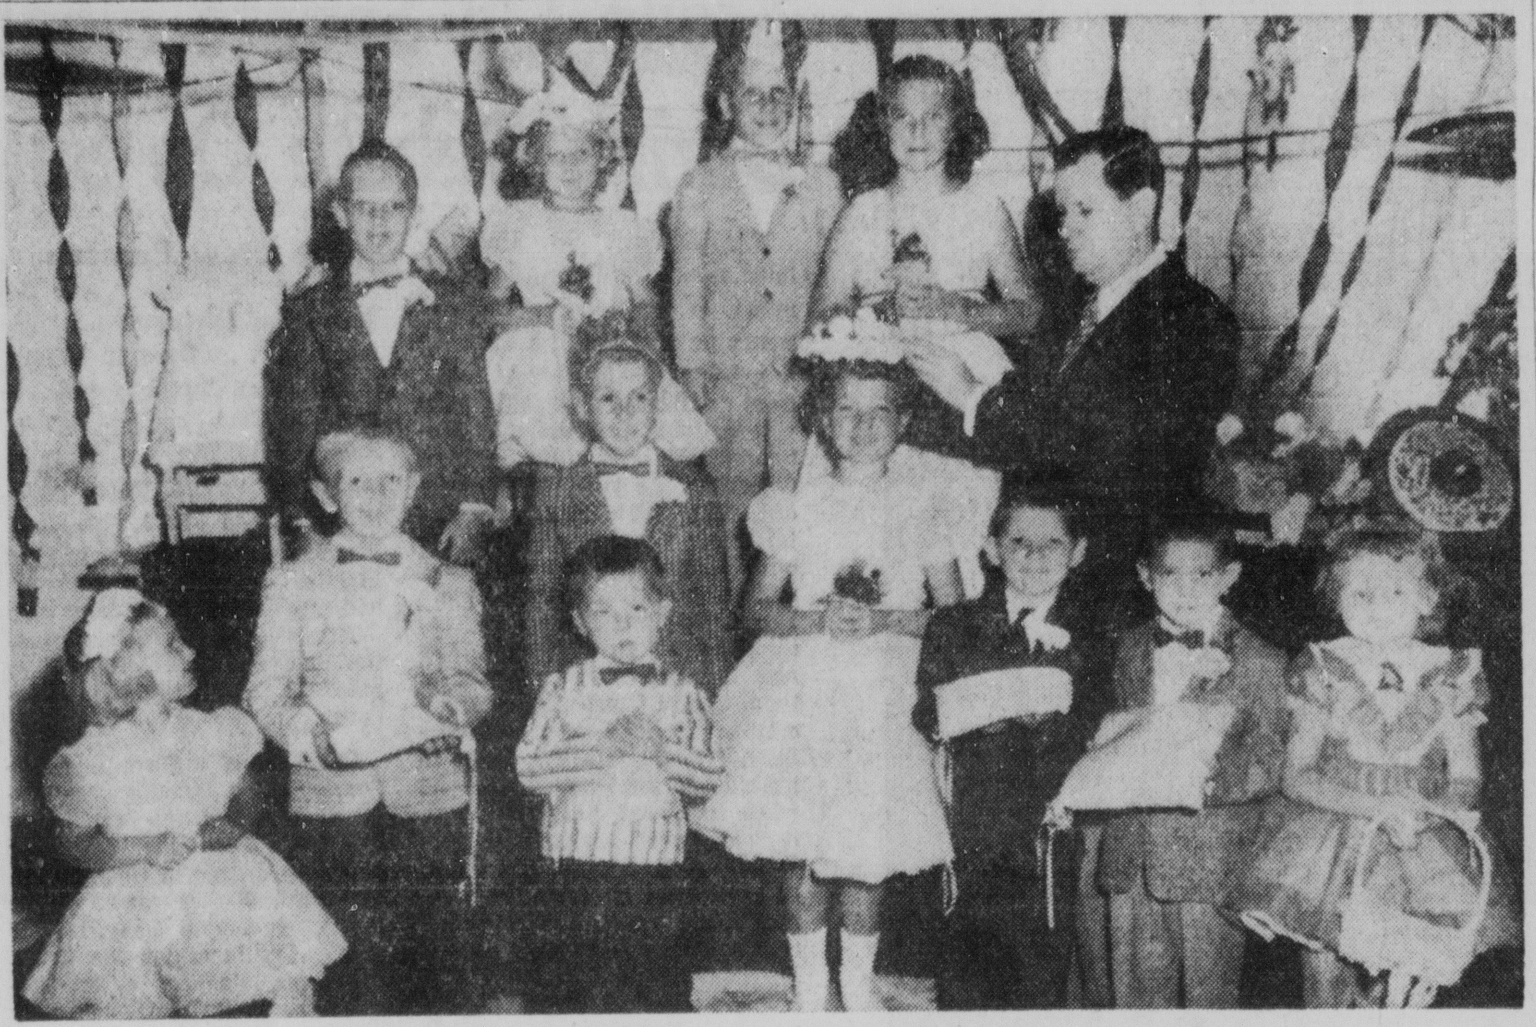
All refreshments and food will be furnished by the lodge.

In case of inclement weather, it has been arranged to hold the outing in the pavilion now used as a skating rink.

If weather permits, a schedule of games will be presented which will include horseshoe pitching, races and softball.

Shaking hands was believed to have originated from the custom of baring the weapon hand as a symbol of peace.

Opening available for Woman clerk and typist familiar with calculating machine equipment. Job consists of timekeeping and typing. Write Box 15, Times-News, Frostburg.
Adv.—N-T-Aug. 25-26-27



Playground King And Queen Crowned

The Braddock Playground in Frostburg held its closing ceremonies a recent evening with the crowning of the season's king and queen. George Pugh, treasurer of the association, is shown crowning Linda Snelson as queen. The king is William Perdue. Front row, left to right, are Jetta Cummings, flower girl; Max Layman, James Lancaster, Glenn Sperry and Robert Whetstone, crown bearers, and Debbie Snelson, flower girl. Back row, left to right, are Dennis Dye, prince; Lynn Fisher, princess; William Hochard and Jo Ann Spiker, attendants. This ceremony is an annual feature of the Frostburg playground.

St. Peter's Plans Picnic Supper On Thursday

LONACONING—A picnic supper will be held on Thursday from 5:30 p. m. to 7 p. m. at St. Peter's Episcopal Church. This social event will be open to the public and will be held on the lawn of the church.

Today at 9:30 a. m. will be Holy Communion. Saturday, from 5 to 5:30 p. m. Rev. Harry Shelley will be in the church for confessions.

Father Shelley will be in charge of the services on Sunday, with Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m., morning prayer and sermon at 9:30 a. m.; nursery and church school at 9:30 a. m.

Aleck M. Sloan and Michael J. Ward will be ushers; George J. Wilson and Glenn C. Riffey, crucifiers; Lee F. Miller and Glenn C. Riffey, servers; Miss Elizabeth L. Atkinson, altar guild; George J. Wilson, 7:30 server, on Sunday morning.

Woman's Auxiliary will meet on Tuesday, September 2, at the Parish hall. Rev. Leslee E. Schwindt, vicar, will be in the church on Saturday, September 6, for confessions.

Church School Teacher's picnic will begin Sunday, September 7, at noon. All church school teachers and ttheir families will attend.

Kiwanis Will Visit School

KEYSER — The Keyser Kiwanis Club has announced that the dinner meeting this evening, will be at the Wilson School, back in the hills of Mineral County, where a good meal will be served. Dinner will be served at 6 p. m., following which a short business session will be held.

The caravan of Kiwanians will gather on North Davis Street shortly before time of departure and leave for the school, which is situated in the hills east of U.S. Route 220, leaving that highway at the Blue Jay, turning east.

The program will be a discussion of the Vanguard Sky Travelers, a continuation of the subject presented three weeks ago. The project engineer of the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory will present the subject to the Kiwanians.

Next week family night will be observed at Meade Chapel, also in the rural area of Mineral County. Jack Fessenden, military technician for the ROTC at Potomac State, is chairman of the family night session.

New Route 40 School Bus Routes Changed For Year

OAKLAND—Bus routes for all but the two school buses serving the new Route 40 school east of Grantsville have been approved by the Garrett County Board of Education, effective September 2.

Only the buses of Harold Crowe and Frank Robeson are unchanged for the new school year.

Emanuel Bittner's bus, driven by Alvin Bittner, will gather up all high school children in the Johnson and Finzel areas on the north side of U. S. Route 40 and will take them to the Route 40 School. The time of arrival will be approximately 8:15. This bus will make a second run to gather up all elementary pupils, grades one through seven, on the north side of Route 40 to attend Route 40 School, including the run east on Route 40 to the top of Big Savage Mountain. The schedule will be reversed in the evening.

Melvin Fadeley's bus, which he will drive, will gather up all high school children on the south side of Route 40 in the old Beall School area and meet the Emanuel Bittner bus at the intersection of Route 40 and Johnson School Road. The time will be approximately 8 a. m. It will make a second run to the same area to gather up all children in grades one through seven and take them to Route 40 School. Arrival time will be approximately 8:50 a. m. The schedule will be reversed in the evening.

The Casselman Motor bus driven by Popsie Durst will pick up high and elementary children on road south of Route 40 just east of the Route 40 School. The time will be about 7:50 a. m. It will pick up all high school pupils at the Route 40 School and the high school pupils between Route 40 School and Robeson's Restaurant en route to Northern High School. It will pick up all elementary children between Turner's Dairy and Robeson's Restaurant.

The Casselman bus driven by Henry Patton will run south from Guntertown to Crowe's Store at Avilton, then west to Robeson's Restaurant and west on Route 40, picking up high school children, above grade seven, from Guntertown to Crowe's Store and both high and elementary pupils from the St. Andrew's Church area on. The afternoon schedule will be reversed. Children in this area of high school age will attend Northern High School other than those who have previously attended at Valley High School in Lonaconing.

Joshua Turner's bus will run as usual to Crowe's Store and then continue on road to Guntertown then west to Turner's Dairy where bus will turn around and pick up children between Turner's Dairy and Guntertown on way to Route 40 School.

For Harry Robeson's bus the extension on Avilton Road will be discontinued. These children will be transported by Casselman Motor bus driven by Henry Patton.

There also will be an extension to Humberson's on the Burgett Thomas route in the Friendsville area.

Eagles To Hold Annual Picnic In Frostburg

Outing Planned In Junior Order Park

FROSTBURG — The annual picnic and outing of Frostburg Aerie 1273, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will be held at the Junior Order Park Sunday.

The affair, which is in charge of Kenneth Pollock, chairman of the Entertainment committee, will get under way at 10 a. m. and will continue until 6 p. m.

All refreshments and food will be furnished by the lodge.

In case of inclement weather, it has been arranged to hold the outing in the pavilion now used as a skating rink.

If weather permits, a schedule of games will be presented which will include horseshoe pitching, races and softball.

Shaking hands was believed to have originated from the custom of baring the weapon hand as a symbol of peace.

Opening available for Woman clerk and typist familiar with calculating machine equipment. Job consists of timekeeping and typing. Write Box 15, Times-News, Frostburg.

Pirates Whip Cards, 5-3; Baltimore Wins In 12th, 1-0

4-Base Clout By Thomas Is Payoff Blow

Slams 34th Homer With Mate Aboard; Don Gross Victor

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Frank Thomas hit a two-run homer, his 34th of the season, to help the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday night.

Thomas connected in the third inning with Dick Stuart, who was hit by a Sam Jones pitch, on base to give the Pirates their third and fourth runs.

Jones, who was close to a no-hitter in his last start, showed little Tuesday night.

The combination of a double by Roberto Clemente, two passed balls and singles by Stuart, Bob Skinner and Bill Mazeroski, were good for two first inning runs.

A walk and Ken Boyer's double produced a Cardinal run in their first inning and Pirates starter George Witt retired in favor of Don Gross when he suffered an inflamed elbow in the third.

Gross held the Cards in check until the sixth when Wally Moon's single and Gene Green's 10th home run made it 4-3. Elroy Face finished up.

Reliefer Billy Muffett's error and Dick Groat's double gave the Pirates their insurance run in the eighth.

Boyd And Beecham Fight In Florida

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Bobby Boyd, 10th ranked middleweight from Chicago, Tuesday was a solid 8-5 choice to whip Miami's Jimmy Beecham when they clash in a 10-round fight here Wednesday night.

Boyd, who stopped Jimmy Morris last month in his last outing, hopes to solidify his rating with a win over the Miamian. He drew with Holly Mims and lost to Rory Calhoun recently and unless he handles Beecham easily he is likely to drop in the rankings.

On the other hand Beecham will be anxious to make up for losing a split decision to Spider Webb here last May. The margin was thin but it made Beecham's record 27 wins, 7 defeats and two ties.

Fight time is 9 p.m. (EST) and the action will be carried coast to coast by ABC.

Frank Trails Ralph

Frank Thomas — the greatest Pittsburgh Pirate home run slugger since Ralph Kiner — has hit two-or-more-homers-in-one-game, five times this year. However, Frank is still five behind Kiner's National League record of 10 in one season, set in 1947 — and six in back of the major league mark held by Hank Greenberg, with Detroit in 1938. Hank also played for the Pirates in the twi-light of his great career.

When Warren Spahn started in the All-Star game it marked his sixth appearance in the classic. He has been on 10 squads.

ATTEND FOOTBALL CLINIC HERE — William R. Fugitt, of Beckley, executive secretary of the West Virginia Secondary School Activities Commission and Patrick Tork, of West Virginia University, conducted the annual football clinic for coaches and officials of the tri-state area last night at the Allegany County Board of Education Building, Washington Street. Among those attending were the coaches and officials pictured above, left to right: Frederick "Tack" Clark, Keyser; Edward Schwarz, Allegany; William R. Fugitt, Patrick Tork, Robert E. Pence, supervisor of physical education for Allegany county public schools; Thomas O'Connor, Ridgeley; William P. Hahn, Fort Hill; Edward Hartman, Romney, and Gerard "Jerry" Calhoun, Beall. Messrs. Fugitt and Tork will conduct their next clinic at Charles Town, W. Va.

Brown Beats Ferrarese In Hurling Duel

Cleveland Hurler Walks Williams With Bases Full

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI) — Hal (Skinny) Brown of the Baltimore Orioles won a 12-inning pitchers' duel with Don Ferrarese of the Cleveland Indians Tuesday night, 1-0, when Ferrarese walked Dick Williams with the bases loaded.

It was the third straight victory for the Orioles, their sixth in the last seven games, and their 14th in the last 20 games in a surge that has carried them into the first division.

Ferrarese, who allowed only six hits in the game against the nine given up by Brown, yielded a one-out single to Billy Gardner in the last half of the 12th inning. Then he suddenly lost control after being struck on the hand by Foster Castleman's hard smash back to the mound.

The Indians' southpaw recovered in time to throw Castleman out at first base as Gardner took second. But he walked Bob Boyd, pinch-hitting for Brown, and the bases were loaded when Jim Busby beat out a hard bouncer off Ferrarese's glove.

Ferrarese then served three straight balls to Williams, nicked the corner of the plate for one strike, and then threw inside for a fourth ball to force in Gardner with the winning run.

Brown, who walked only one batter, gained his sixth victory of the year. Ferrarese, who gave up only two hits in the first inning, notched his first complete game of the season but suffered his fourth loss against one win.

Brown was scrambling all the way because the Indians had runners on base in 9 of the 12 innings as Minnie Minoso cracked out four singles. But the Tribe never could get more than one hit per inning, saw three runners thrown out attempting to steal by catcher Gus Triandos, and ran into a clutch double play in the 11th inning.

Turley Posts 19th Triumph Over K.C., 6-2

Four Double Plays Help Yankees Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) —Bob Turley, picking on his favorite Kansas City "cousins," reeled off his 19th victory Tuesday night while pitching the New York Yankees to a 6-2 triumph.

Turley wasn't particularly spectacular in giving up five walks and eight hits. But four Yankee doubleplays helped him boost his lifetime record to 15-2 over the seventh-place Athletics.

Kansas City did all of its scoring off Turley in the first inning when Roger Maris hammered his 23rd homer into the right field stands following a leadoff walk to Bob Martyn.

The Yankees, on the other hand, rapped loser Jack Urban and reliever Bud Daley for 14 hits, clinching the game in the second inning when they knocked out Urban with a three-run rally.

Singles by Bill Skowron, Norm Siebern, Elston Howard, and Jerry Lumpe produced two runs in the second and kayoed Urban in favor of Daley. A passed ball by catcher Frank House enabled the third run to score.

Tony Kubek's single with the bases full drove in two more runs in the fourth, and the Yankees added their final run in the sixth on successive singles by Kubek, Mickey Mantle, and Yogi Berra.

Kubek and Siebern, with three hits apiece, led the Yankee attack.

Allan Kaplon and Jack Hutchison came up with two well pitched games last night and the Cumberland Optimist Club jumped into the thick of the fight for playoff berths in the Hot Stove Baseball League by winning both ends of a doubleheader from B'nai B'rith at Penn Avenue Field by scores of 2-0 and 6-3.

The double victory enabled the Optimists to replace the Elks in third place after the latter dropped a 10-2 decision to the Lions Club earlier in the day.

Close Battle For Third

Two more games remain on the Optimists' schedule. They play Rotary Club today and the Jaycees on Thursday. A split would give the Optimists third place but a double loss would enable the Elks, who have finished their season, to tie them for third position. The four other clubs have been eliminated.

In last night's opener, Kaplon tossed a one-hitter and struck out 11. The single by B'nai B'rith was credited to Norris in the sixth inning. The Optimists sewed it up in the sixth when Mike Long doubled, scored on Bill Cowherd's single, and after the latter pilfered second and third he came home on Mike Marrale's fielder's choice.

Hutchison held B'nai B'rith to two safeties in the nightcap and whiffed a total of 13. Deatelhauser's single in the third was the only hit he yielded until the final frame when Hopwood's walk, Metzger's fielder's choice and Norris' three-run homer averted a shutout for the Brithmen.

Bill Cowherd homered and Kaplon obtained a pair of singles for the Optimists who collected eight hits in the second contest.

Stratton Whiffs 14

Jim Stratton threw a 5-hitter at the Elks and struck out 14 as Manager John Daum's Lions closed the season with a victory and wound up in second place, two games off the pace.

Mike Miller paced the Lions at the plate with three hits while Stratton, Jimmy Bell and Frank Murray garnered two each. The Elks' safeties included a two-bagger by Zembower.

West Virginia Opens Training Grind Monday

Eighteen Lettermen With Mountaineers

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI) —Ten days of rigorous pre-season training will begin next Monday at Jackson's Mill for approximately 100 West Virginia University football hopefuls.

Sixty-three players are listed on the varsity roster and about 40 freshmen have been invited to the picturesque camp. The frosh will return to the campus here after one week. The varsity will break camp on Sept. 11.

Eighteen lettermen are among the varsity candidates, including one from 1955. He is fullback Tom Huston, who has been in the Army. However, it is questionable whether he will be available for the 1958 season.

Players will receive physical examinations Sunday at the training camp and workouts will begin Monday. Two-hour practice sessions are scheduled at 8:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. e. s. t. daily except Sunday.

Trainer Whitey Gwynne, who made an inspection tour of "The Mill" on Monday, said the camp is in "real good shape for us." He said the grass on the practice area "is the best we've ever seen up there." This will aid in reducing injuries due to hard ground.

Althea Gibson, Mal Anderson Seeded No. 1

NEW YORK (AP) — Malcolm Anderson of Australia, the defending champion, was seeded No. 1 Tuesday in the U.S. National Singles Tennis Championships which start at Forest Hills on Friday. Hamilton Richardson of Arlington, Va., was the first seeded American. He was rated No. 3.

Anderson was followed in the rankings by Ashley Cooper, another Australian. Cooper is the Wimbledon champion.

Althea Gibson of New York, was rated No. 1 among the women players. She is the defending champion and has won the Wimbledon crown the past two years. She was followed by Mrs. Dorothy Head Knode of Forest Hills, N.Y., Ann Haydon of England and Marie Bueno of Brazil.

Trotters May Break Record In 33rd Hambletonian Today

14 Three-Year-Olds To Start At DuQuoin; Purse Is $106,719

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UPI) — Prospects for the fastest heat in Hambletonian history, under two minutes, were bright with fair weather predicted for Wednesday's 33rd classic stake for three-year-old trotters.

The top four favorites, the fillies Emily's Pride and Sandalwood, Sharpshooter, last year's two year old champion, and McColby, all were rated capable of bettering Hoot Mon's record heat of 2:00.

The track, rated one of the fastest on the grand circuit, also was expected to be in prime condition after two days of running and with prospects for clear skies, a bright sun and warm temperatures.

It was expected that the first heat would develop into a speed clash between Emily's Pride, rated the even-money favorite with Sandalwood, and Sharpshooter. The latter trots from the fifth post position and Emily's Pride from the sixth.

Rated Quick Starters

Both were rate quick starters, and each was expected to make a bid for the rail. But with both starting fast to furnish competition, they could set a record-breaking pace all the way around.

Sandalwood and McColby will start with a handicap, since both drew post positions in the second tier of starters, behind the first 10 horses of the 14-horse field. Also in the back tier will be Record Mat and Great Lullwater, a 3-1 early choice. Sharpshooter and McColby were 2-1 picks.

Emily's Pride, to be driven by Flick Knipe, has the fastest clocking of the field this year, 2:00 2-5 with Great Lullwater next at 2:01 2-5. Mr. Saunders, starting on the pole has a 2:02, Sandalwood 2:02 2-5 and McColby 2:02 3-5.

Sharpshooter, winner of over $50,000 as a two-year-old, has 2:04 3-5 this year, but last year did 2:02 4-5, and was believed to be completely recovered now from a virus infection which hampered him earlier.

Former Winners Racing

Five drivers in the field have won the Hambletonian previously. Johnny Simpson, who will handle Gang Awa, Joe O'Brien, behind Little Rocky, Del Cameron, with Record Mat, Harry Pownall, with Sharpshooter, and Del Miller, with Great Lullwater. Dana Cameron will drive McColby and Ralph Baldwin will pilot Sandalwood.

The pace will gross $106,719.24, fourth highest in history. The winner will receive the second largest purse, $62,750.92, beaten only by $63,126.59, paid to Helicopter, the last filly to win the race, in 1953.

A crowd of about 20,000 was expected for the test. The first heat will run at 4 p.m. e.d.t., the second at 5 p.m. e.d.t., and the third, if necessary, at 5:50 p.m. e.d.t.

Victory goes to the first horse to win two heats. If a different horse wins each of the first three heats, the heat winners only run in the fourth heat, which would be at 6:50 p.m. e.d.t, if necessary.

By STEVE SNIDER
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Those 1,450 golfers firing away across the nation Tuesday for berths in the U.S. amateur golf championship are in at their own expense and strictly for the kicks.

"No expense accounts are allowed," said secretary Joe Dey of the U.S. Golf Association which rides herd on the purest amateurs in American sport.

Yet golf is booming in the U.S. today while tennis, long noted for its expense account "bums," is lagging behind the rest of the world.

"Our amateur rule is rigid but simple," said Dey, "and right there is one of the clues to the popularity of amateur golf. Our amateurs must play solely for the love of the game."

And obviously plenty of them love it enough to pay their own way.

All Pay Selves

A total of 1,484 entered the 1958 National Amateur scheduled at San Francisco Sept. 8-13. A total of 200, including Tuesday's qualifiers and exempt players, will be in the starting field.

They'll all have to pay their travel costs and caddy fees. Those who can't put up with friends for board and room will be stuck with those items, too. A player who goes all the way to the finals will have about nine or 10 days on the scene. If he gets out under $400, he'll be a lucky guy.

Early Wynn Notches 11th At Capital

White Sox Veteran Beats Senators, 5-2

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Husky Early Wynn pitched a seven-hitter, drove in two runs, and scored one himself Tuesday night to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 5-2 victory over the Washington Senators.

Clint Courtney's two-run double in the third inning accounted for all the Washington scoring and deprived the 38-year-old Wynn of a shutout as he recorded his 11th victory of the season and 246th in an 18-year career.

Wynn's infield hit drove in the Sox' first run in the second inning after Senator starter Russ Kemmerer had loaded the brass on three walks. Washington went ahead, 2-1, with its pair in the third when Courtney doubled after Wynn had loaded the bases by giving up a single to Kemmerer and walks to Albie Pearson and Roy Sievers.

Wynn brought in the tying run in the fourth when he walked and scored on Luis Aparicio's triple. Aparicio then scored on Kemmerer's wild pitch. Sherm Lollar's 18th homer in the fifth inning made it 4-2 and the Sox added an insurance run in that frame when Ray Boone singled, moved up on an infield out, and scored on Wynn's single.

It was Chicago's 22nd victory in the last 32 games.

Pirates Whip Cards, 5-3; Baltimore Wins In 12th, 1-0

Slams 34th Homer With Mate Aboard; Don Gross Victor

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Frank Thomas hit a two-run homer, his 34th of the season, to help the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 5 to 3 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals Tuesday night.

Thomas connected in the third inning with Dick Stuart, who was hit by a Sam Jones pitch, on base to give the Pirates their third and fourth runs.

Jones, who was close to a no-hitter in his last start, showed little Tuesday night.

The combination of a double by Roberto Clemente, two passed balls and singles by Stuart, Bob Skinner and Bill Mazeroski, were good for two first inning runs.

A walk and Ken Boyer's double produced a Cardinal run in their first inning and Pirates starter George Witt retired in favor of Don Gross when he suffered an inflamed elbow in the third.

Gross held the Cards in check until the sixth when Wally Moon's single and Gene Green's 10th home run made it 4-3. Elroy Face finished up.

Reliefer Billy Muffett's error and Dick Groat's double gave the Pirates their insurance run in the eighth.

Boyd And Beecham Fight In Florida

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Bobby Boyd, 10th ranked middleweight from Chicago, Tuesday was a solid 8-5 choice to whip Miami's Jimmy Beecham when they clash in a 10-round fight here Wednesday night.

Boyd, who stopped Jimmy Morris last month in his last outing, hopes to solidify his rating with a win over the Miamian. He drew with Holly Mims and lost to Rory Calhoun recently and unless he handles Beecham easily he is likely to drop in the rankings.

On the other hand Beecham will be anxious to make up for losing a split decision to Spider Webb here last May. The margin was thin but it made Beecham's record 27 wins, 7 defeats and two ties.

Fight time is 9 p.m. (EST) and the action will be carried coast to coast by ABC.

Frank Trails Ralph

Frank Thomas — the greatest Pittsburgh Pirate home run slugger since Ralph Kiner — has hit two-or-more-homers-in-one-game, five times this year. However, Frank is still five behind Kiner's National League record of 10 in one season, set in 1947 — and six in back of the major league mark held by Hank Greenberg, with Detroit in 1938. Hank also played for the Pirates in the twi-light of his great career.

When Warren Spahn started in the All-Star game it marked his sixth appearance in the classic. He has been on 10 squads.

Among those attending were the coaches and officials pictured above, left to right: Frederick "Tack" Clark, Keyser; Edward Schwarz, Allegany; William R. Fugitt, Patrick Tork, Robert E. Pence, supervisor of physical education for Allegany county public schools; Thomas O'Connor, Ridgeley; William P. Hahn, Fort Hill; Edward Hartman, Romney, and Gerard "Jerry" Calhoun, Beall. Messrs. Fugitt and Tork will conduct their next clinic at Charles Town, W. Va.

Cleveland Hurler Walks Williams With Bases Full

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI) — Hal (Skinny) Brown of the Baltimore Orioles won a 12-inning pitchers' duel with Don Ferrarese of the Cleveland Indians Tuesday night, 1-0, when Ferrarese walked Dick Williams with the bases loaded.

It was the third straight victory for the Orioles, their sixth in the last seven games, and their 14th in the last 20 games in a surge that has carried them into the first division.

Ferrarese, who allowed only six hits in the game against the nine given up by Brown, yielded a one-out single to Billy Gardner in the last half of the 12th inning. Then he suddenly lost control after being struck on the hand by Foster Castleman's hard smash back to the mound.

The Indians' southpaw recovered in time to throw Castleman out at first base as Gardner took second. But he walked Bob Boyd, pinch-hitting for Brown, and the bases were loaded when Jim Busby beat out a hard bouncer off Ferrarese's glove.

Ferrarese then served three straight balls to Williams, nicked the corner of the plate for one strike, and then threw inside for a fourth ball to force in Gardner with the winning run.

Brown, who walked only one batter, gained his sixth victory of the year. Ferrarese, who gave up only two hits in the first inning, notched his first complete game of the season but suffered his fourth loss against one win.

Brown was scrambling all the way because the Indians had runners on base in 9 of the 12 innings as Minnie Minoso cracked out four singles. But the Tribe never could get more than one hit per inning, saw three runners thrown out attempting to steal by catcher Gus Triandos, and ran into a clutch double play in the 11th inning.

Allan Kaplon and Jack Hutchison came up with two well pitched games last night and the Cumberland Optimist Club jumped into the thick of the fight for playoff berths in the Hot Stove Baseball League by winning both ends of a doubleheader from B'nai B'rith at Penn Avenue Field by scores of 2-0 and 6-3.

The double victory enabled the Optimists to replace the Elks in third place after the latter dropped a 10-2 decision to the Lions Club earlier in the day.

Close Battle For Third

Two more games remain on the Optimists' schedule. They play Rotary Club today and the Jaycees on Thursday. A split would give the Optimists third place but a double loss would enable the Elks, who have finished their season, to tie them for third position. The four other clubs have been eliminated.

In last night's opener, Kaplon tossed a one-hitter and struck out 11. The single by B'nai B'rith was credited to Norris in the sixth inning. The Optimists sewed it up in the sixth when Mike Long doubled, scored on Bill Cowherd's single, and after the latter pilfered second and third he came home on Mike Marrale's fielder's choice.

Hutchison held B'nai B'rith to two safeties in the nightcap and whiffed a total of 13. Deatelhauser's single in the third was the only hit he yielded until the final frame when Hopwood's walk, Metzger's fielder's choice and Norris' three-run homer averted a shutout for the Brithmen.

Bill Cowherd homered and Kaplon obtained a pair of singles for the Optimists who collected eight hits in the second contest.

Stratton Whiffs 14

Jim Stratton threw a 5-hitter at the Elks and struck out 14 as Manager John Daum's Lions closed the season with a victory and wound up in second place, two games off the pace.

Mike Miller paced the Lions at the plate with three hits while Stratton, Jimmy Bell and Frank Murray garnered two each. The Elks' safeties included a two-bagger by Zembower.

Turley Posts 19th Triumph Over K.C., 6-2

Four Double Plays Help Yankees Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) —Bob Turley, picking on his favorite Kansas City "cousins," reeled off his 19th victory Tuesday night while pitching the New York Yankees to a 6-2 triumph.

Turley wasn't particularly spectacular in giving up five walks and eight hits. But four Yankee doubleplays helped him boost his lifetime record to 15-2 over the seventh-place Athletics.

Kansas City did all of its scoring off Turley in the first inning when Roger Maris hammered his 23rd homer into the right field stands following a leadoff walk to Bob Martyn.

The Yankees, on the other hand, rapped loser Jack Urban and reliever Bud Daley for 14 hits, clinching the game in the second inning when they knocked out Urban with a three-run rally.

Singles by Bill Skowron, Norm Siebern, Elston Howard, and Jerry Lumpe produced two runs in the second and kayoed Urban in favor of Daley. A passed ball by catcher Frank House enabled the third run to score.

Tony Kubek's single with the bases full drove in two more runs in the fourth, and the Yankees added their final run in the sixth on successive singles by Kubek, Mickey Mantle, and Yogi Berra.

Kubek and Siebern, with three hits apiece, led the Yankee attack.

West Virginia Opens Training Grind Monday

Eighteen Lettermen With Mountaineers

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (UPI)—Ten days of rigorous pre-season training will begin next Monday at Jackson's Mill for approximately 100 West Virginia University football hopefuls.

Sixty-three players are listed on the varsity roster and about 40 freshmen have been invited to the picturesque camp. The frosh will return to the campus here after one week. The varsity will break camp on Sept. 11.

Eighteen lettermen are among the varsity candidates, including one from 1955. He is fullback Tom Huston, who has been in the Army. However, it is questionable whether he will be available for the 1958 season.

Players will receive physical examinations Sunday at the training camp and workouts will begin Monday. Two-hour practice sessions are scheduled at 8:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. e. s. t. daily except Sunday.

Trainer Whitey Gwynne, who made an inspection tour of "The Mill" on Monday, said the camp is in "real good shape for us." He said the grass on the practice area "is the best we've ever seen up there." This will aid in reducing injuries due to hard ground.

Althea Gibson, Mal Anderson Seeded No. 1

NEW YORK (AP) — Malcolm Anderson of Australia, the defending champion, was seeded No. 1 Tuesday in the U.S. National Singles Tennis Championships which start at Forest Hills on Friday. Hamilton Richardson of Arlington, Va., was the first seeded American. He was rated No. 3.

Anderson was followed in the rankings by Ashley Cooper, another Australian. Cooper is the Wimbledon champion.

Althea Gibson of New York, was rated No. 1 among the women players. She is the defending champion and has won the Wimbledon crown the past two years. She was followed by Mrs. Dorothy Head Knode of Forest Hills, N.Y., Ann Haydon of England and Marie Bueno of Brazil.

Trotters May Break Record In 33rd Hambletonian Today

14 Three-Year-Olds To Start At DuQuoin; Purse Is $106,719

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UPI) — Prospects for the fastest heat in Hambletonian history, under two minutes, were bright with fair weather predicted for Wednesday's 33rd classic stake for three-year-old trotters.

The top four favorites, the fillies Emily's Pride and Sandalwood, Sharpshooter, last year's two year old champion, and McColby, all were rated capable of bettering Hoot Mon's record heat of 2:00.

The track, rated one of the fastest on the grand circuit, also was expected to be in prime condition after two days of running and with prospects for clear skies, a bright sun and warm temperatures.

It was expected that the first heat would develop into a speed clash between Emily's Pride, rated the even-money favorite with Sandalwood, and Sharpshooter. The latter trots from the fifth post position and Emily's Pride from the sixth.

Rated Quick Starters

Both were rate quick starters, and each was expected to make a bid for the rail. But with both starting fast to furnish competition, they could set a record-breaking pace all the way around.

Sandalwood and McColby will start with a handicap, since both drew post positions in the second tier of starters, behind the first 10 horses of the 14-horse field. Also in the back tier will be Record Mat and Great Lullwater, a 3-1 early choice. Sharpshooter and McColby were 2-1 picks.

Emily's Pride, to be driven by Flick Knipe, has the fastest clocking of the field this year, 2:00 2-5 with Great Lullwater next at 2:01 2-5. Mr. Saunders, starting on the pole has a 2:02, Sandalwood 2:02 2-5 and McColby 2:02 3-5.

Sharpshooter, winner of over $50,000 as a two-year-old, has 2:04 3-5 this year, but last year did 2:02 4-5, and was believed to be completely recovered now from a virus infection which hampered him earlier.

Former Winners Racing

Five drivers in the field have won the Hambletonian previously. Johnny Simpson, who will handle Gang Awa, Joe O'Brien, behind Little Rocky, Del Cameron, with Record Mat, Harry Pownall, with Sharpshooter, and Del Miller, with Great Lullwater. Dana Cameron will drive McColby and Ralph Baldwin will pilot Sandalwood.

The pace will gross $106,719.24, fourth highest in history. The winner will receive the second largest purse, $62,750.92, beaten only by $63,126.59, paid to Helicopter, the last filly to win the race, in 1953.

A crowd of about 20,000 was expected for the test. The first heat will run at 4 p.m. e.d.t., the second at 5 p.m. e.d.t., and the third, if necessary, at 5:50 p.m. e.d.t.

Victory goes to the first horse to win two heats. If a different horse wins each of the first three heats, the heat winners only run in the fourth heat, which would be at 6:50 p.m. e.d.t, if necessary.

SPORTS PATROL

(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
By STEVE SNIDER
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Those 1,450 golfers firing away across the nation Tuesday for berths in the U.S. amateur golf championship are in at their own expense and strictly for the kicks.

"No expense accounts are allowed," said secretary Joe Dey of the U.S. Golf Association which rides herd on the purest amateurs in American sport.

Yet golf is booming in the U.S. today while tennis, long noted for its expense account "bums," is lagging behind the rest of the world.

"Our amateur rule is rigid but simple," said Dey, "and right there is one of the clues to the popularity of amateur golf. Our amateurs must play solely for the love of the game."

And obviously plenty of them love it enough to pay their own way.

All Pay Selves

A total of 1,484 entered the 1958 National Amateur scheduled at San Francisco Sept. 8-13. A total of 200, including Tuesday's qualifiers and exempt players, will be in the starting field.

They'll all have to pay their travel costs and caddy fees. Those who can't put up with friends for board and room will be stuck with those items, too. A player who goes all the way to the finals will have about nine or 10 days on the scene. If he gets out under $400, he'll be a lucky guy.

Early Wynn Notches 11th At Capital

White Sox Veteran Beats Senators, 5-2

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Husky Early Wynn pitched a seven-hitter, drove in two runs, and scored one himself Tuesday night to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 5-2 victory over the Washington Senators.

Clint Courtney's two-run double in the third inning accounted for all the Washington scoring and deprived the 38-year-old Wynn of a shutout as he recorded his 11th victory of the season and 246th in an 18-year career.

Wynn's infield hit drove in the Sox' first run in the second inning after Senator starter Russ Kemmerer had loaded the brass on three walks. Washington went ahead, 2-1, with its pair in the third when Courtney doubled after Wynn had loaded the bases by giving up a single to Kemmerer and walks to Albie Pearson and Roy Sievers.

Wynn brought in the tying run in the fourth when he walked and scored on Luis Aparicio's triple. Aparicio then scored on Kemmerer's wild pitch. Sherm Lollar's 18th homer in the fifth inning made it 4-2 and the Sox added an insurance run in that frame when Ray Boone singled, moved up on an infield out, and scored on Wynn's single.

It was Chicago's 22nd victory in the last 32 games.

Milwaukee Defeats Giants Eighth Straight Time, 7-3

Ed Mathews Belts Pair Of Homers

Braves Pole Four Round-Trippers As Burdette Bags 15th

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The Milwaukee Braves, led by Eddie Mathews, exploded with four home runs in the last three innings Tuesday to humble the Giants, 7-3, and defeat them for the eighth straight time.

Mathews got two of the homers with nobody aboard. He put Milwaukee ahead for the day with a drive into the left center field section in the seventh inning then added icing to the cake with his 27th of the year into the right field seats during the ninth.

The outburst helped restless Lew Burdette coast to his 15th win of the season and fourth of the year at the expense of San Francisco which fell nine games behind the league leading Braves.

After Mathews' first homer had nullified a two-run blast by Willie Mays which tied the game in the sixth, Del Crandall hit another bases empty job off reliever Marv Grissom in the eighth inning.

Then Mathews and Wes Covington belted Grissom for two more in the ninth, and the right hander headed for the dugout immediately.

The loss went to Ruben Gomez who suffered his 11th setback while working the first seven innings. All told, the Braves mounted a 17-hit assault against three Giant hurlers.

Burdette, who often has been charged with throwing spit balls, let Umpire Jocko Conlan examine the sphere three times during the contest. Burdette also got three singles in four trips.

Tuesday's turnout of 20,297 gave the Braves a new club record attendance on the road of 1,316,890.

Smith Is Named Paw Paw Coach

Comer New Mentor At Chestertown

Glenn Smith, of Piedmont, W. Va., has been appointed basketball and baseball coach at Paw Paw High School, succeeding Sid Roach, who has resigned to take over the duties of assistant football coach at Charleston (W. Va.) High School.

The new Paw Paw mentor is the son of Evers Smith, one-time Piedmont High and Westvaco cage star. Glenn also starred on Piedmont High quints and is a graduate of the University of Maryland.

Roach coached at Paw Paw for one year. His 1958 baseball team won nine games and lost two while his 1957-58 basketball team had an 18-5 record.

Roy L. Comer of Ridgeley, is the new football coach and physical education instructor at Chestertown (Md.) High School.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Comer, Ridgeley, and was graduated from Ridgeley High School where he starred in football and basketball. In 1948-49 he was a regular on the Ridgeley High quint that won the PVC title with a 10-0 record. Roy also played football and basketball at Shepherd College where he received his bachelor of arts degree.

Old Exports Lose To Kennell's Mill

Kennell's Mill defeated the Corriganville Old Exports yesterday at Corriganville by the score of 7-3 as the playoffs got under way in the County Softball League.

The Millmen solved the offerings of Joe Raygor for 11 safeties while Vernon Lowery was holding the pennant winners to four bingles in the opener of the best-of-three series.

Maple Inn Old Germans will play at Stringtown today in the first game of their playoff series. Yesterday's score:

Kennell's Mill 7 11 2
Corriganville 3 4 1
V. Lowery and C. Stair, J. Raygor and J. Price.

HOT STOVE LEAGUE FLAG WINNERS—The Kiwanis Club, managed by Wayne White, has won its second pennant in the eight-year history of the Hot Stove League by finishing the season with a 16-5 record. They also copped the flag in 1955. The Kiwanians swept three-game series with Bedford Road Optimists and B'nai B'rith and copped two out of three games from the five other clubs in the league. The squad above, left to right: FRONT ROW—Wayne White, manager; Lester Boden, Jan Withrow, Dale Conners, Bill Hoyle, bat boy, Harold Apple, Jack Harper, Leroy Hanekamp and Jim Stafford, bat boy. BACK ROW—Melvin Boone, coach; Don Renotas, coach; Edward Busch, Jim Powelson, "Butch" Bosley, John Price, Charles Boone, Harvey Shanholtz, Mickey Robinson and Bill Withrow, coach.

Weirton Bows Out In Legion Regional Test

Greenbelt, Gaslight Beat West Virginians

ELKTON, Md. (UPI) — Weirton, W. Va., was eliminated from the regional junior American Legion baseball tournament Tuesday when it lost a pair of games to the Maryland and District of Columbia champions.

Greenbelt, Md., edged the West Virginians 4-3 in a morning game and defending champion Gaslight Post of Washington, D.C., topped then 6-2 Tuesday afternoon.

Gerry Athey bested Mike Tomasovich in a pitching duel in the first game. Each pitcher had nine strikeouts and each was a batting star.

Tomasovich singled home Jack Hedmond after he had doubled in the first and then slammed a 385 foot homer over the left field wall in the eighth after Hedmond singled.

Athey doubled in two runs in a four run uprising in the fourth frame and scored the winning run on a perfect squeeze bunt by Bill Hammond.

Mike Southcomb limited Weirton to three hits, all singles, in the nightcap while recording 13 strikeouts for Gaslight.

counts or permit any outsiders to sponsor a star player," said Dey. "For one thing, we're dealing on the whole with a different type of person than in other sports. Usually, though not always, our players are more or less established in non-sports careers and regard golf as a sideline.

"Now it wouldn't be fair to other amateurs if we had a few 'golf bums' who could play tournaments the year around on expense accounts. They'd become far more proficient than the week-end golfers who make up the backbone of our competitions. They might win all the tournaments."

Only Top Players

That has, in fact, happened in tennis. Only the top players are invited to travel on expense accounts. A rare exception in recent years has been cowboy Mal Anderson of Australia, who won the U.S. crown at Forest Hills last season.

Mal paid his own way on at least two trips to England and the U.S. before he became famous and is on his own again because of a dispute with Aussie officials involving expenses for his wife on this t r.

But even if a golfer gets dollar signs in his eyes he still has more opportunity to cash in on his skills than does a tennis player. There are more teaching jobs in golf, more loot to be gained for more players on the tournament trail.

Tennis has room for only one or two new pros a year—if that.

McCoy To Return

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The St. Louis Hawks announced Tuesday that Julius McCoy, southpaw scoring star of Michigan State before a hitch in the armed services, will join the club in training next month.

McCoy, a 6-2 ½ forward who will be a backliner for the Hawks, has been stationed with the Sixth Armored Cavalry in Germany for the last 15 months.

Caseys Cop Series Opener, Top Pittsburgh Plate, 1-0

Snider's Hit Gives Al Sheetz Decision Over Bill Thompson

The Knights of Columbus drew first blood in their Rocking Chair Softball League playoff series with the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company by winning a 1-0 thriller yesterday at Stitcher Field as Al Sheetz decisioned Bill Thompson in a neat pitching duel.

Charles "Chick" Snider's second single of the contest scored the only run of the contest in the 6th inning.

Mickey Clark opened the frame by drawing a walk and advanced to second base when all hands were safe on Al Martin's fielder's choice sacrifice. After Sam Brady turned in a sensational catch of George Geatz's drive to left field and Bob McGreevy struck out, Snider slammed a single to right to score Clark. Martin was picked off third to end the inning.

Pittsburgh Plate was in scoring position thrice during the game but was unable to solve Sheetz in the pinches. Clay Ingram tripled off Toar Speir's glove in left field in the second inning and Ronnie Ingram smacked a two-bagger in the 5th but both players perished on the hassocks.

The Glassmen threatened in the 7th when Clay Ingram walked and Thompson singled but Sheetz put on the brakes, forcing Frye to go out on a pop fly while Ronnie Ingram fanned.

Sheetz, who won 14 and lost 3 during the regular season, held Pittsburgh Plate to three hits and struck out six. The shutout was his sixth of the season. Snider of the Knights was the only player to obtain more than one safety.

The second game of the best-of-three series is billed for Thursday at Stitcher Field. Today the Elks and V.F.W. will tangle in the second game of their series. The Vets copped the opener, 5-3. Yesterday's score:

Pittsburgh Plate .. 000 000 0— 0 3 1
K. of C. .... 000 001 x— 1 5 3
Thompson and Frye. Sheetz and Martin.

Mt. Savage Pirates Defeat Braves, 6-3

Bobby Robertson tossed a three-hitter and mowed down 12 via the strikeout route in pitching the Pirates to a 6-3 victory over the Braves yesterday in the Mt. Savage Little League.

Dennis Blank, who went the route for the Braves, yielded 10 hits and fanned ten.

Sweene, Robertson and Mulligan of the Pirates and Darrell Blank of the Braves collected two hits each. Score:

Pirates .... 200 400— 6 10 2
Braves .... 000 030— 3 5 5
R. Robertson and Neder. D. Blank and Shaffer.

Rubber Workers Move To Finals

Local 26 Ushers Out Keech's, 14-13

Local 26, pennant winner in the Men's Rec Softball League, advanced to the playoff finals by eliminating Keech's Drug Stores in a 14-13 squeaker yesterday at Post Field.

Keech's scored three runs in the last of the 7th and had the tying and winning runs on third and second when third baseman Harry Widdows saved the day for the Rubber Workers with a leaping catch of a line drive from the bat of Robb to end the game.

Thirty hits were amassed by the teams—16 for the losers and 14 for the winners. Morgan Morgan and "Ace" Emery smacked a homer and single each, Widdows hit for the circuit and Ed Barley collected a two-bagger and two singles for Local 26. Dick Morgan and Bob Steckman had perfect days at the plate for Keech's with four hits each while Beal blasted a three-run homer.

Local 26 swept the series in two straight, having copped the opener, 13-1, and will play the winner of the Western Maryland-Don McIntyre's series in the finals.

Darkness halted the initial game of the series between Western Maryland and Don McIntyre's at Naval Reserve Field with the railroaders leading 15-13 in the fifth inning.

This game must be replayed on Thursday at 6:15 at Post Field with Western Maryland as the home team. Yesterday's score:

AT POST FIELD
Local 26 .... 021 344 3—14 14 1
Keech's .... 106 030 3—13 16 3
D. Decker, F. Doolan (3) and Emery. F. Nethken, B. Scaletta and D. Morgan. WP — F. Doolan. LP — B. Scaletta. HR — M. Morgan, Emery and Widdows (Local 26), Beal (Keech's).

Russian Rifle Shots Dominate World Matches

Annex Individual And Team Honors

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russian marksmen, using the Red Army's standard rifle, climaxed their domination of the world shooting championships Tuesday by winning the final event with team and individual records.

The Russians won the army rifle competition, a 300-meter, 60 - shot event for the Mannerheim Gold Cup, with a score of 2,737 out of a possible 3,000. This total broke the old world record of 2,607 set by a Swiss team in 1939. A. Tilik of Russia won the individual title in the event with a score of 555 out of a possible 600.

The first 15 marksmen broke the former world individual mark of 530 for the event set by O. Elo of Finland in 1937. Emmet Duncan of San Diego, Calif., finished fifth with 545 and Verle Wright of Fort Wayne, Ind., was ninth with 536.

The Russians, who have dominated the international championships since they took charge of the 1954 competition at Caracas, Venezuela, won 14 of 17 team events and 11 of 23 individual events this time. This gave them a total of 25 of the 40 titles at stake. The United States — Russia's closest rival in the championships — won five individual and no team titles.

Game Is Postponed

BOSTON (UPI)—A night game between Boston and Detroit was rained out Tuesday night. The game will be played Wednesday, a Red Sox spokesman said.

The spokesman said the Red Sox and Tigers would play a regularly - scheduled game Wednesday afternoon, then play the postponed game Wednesday night.

Portland Beavers Considering Suit Against Majors

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Directors of the Portland baseball team of the Pacific Coast League Tuesday considered whether to sue the major leagues for violation of the major-minor league agreement because of local major league telecasts.

Don Walker, secretary and legal counsel for the Portland team, contended telecasting of major league games here on days the Beavers were playing at home constituted a violation of the agreement which prohibits majors playing baseball in a minor league territory.

Don Walker, secretary and legal counsel for the Portland team, contended telecasting of major league games here on days the Beavers were playing at home constituted a violation of the agreement which prohibits majors playing baseball in a minor league territory.

Weirton Bows Out In Legion Regional Test

Greenbelt, Gaslight Beat West Virginians

ELKTON, Md. (UPI) — Weirton, W. Va., was eliminated from the regional junior American Legion baseball tournament Tuesday when it lost a pair of games to the Maryland and District of Columbia champions.

Greenbelt, Md., edged the West Virginians 4-3 in a morning game and defending champion Gaslight Post of Washington, D.C., topped then 6-2 Tuesday afternoon.

Gerry Athey bested Mike Tomasovich in a pitching duel in the first game. Each pitcher had nine strikeouts and each was a batting star.

Tomasovich singled home Jack Hedmond after he had doubled in the first and then slammed a 385 foot homer over the left field wall in the eighth after Hedmond singled.

Athey doubled in two runs in a four run uprising in the fourth frame and scored the winning run on a perfect squeeze bunt by Bill Hammond.

Mike Southcomb limited Weirton to three hits, all singles, in the nightcap while recording 13 strikeouts for Gaslight.

Caseys Cop Series Opener, Top Pittsburgh Plate, 1-0

Snider's Hit Gives Al Sheetz Decision Over Bill Thompson

The Knights of Columbus drew first blood in their Rocking Chair Softball League playoff series with the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company by winning a 1-0 thriller yesterday at Stitcher Field as Al Sheetz decisioned Bill Thompson in a neat pitching duel.

Charles "Chick" Snider's second single of the contest scored the only run of the contest in the 6th inning.

Mickey Clark opened the frame by drawing a walk and advanced to second base when all hands were safe on Al Martin's fielder's choice sacrifice. After Sam Brady turned in a sensational catch of George Geatz's drive to left field and Bob McGreevy struck out, Snider slammed a single to right to score Clark. Martin was picked off third to end the inning.

Pittsburgh Plate was in scoring position thrice during the game but was unable to solve Sheetz in the pinches. Clay Ingram tripled off Toar Speir's glove in left field in the second inning and Ronnie Ingram smacked a two-bagger in the 5th but both players perished on the hassocks.

The Glassmen threatened in the 7th when Clay Ingram walked and Thompson singled but Sheetz put on the brakes, forcing Frye to go out on a pop fly while Ronnie Ingram fanned.

Sheetz, who won 14 and lost 3 during the regular season, held Pittsburgh Plate to three hits and struck out six. The shutout was his sixth of the season. Snider of the Knights was the only player to obtain more than one safety.

The second game of the best-of-three series is billed for Thursday at Stitcher Field. Today the Elks and V.F.W. will tangle in the second game of their series. The Vets copped the opener, 5-3. Yesterday's score:

Pittsburgh Plate	000 000 0—	0	3	1
K. of C.	000 001 x—	1	5	3

Thompson and Frye. Sheetz and Martin.

Rubber Workers Move To Finals

Local 26 Ushers Out Keech's, 14-13

Local 26, pennant winner in the Men's Rec Softball League, advanced to the playoff finals by eliminating Keech's Drug Stores in a 14-13 squeaker yesterday at Post Field.

Keech's scored three runs in the last of the 7th and had the tying and winning runs on third and second when third baseman Harry Widdows saved the day for the Rubber Workers with a leaping catch of a line drive from the bat of Robb to end the game.

Thirty hits were amassed by the teams—16 for the losers and 14 for the winners. Morgan Morgan and "Ace" Emery smacked a homer and single each, Widdows hit for the circuit and Ed Barley collected a two-bagger and two singles for Local 26. Dick Morgan and Bob Steckman had perfect days at the plate for Keech's with four hits each while Beal blasted a three-run homer.

Local 26 swept the series in two straight, having copped the opener, 13-1, and will play the winner of the Western Maryland-Don McIntyre's series in the finals.

Darkness halted the initial game of the series between Western Maryland and Don McIntyre's at Naval Reserve Field with the railroaders leading 15-13 in the fifth inning.

This game must be replayed on Thursday at 6:15 at Post Field with Western Maryland as the home team. Yesterday's score:

Russian Rifle Shots Dominate World Matches

Annex Individual And Team Honors

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russian marksmen, using the Red Army's standard rifle, climaxed their domination of the world shooting championships Tuesday by winning the final event with team and individual records.

The Russians won the army rifle competition, a 300-meter, 60-shot event for the Mannerheim Gold Cup, with a score of 2,737 out of a possible 3,000. This total broke the old world record of 2,607 set by a Swiss team in 1939. A. Tilik of Russia won the individual title in the event with a score of 555 out of a possible 600.

The first 15 marksmen broke the former world individual mark of 530 for the event set by O. Elo of Finland in 1937. Emmet Duncan of San Diego, Calif., finished fifth with 545 and Verle Wright of Fort Wayne, Ind., was ninth with 536.

The Russians, who have dominated the international championships since they took charge of the 1954 competition at Caracas, Venezuela, won 14 of 17 team events and 11 of 23 individual events this time. This gave them a total of 25 of the 40 titles at stake. The United States — Russia's closest rival in the championships — won five individual and no team titles.

Game Is Postponed

BOSTON (UPI)—A night game between Boston and Detroit was rained out Tuesday night. The game will be played Wednesday, a Red Sox spokesman said.

The spokesman said the Red Sox and Tigers would play a regularly-scheduled game Wednesday afternoon, then play the postponed game Wednesday night.

Smith Is Named Paw Paw Coach

Comer New Mentor At Chestertown

Glenn Smith, of Piedmont, W. Va., has been appointed basketball and baseball coach at Paw Paw High School, succeeding Sid Roach, who has resigned to take over the duties of assistant football coach at Charleston (W. Va.) High School.

The new Paw Paw mentor is the son of Evers Smith, one-time Piedmont High and Westvaco cage star. Glenn also starred on Piedmont High quints and is a graduate of the University of Maryland.

Roach coached at Paw Paw for one year. His 1958 baseball team won nine games and lost two while his 1957-58 basketball team had an 18-5 record.

Roy L. Comer of Ridgeley, is the new football coach and physical education instructor at Chestertown (Md.) High School.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd D. Comer, Ridgeley, and was graduated from Ridgeley High School where he starred in football and basketball. In 1948-49 he was a regular on the Ridgeley High quint that won the PVC title with a 10-0 record. Roy also played football and basketball at Shepherd College where he received his bachelor of arts degree.

Old Exports Lose To Kennell's Mill

Kennell's Mill defeated the Corriganville Old Exports yesterday at Corriganville by the score of 7-3 as the playoffs got under way in the County Softball League.

The Millmen solved the offerings of Joe Raygor for 11 safeties while Vernon Lowery was holding the pennant winners to four bingles in the opener of the best-of-three series.

Maple Inn Old Germans will play at Stringtown today in the first game of their playoff series. Yesterday's score:

Kennell's Mill	7	11	2
Corriganville	3	4	1

V. Lowery and C. Stair, J. Raygor and J. Price.

counts or permit any outsiders to sponsor a star player," said Dey. "For one thing, we're dealing on the whole with a different type of person than in other sports. Usually, though not always, our players are more or less established in non-sports careers and regard golf as a sideline.

"Now it wouldn't be fair to other amateurs if we had a few 'golf bums' who could play tournaments the year around on expense accounts. They'd become far more proficient than the week-end golfers who make up the backbone of our competitions. They might win all the tournaments."

Only Top Players

That has, in fact, happened in tennis. Only the top players are invited to travel on expense accounts. A rare exception in recent years has been cowboy Mal Anderson of Australia, who won the U.S. crown at Forest Hills last season.

Mal paid his own way on at least two trips to England and the U.S. before he became famous and is on his own again because of a dispute with Aussie officials involving expenses for his wife on this t r.

But even if a golfer gets dollar signs in his eyes he still has more opportunity to cash in on his skills than does a tennis player. There are more teaching jobs in golf, more loot to be gained for more players on the tournament trail.

Tennis has room for only one or two new pros a year—if that.

McCoy To Return

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The St. Louis Hawks announced Tuesday that Julius McCoy, southpaw scoring star of Michigan State before a hitch in the armed services, will join the club in training next month.

McCoy, a 6-2 ½ forward who will be a backliner for the Hawks, has been stationed with the Sixth Armored Cavalry in Germany for the last 15 months.

Mt. Savage Pirates Defeat Braves, 6-3

Bobby Robertson tossed a three-hitter and mowed down 12 via the strikeout route in pitching the Pirates to a 6-3 victory over the Braves yesterday in the Mt. Savage Little League.

Dennis Blank, who went the route for the Braves, yielded 10 hits and fanned ten.

Sweene, Robertson and Mulligan of the Pirates and Darrell Blank of the Braves collected two hits each. Score:

Robin Roberts Bags 14th Win

Philadelphia Beats Chicago Cubs, 10-3

CHICAGO (AP)—Robin Roberts was tagged for three runs in the first inning, two of them unearned, and then pitched eight shut-out innings as the Philadelphia Phillies pounded the Chicago Cubs 10-3 here Tuesday.

Roberts chalked up his 14th win with a four hitter. He knocked a three-run triple in the fifth inning when the Phillies scored six runs. It was Roberts' first triple in two seasons.

Moose Moryn's No. 19 homer, the Cubs 151st of the season, highlighted the losers' productive first before Roberts settled down to blank the Chicagoans on two hits over the final eight innings.

Moe Drabowsky, first of five pitchers, drew the loss—his 11th in 20 decisions.

Tri-State Forfeits Final To Maroons

LaVale's Maroons, managed by Joe Dorsey, won the playoff crown in the Pen-Mar Little League yesterday when Tri-State Memorial forfeited the second game of the scheduled best-of-three series.

The Maroons had won the opening game of the final series by the score of 14-3 on a two-hitter by Dickie Horn.

Cards Must Win To Tie For Fourth

Salisbury Plays Flintstone Today

Needing one win to tie Zihlman for the coveted fourth place playoff spot in the Pen-Mar Baseball League, Salisbury's Cardinals hope to attain that goal today when they tackle Charley Doyle's Flintstone Farmers at Flintstone at 5:30 p. m.

Zihlman took the lead in the battle for 4th place by splitting even over the weekend. The Zippers own a 14-14 record. Salisbury lost on Saturday but its Sunday game with Flintstone was postponed on account of rain.

Salisbury has played Flintstone only once this season and copped that one, 16-5. The Cardinals won the other two games scheduled with the Farmers via the forfeit route. In fact, the Cards have won four games this season on forfeits and their record is now 13-14.

Flintstone will be striving to break an 8-game losing streak today. If the Pennsylvanians win they'll tie Zihlman for fourth place, necessitating a playoff for that position before the league's Shaughnessy series get under way on Sunday.

In another finale to the regular season today, Barrelville will play at Wellersburg at 5:30 p. m. Barrelville has reeled off five wins in a row and holds 4-3, 20-5 and 8-3 decisions over Wellersburg. The Old Exports (20-7) will finish in third place back of Hyndman, the pennant winner, and Grantsville regardless of the outcome of today's game.

Milwaukee Making Plans For Second World Series

Expects To Open With Yankees Oct. 1

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee, with a fingers-crossed kind of confidence, Tuesday set in motion plans for its second consecutive World Series.

Ray Markey, chairman of the Mayor's Civic Progress Commission, scheduled a meeting of his 30-member group for Sept. 10 to blueprint a pennant clinching and series celebration.

The city seemed to be on firm ground, what with the Braves leading the National League by eight games with only 30 to play before Tuesday's game with the Giants in San Francisco.

Markey, who helped stage last year's delirious blowout, thinks something a bit more restrained may be in order this year.

"It isn't as though it never happened to us before," he said. "after all, we've grown up a bit baseballwise. Since we're the world champions, maybe there should be just a slight touch of dignity in the arrangements. We'll see."

Money is no problem.

The commission has a bank account of $12,399 for just such happy emergencies.

Wheels were starting to turn out at County Stadium, too.

Braves' ticket director William Eberly said he was making tentative plans for handling ticket sales and hiring extra help.

"We're designing the tickets that we'll use," said Eberly.

"There's actually nothing we can do until the baseball commissioner calls his traditional meeting early in September," Eberly said, "and authorizes the teams that have a chance to win the pennant to print World Series tickets."

That meeting usually is held on the first Monday after Labor Day.

Oh yes, if the Braves and the New York Yankees, who own a sizeable lead in the American League, meet again this fall and if tradition is followed, the first series game will be here Oct. 1.

Rotarians Win, 10-4, Skidmore Belts Ball

Doug Skidmore clouted a pair of homers, including a grand slam wallop, and batted in seven runs yesterday as the Rotary Club defeated the Republican Club by the score of 10-4 in a Little League game at Frostburg.

George Buckalew collected a double and single for the winners.

Nick Edwards fanned five and limited the Republicans to seven hits, two of which were credited to Danny Muir.

In a doubleheader Monday the Orioles beat the Eagles, 5-0, and the Elks won over the Republican Club, 8-1. Yesterday's score:

Tri-State Forfeits Final To Maroons

LaVale's Maroons, managed by Joe Dorsey, won the playoff crown in the Pen-Mar Little League yesterday when Tri-State Memorial forfeited the second game of the scheduled best-of-three series.

The Maroons had won the opening game of the final series by the score of 14-3 on a two-hitter by Dickie Horn.

The usual Indian wampum belt had about 11 strings of 180 beads.

Cards Must Win To Tie For Fourth

Salisbury Plays Flintstone Today

Needing one win to tie Zihlman for the coveted fourth place playoff spot in the Pen-Mar Baseball League, Salisbury's Cardinals hope to attain that goal today when they tackle Charley Doyle's Flintstone Farmers at Flintstone at 5:30 p. m.

Zihlman took the lead in the battle for 4th place by splitting even over the weekend. The Zippers own a 14-14 record. Salisbury lost on Saturday but its Sunday game with Flintstone was postponed on account of rain.

Salisbury has played Flintstone only once this season and copped that one, 16-5. The Cardinals won the other two games scheduled with the Farmers via the forfeit route. In fact, the Cards have won four games this season on forfeits and their record is now 13-14.

Flintstone will be striving to break an 8-game losing streak today. If the Pennsylvanians win they'll tie Zihlman for fourth place, necessitating a playoff for that position before the league's Shaughnessy series get under way on Sunday.

In another finale to the regular season today, Barrelville will play at Wellersburg at 5:30 p. m. Barrelville has reeled off five wins in a row and holds 4-3, 20-5 and 8-3 decisions over Wellersburg. The Old Exports (20-7) will finish in third place back of Hyndman, the pennant winner, and Grantsville regardless of the outcome of today's game.

Milwaukee Making Plans For Second World Series

Expects To Open With Yankees Oct. 1

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Milwaukee, with a fingers-crossed kind of confidence, Tuesday set in motion plans for its second consecutive World Series.

Ray Markey, chairman of the Mayor's Civic Progress Commission, scheduled a meeting of his 30-member group for Sept. 10 to blueprint a pennant clinching and series celebration.

The city seemed to be on firm ground, what with the Braves leading the National League by eight games with only 30 to play before Tuesday's game with the Giants in San Francisco.

Markey, who helped stage last year's delirious blowout, thinks something a bit more restrained may be in order this year.

"It isn't as though it never happened to us before," he said, "after all, we've grown up a bit baseballwise. Since we're the world champions, maybe there should be just a slight touch of dignity in the arrangements. We'll see."

Money is no problem.

The commission has a bank account of $12,399 for just such happy emergencies.

Wheels were starting to turn out at County Stadium, too.

Braves' ticket director William Eberly said he was making tentative plans for handling ticket sales and hiring extra help.

"We're designing the tickets that we'll use," said Eberly.

"There's actually nothing we can do until the baseball commissioner calls his traditional meeting early in September," Eberly said, "and authorizes the teams that have a chance to win the pennant to print World Series tickets."

That meeting usually is held on the first Monday after Labor Day.

Oh yes, if the Braves and the New York Yankees, who own a sizeable lead in the American League, meet again this fall and if tradition is followed, the first series game will be here Oct. 1.

Rotarians Win, 10-4, Skidmore Belts Ball

Doug Skidmore clouted a pair of homers, including a grand slam wallop, and batted in seven runs yesterday as the Rotary Club defeated the Republican Club by the score of 10-4 in a Little League game at Frostburg.

George Buckalew collected a double and single for the winners.

Nick Edwards fanned five and limited the Republicans to seven hits, two of which were credited to Danny Muir.

In a doubleheader Monday the Orioles beat the Eagles, 5-0, and the Elks won over the Republican Club, 8-1. Yesterday's score:

Republican Club ..... 010 012— 4 7 2
Rotary Club ..... 000 46x—10 6 5

My Last Try Sets Saratoga Record

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (UPI)—My Last Try set a new track record for the two-mile hurdles course at Saratoga Tuesday when he won the $8,100 Lovely Night Hurdle Handicap in 3:47 1-5.

My Last Try avenged a defeat by Greek Brother in their last outing by scoring a length and three-quarter triumph. With Jim Hobales up, My Last Try was never worse than fourth in the six-horse field.

My Last Try paid $8.10, $3.80 and $2.80.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Dorothy Manners

(While Louella O. Parsons is in Hawaii her column will be Written by Dorothy Manners.)

HOLLYWOOD — So impressed is Milton Sperling with Jean Simmons in "Home Before Dark" that he's moving heaven and warner Bros. to get her for "The Bramble Bush." The Charles Mergendahl novel will be a sperling United States picture for Warner release.

Speaking of Jean in "Home Before Dark," she is so fine in the Mervyn Leroy drama that the advance odds-makers on the Oscar race say that she will be fighting it out at the finish with Liz Taylor ("Cat on a Hot Tin Roof") and Audrey Hepburn ("The Nun's Story").

"The Bramble Bush" is the story of a doctor who becomes romantically involved with the wife of a seriously ill patient. It follows "The White Rajah" on Sperling's schedule.

Now they've talked Gary Cooper into doing it — touring the key cities to plug his "Man of the West" of which he owns a nice percentage. Cary Grant's successful tour with "Indiscreet" in which he didn't try to be an entertainer but just chatted with audiences and answered their questions, has changed the minds of several top stars who have always turned down personal exploitation campaigning.

But, before he sets out "yupping" around the country, Big Coop is thoroughly enjoying a vacation with Rocky and Maria in Southampton. Gary's also agreed to being the initial guest star on Jack Benny's first TV show of the new season.

The good-looking man from Cincinnati who flew in week ends to visit Martha Hyer while the "Some Came Running" company was shooting in Madison, Ind., is switching his plane reservations to Los Angeles. His name is James Nelson, he's an industrialist, and Martha doesn't say much more about him except that she knew him when both attended Northwestern University.

It may be added that Martha was a personal hit in Madison. The Madison Courier came out with an interview captioned "Martha Captures Hearts of Madisonians" and went on to say that the gal was the "happiest thing to hit Madison since Jenny Lind."

Before leaving Rome for Paris, Harriet Parsons made another visit to the "Ben Hur" set and reports: "Visited with Martha Scott as Miriam and Cathy O'Donnell as Tirzah in their 'cave' where they have been living for five years after they become lepers. Their make-up is so realistic and horrifying it is difficult at first to adjust to it and talk normally. Poor gals.

"Martha's son (by Carlton Alsop) is with her and has a part in the picture as well as the job of holding the slate at the beginning of each scene.

"Charlton Heston took me for a chariot ride as a sort of farewell kick. My hair stood on end and it rattled my back teeth — but it's amazing how well he handles the horses and chariot. Next stop — Paris.

There'll be big doing at Donna Reed's farm home just outside Des Moines the night Donna's new TV series kicks off Sept. 24. The TV reception there isn't too good —and when ABC prexy Ollie Treyze learned that the home folks might miss out, he is arranging for a 150-foot receiving antenna to be put up. This ought to get Moscow.

Anyway, all the neighboring farmers and relatives for miles and miles around are coming over for what they call their special show.

Harry James wire: "For the first time in 15 years I am cutting short my annual vacation in Del Mar because Al Parvin and I have an idea which could be the biggest hit in Las Vegas since Louis Prima and Keely Smith.

"On August 30th the full band, Harry James and his music makers (all 17 of us) open in the lounge at the Flamingo. This is the first time a big name band has attempted this and we're excited about it. It will be a family deal in a way as Betty (Grable) will be down the street starring in her own act at the Desert Inn."

Hollywood in shorts:

Deborah Kerr's gone to Paris for fittings for "The Blessing" without altering too much her tangled marital situation with Tony Bartley and her fight to get her children.

Mel Ferrer and Audrey Hepburn have finally given in about making their home here and are looking for a place in Beverly Hills.

Betsy Drake can't go to New York with Cary Grant for those location shots on "North by North West" because of a TV commitment. Then, when Betsy heads for New York for the premiere of "Intent to Kill," Cary will be winging back to Hollywood to finish his picture. Such is being married in the movies.

Now that the whopping settlement has been made in the Ernie Borgnine divorce, Kathy Jurado, who has been ailing in Mexico City should start feeling better.

Boy or girl — Nanette Fabray has foiled the stork by doing the nursery in yellow and white and won't be caught with the "wrong" pink or blue.

All by himself with only the sad sea waves to keep him company —Rod Steiger dining three nights in a row at Henry Guttman's Malibu Sports Club.

The Diane Varsi - James Dickson divorce hearing is on the calendar for Aug. 29.

That's all today. See you tomorrow!

Payroll Authorized

The City Council on Monday authorized the city auditor to prepare the payroll for the second portion of August for distribution on September 2. The checks will be given out on Friday if the work is completed by that time.

Two Arrested For Racing

Two local motorists were nabbed early Saturday morning for racing on Bedford Street.

Troopers Willis Foreman and Joseph Smith of the Maryland State Police arrested the young drivers after observing them travel 70 miles an hour in the 25-mile zone.

Police said the pair pulled their cars alongside each other and speeded up. The one driver attempted to escape by turning off Bedford Street and heading out Frederick. He was later apprehended.

One driver forfeited $25 on Monday in Trial Magistrate Court. The second driver will be given a hearing later this week.

The first adding machine to employ depressible keys was patented by D. D. Parmelee in February, 1850.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Dorothy Manners

(While Louella O. Parsons is in Hawaii her column will be Written by Dorothy Manners.)

HOLLYWOOD — So impressed is Milton Sperling with Jean Simmons in "Home Before Dark" that he's moving heaven and warner Bros. to get her for "The Bramble Bush." The Charles Mergendahl novel will be a sperling United States picture for Warner release.

Speaking of Jean in "Home Before Dark," she is so fine in the Mervyn Leroy drama that the advance odds-makers on the Oscar race say that she will be fighting it out at the finish with Liz Taylor ("Cat on a Hot Tin Roof") and Audrey Hepburn ("The Nun's Story").

"The Bramble Bush" is the story of a doctor who becomes romantically involved with the wife of a seriously ill patient. It follows "The White Rajah" on Sperling's schedule.

Now they've talked Gary Cooper into doing it — touring the key cities to plug his "Man of the West" of which he owns a nice percentage. Cary Grant's successful tour with "Indiscreet" in which he didn't try to be an entertainer but just chatted with audiences and answered their questions, has changed the minds of several top stars who have always turned down personal exploitation campaigning.

But, before he sets out "yupping" around the country, Big Coop is thoroughly enjoying a vacation with Rocky and Maria in Southampton. Gary's also agreed to being the initial guest star on Jack Benny's first TV show of the new season.

It may be added that Martha was a personal hit in Madison. The Madison Courier came out with an interview captioned "Martha Captures Hearts of Madisonians" and went on to say that the gal was the "happiest thing to hit Madison since Jenny Lind."

Before leaving Rome for Paris, Harriet Parsons made another visit to the "Ben Hur" set and reports: "Visited with Martha Scott as Miriam and Cathy O'Donnell as Tirzah in their 'cave' where they have been living for five years after they become lepers. Their make-up is so realistic and horrifying it is difficult at first to adjust to it and talk normally. Poor gals.

"Martha's son (by Carlton Alsop) is with her and has a part in the iicture as well as the job of holding the slate at the beginning of each scene.

"Charlton Heston took me for a chariot ride as a sort of farewell kick. My hair stood on end and it rattled my back teeth — but it's amazing how well he handles the horses and chariot. Next stop — Paris.

There'll be big doing at Donna Reed's farm home just outside Des Moines the night Donna's new TV series kicks off Sept. 24. The TV reception there isn't too good —and when ABC prexy Ollie Treyze learned that the home folks might miss out, he is arranging for a 150-foot receiving antenna to be put up. This ought to get Moscow.

Anyway, all the neighboring farmers and relatives for miles and miles around are coming over for what they call their special show.

Harry James wire: "For the first time in 15 years I am cutting short my annual vacation in Del Mar because Al Parvin and I have an idea which could be the biggest hit in Las Vegas since Louis Prima and Keely Smith.

Hollywood in shorts:

Deborah Kerr's gone to Paris for fittings for "The Blessing" without altering too much her tangled marital situation with Tony Bartley and her fight to get her children.

Mel Ferrer and Audrey Hepburn have finally given in about making their home here and are looking for a place in Beverly Hills.

Payroll Authorized

The City Council on Monday authorized the city auditor to prepare the payroll for the second portion of August for distribution on September 2. The checks will be given out on Friday if the work is completed by that time.

Two Arrested For Racing

Two local motorists were nabbed early Saturday morning for racing on Bedford Street.

Troopers Willis Foreman and Joseph Smith of the Maryland State Police arrested the young drivers after observing them travel 70 miles an hour in the 25-mile zone.

Police said the pair pulled their cars alongside each other and speeded up. The one driver attempted to escape by turning off Bedford Street and heading out Frederick. He was later apprehended.

One driver forfeited $25 on Monday in Trial Magistrate Court. The second driver will be given a hearing later this week.

The first adding machine to employ depressible keys was patented by D. D. Parmelee in February, 1850.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many relatives, neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during the illness and following the death of our beloved husband and father, Albert Roy "Bert" Smith. We especially wish to thank the pallbearers, those who sent floral tributes and cards and those who donated the use of their cars.

Mrs. Albert R. Smith & Family

Scenic Cabins Motor Court
Deluxe country living — excellent income — scenic view and pleasant business. That's what the Scenic Cabins east of Breezewood has to offer YOU and YOUR family. Modern 8 room house with hot water heat. 3 double cabins and 6 singles. Hot water heat in 4 and each is lavishly furnished, all with private bath. Deep well and mountain spring affords water aplenty. 5 separate septic tanks so there is no sewage problem. 14 acres to roam or plenty of room for expansion, or motel could be built and operated in conjunction with Motor Court. Books are open for inspection to interested parties. Owner is moving to Arizona or this would not be for sale. Call immediately for inspection and quotation of price.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many relatives, neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during the illness and following the death of our beloved husband and father, Albert Roy "Bert" Smith. We especially wish to thank the pallbearers, those who sent floral tributes and cards and those who donated the use of their cars.
Mrs. Albert R. Smith & Family

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF ALLEGANY COUNTY

NOTICE TO CONSULTING ENGINEERS

PROPOSALS FOR PRELIMINARY SURVEY AND REPORT OF SANITARY SEWERAGE FACILITIES FOR GEORGE'S CREEK VALLEY AREA OF ALLEGANY COUNTY.

WHEREAS, the County Commissioners of Allegany County ex-officio constitute the Local Board of Health for Allegany County, and

WHEREAS, on June 20, 1958 the said County Commissioners received the following order from the State Board of Health of Maryland:

"It is this twentieth day of June, 1958, ordered by the State Board of Health of Maryland, by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by the General Assembly of Maryland, that you immediately have prepared a comprehensive engineering study leading to a method for providing sanitary sewerage facilities for the George's Creek Valley from Frostburg to Westernport.

"The absence of sanitary sewers and appurtenances in the George's Creek Valley within the limits noted is a menace to public health.

"It is further ordered that you have such engineering study, including preliminary plans, prepared and submitted to the State Board of Health of Maryland for review on or before January 1, 1959."

NOW, THEREFORE, in compliance with said Order and pursuant to the provisions of Section 72 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Allegany County (1955 Edition) the County Commissioners of Allegany County give public notice that it will receive, by its Clerk, the undersigned, whose address is the Court House, Cumberland, Maryland, until September 9, 1958, at 10:30 A. M. (EDST), proposals of qualified Consulting Engineers to make a preliminary survey and report with recommendations, estimates of cost and preliminary general plans for the most suitable method of providing sanitary sewerage and sewage treatment facilities to adequately serve Frostburg, Midland, Lonaconing, Barton, Westernport and other communities in the George's Creek Valley Area of Allegany County.

All such proposals shall contain:

1. A clear, comprehensive and unambiguous statement of the nature and scope of the preliminary survey to be conducted.
2. A lump sum fee for said engineering services to be paid upon submission to the County Commissioners of 10 copies of the completed report with accompanying general plans by the successful engineering firm.
3. A statement of the qualifications and professional experience of the Consulting Engineer submitting the proposal.
4. A statement indicating the availability of the Consulting Engineer and the estimated date for completion of the study and report.

Proposals shall be submitted in sealed envelopes clearly marked on the outside "Proposal for Engineering Study of George's Creek Sewerage."

Interested consulting engineers may contact the State Department of Health, 2411 North Charles Street, Baltimore 18, Maryland, for additional information with respect to type and scope of engineering study contemplated by the State Department of Health in its order of June 20, 1958, in connection with which proposals have been requested by the County Commissioners. County Commissioners of Allegany County specifically reserves the right to reject any or all proposals submitted or to accept the proposal providing the most suitable plan in the light of the scope of the proposed preliminary survey and report, the cost of such services, the qualifications and availability of each Consulting Engineer submitting a proposal in the response of this notice.

Youths Visit Rotarians

FROSTBURG—Three graduates of Beall High School who during their senior year were recognized as "Citizens of Tomorrow" were guests of the Frostburg Rotary Club at its Monday night meeting at Layman's Farm just off of U. S. Route 40.

They were Enordo Arnone, Douglas Cook and Conrad Filsinger. Dr. Wayne Hill, principal of Beall High School and chairman of the club's "Citizens of Tomorrow" committee, pointed out that each year two youths from the senior class at Beall are selected by their classmates. They attend the annual Rotary District Conference as "Citizens of Tomorrow" representing the local club.

The three Monday night guests related their experiences since graduating from college. Other boys unable to attend sent letters.

Because of the Labor Day holiday, the next club meeting will be on September 8, when the district governor will visit the club. President Paul V. Taylor has requested that all committee chairman turn in reports so that a complete report may be furnished the governor.

Visitors Monday night were Clyde Gardner, Cal McCoole, Kenneth Haines and Dr. A. E. Murphy, all of Keyser, and Bowen Hardesty Jr., Frostburg.

Personals

Kenny Duckworth has returned to his home in Ellerslie after being a patient in Sacred Heart Hospital for three weeks.

Brother Fredwin Jerome has returned to Philadelphia after visiting his mother, Mrs. Toletta Niland, Greene Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Orr, Fairview Avenue; and Miss Delores Rowley, 714 Greenway Avenue, have returned from a three-week tour of the West Coast. They visited the Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, Yosemite Park and San Francisco. While in San Francisco, Mr. Orr attended the 100th convention of the Typographical Union, of which he has been a member over 40 years. Stopovers were in Albuquerque, N.M., and Denver, Colo.

Clifton Close Feted On His Birthday

ELLERSLIE — Mrs. Clifton Close entertained at a dinner in honor of her husband on his birthday.

Guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Close and daughter, Hyndman; Rev. and Mrs. Robert Close and family, Craley, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Dash and sons, Export, Pa.; Mrs. Mae Reighard, Cumberland; Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Lowery, Corriganville, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Emerick and family, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Shaffer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Close, Mrs. Lydia Porter, Mrs. Clara Bennett, Kenneth Growden and daughter, all of Ellerslie.

Mt. Lake Park Plans All-Night Sing

OAKLAND—There will be an all-night sing at the Mountain Lake Park Tabernacle starting at 8 p.m. DST Saturday.

A large number of choirs and quartets are expected to sing sacred song music. J. R. Miller of St. George, W. Va., will have charge of the congregational singing.

On The Line

by Bob Considine

NEW YORK — In one noteworthy respect, the Soviet Union's foreign service is more effective than our own. Top posts in our diplomatic corps traditionally go to the more affluent and socially acceptable backers of a winning presidential candidate. The Reds use the merit system, or their reasonable distortion of same.

More often than is really healthy, our ambassador has not the foggiest comprehension of the language and idiosyncrasies of the people to whom he is sent as U.S. representative. Living his cloistered embassy life, he seldom sees persons below his own protocol level, is not encouraged to get out among the others.

His Russian counterpart knows the language of the land to which he is dispatched; can spell its premier's name backwards. He has been boned and honed in the land's customs, strengths, weaknesses. In the Arab countries, he speaks fluent Arabic; members of his staff often are practicing Russian Moslems. He attempts to locate the country's slighted intellectual class, or a disgruntled colonel, and does what he can to fan the flame of revolt.

In that particular area, we tend to go along with the policy that there's no resident wickedness or gnawing problem that cannot be cured by the gift of another half a dozen Cadillacs to the Royal Family.

It's easy to get tickets to the London staging of "My Fair Lady," starring Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews. Just send $1,245 to Betty Murray, Showplane Party, care of TWA, New York City, and go now, pay later.

There are a few extras thrown in for the $1,245, according to a dazzling dossier from the young lady. La Murray, a reformed press agent, is the attractive inventor of the business of taking plane loads of people across the Atlantic to see shows. She and her latest crop, half a dozen married couples and a few strays, left on the current 17-day hitch last Friday. Just about now they should be backstage of Vivien Leigh's "Duel For Angels"..."at a gay champagne party for Showplaners, where you'll meet the distinguished Lady Olivier, and Claire Bloom, Fred Jackson and other members of the cast."

Murray's meandering and moolah-laden matinee-goers put up at the Savoy in London, had cocktails at Les Ambassadeurs before trooping to see "My Fair Lady", met the principals, breakfasted with the Lord Mayor at Mansion House, lunched with the Duke and Duchess of Bedford at Woburn Abbey and hobnobbed with other nabobs before the final night at the Leigh show.

In Rome they'll dine at the Palazzi, the pleasure dome Mussolini built for a babe, watch the filming of Sam Zimbalist's heroic-sized "Ben Hur" "... try on the costumes, chat and pose with the star, Charlton Heston, and pretty well be 'in the movies' for a day!" There is also a beach party "...with Van Heflin and his wife as hosts."

Nothing much doing on the Riviera except to "be a guest aboard the yacht of Aristotle Onassis. Can you believe it?" Then Paris, "...where Olivia de Havilland will be your hostess for lunch at the Tour d'Argent."

Gentlemen must provide their own after-dinner cigars.

I knew there was some catch.

Next time New Yorkers get sore at the kids for hanging on the telephone so long, consider the "lady" who answers calls into Meridian 7-1212. "She" is made up of three circular drums which are part of an intricate talking clock contrived by Bell Laboratories. More people worry about the time between four and five o'clock in the afternoon than during any other period - as any officer manager could tell you.

Bell hasn't yet perfected a mechanical girl capable of giving out World Series scores. It uses the good old fashioned kind. During the 1952 Yankee-Dodger series they answered 1,205,347 fans. That's almost as many as now see the Dodgers play in a whole month.

WSCS Will Hear Barton Missionary

MIDLAND — Billy Harvey, a native of Barton, who recently returned from missionary duty in the Congo, will be guest speaker at the September meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Midland Methodist Church.

At the recent August meeting Mrs. Lawson Duckworth of Lonaconing spoke on the life of Christ and illustrated her talk with her own paintings. She also narrated and illustrated an original Japanese story.

During the business meeting, the packing committee reported that five Christmas boxes have been sent to missionaries in Africa. Twenty-three sick calls were reported made and 27 cards sent. Ill members are Mrs. Clarence Miller and Mrs. James Bampton. The pilgrimage to the Asbury Home at Gaithersburg will be held September 25. The tentative date for the dinner party at Moon's in Cumberland is September 16.

Refreshments were served by members with August birthdays.

Merrill Reunion Scheduled Sunday

GRANTSVILLE — The 29th annual Merrill reunion will be held Sunday at the Meadow Mountain Camp on U.S. Route 40 near here.

Jesse C. Merrill of Grantsville emphasizes that all are welcome.

Lonaconing Personals

Mrs. Franklin Moffatt and infant son returned to their home, Castle Hill, from Miners Hospital.

Gary Fazenbaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edison Fazenbaker, St. Mary's Terrace, is a patient in Miners Hospital.

Raymond Grandstaff, Detmold, is a medical patient in Miners Hospital.

Mrs. Bernard Bittinger and son returned home Monday from Miners Hospital to their home in Knapps Meadow.

Mrs. Jennie Smith, Church Hill, is a patient in Miners Hospital.

Councilors To Meet

FROSTBURG—The Past Councilors Club of Star of Frostburg Council 98, Daughters of America, will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lena Sires, Centre Street, with Mrs. Idella Dickel serving as cohostess. Mrs. Fern Thomas will preside.

Visit In Frostburg

FROSTBURG — Mrs. Virginia Corry and son, Mike, returned to Miami, Fla., after visiting her son, Steven, at the home of Mrs. Sam Martin, Centre Street.

Battery C To Be Called For Inspection

KEYSER—The National Guard, Battery C, 201st Armored Field Artillery Battalion will be called for an annual general inspection on Tuesday, September 9, by Lt. Col. M. J. Cicceli, inspector general branch, Headquarters Second Army Camp, at Camp Meade.

Capt. Henry E. Wilt, commanding officer of the local unit, said that the inspection will be scheduled in two phases, the first in the afternoon and the second during the regularly scheduled drill time.

The afternoon phase will be devoted to inspection of administrative, supply and maintenance records, procedure, equipment and facilities. Training will be inspected during the second phase.

The evening portion of the inspection will consist of a formal line inspection of troops, observations of close order drill and group participation in the "School of the Soldier." A question and answer session on basic military subjects will be conducted. The final hour will be for regularly scheduled training and classroom instruction by unit personnel.

The annual I.G. inspection is the basis of the Army's unit efficiency and standard of performance ratings.

Woman Burglar

WASHINGTON (AP)—A mother of 12 children has admitted a series of burglaries in northwest Washington. Police said Mrs. Edna Mae Cade, 34, told them she was forced to steal because her husband left her and she is no longer receiving relief money.

OFFER REFUSED

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UPI) — The United Nations command Tuesday dismissed as a "big propaganda stunt" a communist proposal to send "relief" goods to South Korea through the military armistice commission.

The North Korean Communists offered at a meeting of the joint commission to send food and clothing to South Korea.

U. S. Air Force Maj. Gen. Albert T. Wilson Jr., chief negotiator for the United Nations side, dismissed the offer as a propaganda stunt.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. (UPI) —Two inmates at Camp Fairchance, Moundsville Penitentiary's honor farm, escaped Monday. Bloodhounds picked up their trail but lost it near the Ohio River bank two miles south of hree. The pair was identified as Willie P. Meadows, 34, serving 1-to-10 years from Kanawha County for grand larceny, and George Fuller, 23, sentenced to 1-to-25 years from Wayne County for burglary.

BODY FOUND

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. (UPI) —Authorities attempted Tuesday to determine the identity of a Negro man whose body was found in Big Grave Creek here Monday by a boy and girl. There was no indication of foul play, police said.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF ALLEGANY COUNTY

NOTICE TO CONSULTING ENGINEERS

PROPOSALS FOR PRELIMINARY SURVEY AND REPORT OF SANITARY SEWERAGE FACILITIES FOR GEORGE'S CREEK VALLEY AREA OF ALLEGANY COUNTY.

WHEREAS, the County Commissioners of Allegany County ex-officio constitute the Local Board of Health for Allegany County, and

WHEREAS, on June 20, 1958 the said County Commissioners received the following order from the State Board of Health of Maryland:

"It is this twentieth day of June, 1958, ordered by the State Board of Health of Maryland, by virtue of the authority conferred upon it by the General Assembly of Maryland, that you immediately have prepared a comprehensive engineering study leading to a method for providing sanitary sewerage facilities for the George's Creek Valley from Frostburg to Westernport.

"The absence of sanitary sewers and appurtenances in the George's Creek Valley within the limits noted is a menace to public health.

"It is further ordered that you have such engineering study, including preliminary plans, prepared and submitted to the State Board of Health of Maryland for review on or before January 1, 1959."

NOW, THEREFORE, in compliance with said Order and pursuant to the provisions of Section 72 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Allegany County (1955 Edition) the County Commissioners of Allegany County give public notice that it will receive, by its Clerk, the undersigned, whose address is the Court House, Cumberland, Maryland, until September 9, 1958, at 10:30 A. M. (EDST), proposals of qualified Consulting Engineers to make a preliminary survey and report with recommendations, estimates of cost and preliminary general plans for the most suitable method of providing sanitary sewerage and sewage treatment facilities to adequately serve Frostburg, Midland, Lonaconing, Barton, Westernport and other communities in the George's Creek Valley Area of Allegany County.

All such proposals shall contain:

1. A clear, comprehensive and unambiguous statement of the nature and scope of the preliminary survey to be conducted.
2. A lump sum fee for said engineering services to be paid upon submission to the County Commissioners of 10 copies of the completed report with accompanying general plans by the successful engineering firm.
3. A statement of the qualifications and professional experience of the Consulting Engineer submitting the proposal.
4. A statement indicating the availability of the Consulting Engineer and the estimated date for completion of the study and report.

Proposals shall be submitted in sealed envelopes clearly marked on the outside "Proposal for Engineering Study of George's Creek Sewerage."

Interested consulting engineers may contact the State Department of Health, 2411 North Charles Street, Baltimore 18, Maryland, for additional information with respect to type and scope of engineering study contemplated by the State Department of Health in its order of June 20, 1958, in connection with which proposals have been requested by the County Commissioners. County Commissioners of Allegany County specifically reserves the right to reject any or all proposals submitted or to accept the proposal providing the most suitable plan in the light of the scope of the proposed preliminary survey and report, the cost of such services, the qualifications and availability of each Consulting Engineer submitting a proposal in the response of this notice.

Youths Visit Rotarians

FROSTBURG—Three graduates of Beall High School who during their senior year were recognized as "Citizens of Tomorrow" were guests of the Frostburg Rotary Club at its Monday night meeting at Layman's Farm just off of U. S. Route 40.

They were Enordo Arnone, Douglas Cook and Conrad Filsinger. Dr. Wayne Hill, principal of Beall High School and chairman of the club's "Citizens of Tomorrow" committee, pointed out that each year two youths from the senior class at Beall are selected by their classmates. They attend the annual Rotary District Conference as "Citizens of Tomorrow" representing the local club.

The three Monday night guests related their experiences since graduating from college. Other boys unable to attend sent letters.

Because of the Labor Day holiday, the next club meeting will be on September 8, when the district governor will visit the club. President Paul V. Taylor has requested that all committee chairman turn in reports so that a complete report may be furnished the governor.

Visitors Monday night were Clyde Gardner, Cal McCoole, Kenneth Haines and Dr. A. E. Murphy, all of Keyser, and Bowen Hardesty Jr., Frostburg.

Personals

Kenny Duckworth has returned to his home in Ellerslie after being a patient in Sacred Heart Hospital for three weeks.

Brother Fredwin Jerome has returned to Philadelphia after visiting his mother, Mrs. Toletta Niland, Greene Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Orr, Fairview Avenue; and Miss Delores Rowley, 714 Greenway Avenue, have returned from a three-week tour of the West Coast. They visited the Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, Yosemite Park and San Francisco. While in San Francisco, Mr. Orr attended the 100th convention of the Typographical Union, of which he has been a member over 40 years. Stopovers were in Albuquerque, N.M., and Denver, Colo.

"I've always maintained that a woman's hair is her crowning glory!"

On The Line

by Bob Considine

NEW YORK — In one noteworthy respect, the Soviet Union's foreign service is more effective than our own. Top posts in our diplomatic corps traditionally go to the more affluent and socially acceptable backers of a winning presidential candidate. The Reds use the merit system, or their reasonable distortion of same.

More often than is really healthy, our ambassador has not the foggiest comprehension of the language and idiosyncrasies of the people to whom he is sent as U.S. representative. Living his cloistered embassy life, he seldom sees persons below his own protocol level, is not encouraged to get out among the others.

His Russian counterpart knows the language of the land to which he is dispatched; can spell its premier's name backwards. He has been boned and honed in the land's customs, strengths, weaknesses. In the Arab countries, he speaks fluent Arabic; members of his staff often are practicing Russian Moslems. He attempts to locate the country's slighted intellectual class, or a disgruntled colonel, and does what he can to fan the flame of revolt.

In that particular area, we tend to go along with the policy that there's no resident wickedness or gnawing problem that cannot be cured by the gift of another half a dozen Cadillacs to the Royal Family.

It's easy to get tickets to the London staging of "My Fair Lady," starring Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews. Just send $1,245 to Betty Murray, Showplane Party, care of TWA, New York City, and go now, pay later.

There are a few extras thrown in for the $1,245, according to a dazzling dossier from the young lady. La Murray, a reformed press agent, is the attractive inventor of the business of taking plane loads of people across the Atlantic to see shows. She and her latest crop, half a dozen married couples and a few strays, left on the current 17-day hitch last Friday. Just about now they should be backstage of Vivien Leigh's "Duel For Angels"..."at a gay champagne party for Showplaners, where you'll meet the distinguished Lady Olivier, and Claire Bloom, Fred Jackson and other members of the cast."

Murray's meandering and moolah-laden matinee-goers put up at the Savoy in London, had cocktails at Les Ambassadeurs before trooping to see "My Fair Lady", met the principals, breakfasted with the Lord Mayor at Mansion House, lunched with the Duke and Duchess of Bedford at Woburn Abbey and hobnobbed with other nabobs before the final night at the Leigh show.

In Rome they'll dine at the Palazzi, the pleasure dome Mussolini built for a babe, watch the filming of Sam Zimbalist's heroic-sized "Ben Hur" "... try on the costumes, chat and pose with the star, Charlton Heston, and pretty well be 'in the movies' for a day!" There is also a beach party "...with Van Heflin and his wife as hosts."

Nothing much doing on the Riviera except to "be a guest aboard the yacht of Aristotle Onassis. Can you believe it?" Then Paris, "...where Olivia de Havilland will be your hostess for lunch at the Tour d'Argent."

Gentlemen must provide their own after-dinner cigars.

I knew there was some catch.

Next time New Yorkers get sore at the kids for hanging on the telephone so long, consider the "lady" who answers calls into Meridian 7-1212. "She" is made up of three circular drums which are part of an intricate talking clock contrived by Bell Laboratories. More people worry about the time between four and five o'clock in the afternoon than during any other period - as any officer manager could tell you.

Bell hasn't yet perfected a mechanical girl capable of giving out World Series scores. It uses the good old fashioned kind. During the 1952 Yankee-Dodger series they answered 1,205,347 fans. That's almost as many as now see the Dodgers play in a whole month.

WSCS Will Hear Barton Missionary

MIDLAND — Billy Harvey, a native of Barton, who recently returned from missionary duty in the Congo, will be guest speaker at the September meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Midland Methodist Church.

At the recent August meeting Mrs. Lawson Duckworth of Lonaconing spoke on the life of Christ and illustrated her talk with her own paintings. She also narrated and illustrated an original Japanese story.

During the business meeting, the packing committee reported that five Christmas boxes have been sent to missionaries in Africa. Twenty-three sick calls were reported made and 27 cards sent. Ill members are Mrs. Clarence Miller and Mrs. James Bampton. The pilgrimage to the Asbury Home at Gaithersburg will be held September 25. The tentative date for the dinner party at Moon's in Cumberland is September 16.

Refreshments were served by members with August birthdays.

Merrill Reunion Scheduled Sunday

GRANTSVILLE — The 29th annual Merrill reunion will be held Sunday at the Meadow Mountain Camp on U.S. Route 40 near here.

Jesse C. Merrill of Grantsville emphasizes that all are welcome.

FROSTBURG—The Past Councilors Club of Star of Frostburg Council 98, Daughters of America, will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lena Sires, Centre Street, with Mrs. Idella Dickel serving as cohostess. Mrs. Fern Thomas will preside.

Visit In Frostburg

FROSTBURG — Mrs. Virginia Corry and son, Mike, returned to Miami, Fla., after visiting her son, Steven, at the home of Mrs. Sam Martin, Centre Street.

Battery C To Be Called For Inspection

KEYSER—The National Guard, Battery C, 201st Armored Field Artillery Battalion will be called for an annual general inspection on Tuesday, September 9, by Lt. Col. M. J. Cicceli, inspector general branch, Headquarters Second Army Camp, at Camp Meade.

Capt. Henry E. Wilt, commanding officer of the local unit, said that the inspection will be scheduled in two phases, the first in the afternoon and the second during the regularly scheduled drill time.

The afternoon phase will be devoted to inspection of administrative, supply and maintenance records, procedure, equipment and facilities. Training will be inspected during the second phase.

The evening portion of the inspection will consist of a formal line inspection of troops, observations of close order drill and group participation in the "School of the Soldier." A question and answer session on basic military subjects will be conducted. The final hour will be for regularly scheduled training and classroom instruction by unit personnel.

The annual I.G. inspection is the basis of the Army's unit efficiency and standard of performance ratings.

Woman Burglar

WASHINGTON (AP)—A mother of 12 children has admitted a series of burglaries in northwest Washington. Police said Mrs. Edna Mae Cade, 34, told them she was forced to steal because her husband left her and she is no longer receiving relief money.

OFFER REFUSED

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UPI) — The United Nations command Tuesday dismissed as a "big propaganda stunt" a communist proposal to send "relief" goods to South Korea through the military armistice commission.

The North Korean Communists offered at a meeting of the joint commission to send food and clothing to South Korea.

U. S. Air Force Maj. Gen. Albert T. Wilson Jr., chief negotiator for the United Nations side, dismissed the offer as a propaganda stunt.

PRISONERS ESCAPE

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. (UPI) —Two inmates at Camp Fairchance, Moundsville Penitentiary's honor farm, escaped Monday. Bloodhounds picked up their trail but lost it near the Ohio River bank two miles south of hree. The pair was identified as Willie P. Meadows, 34, serving 1-to-10 years from Kanawha County for grand larceny, and George Fuller, 23, sentenced to 1-to-25 years from Wayne County for burglary.

BODY FOUND

MOUNDSVILLE, W. Va. (UPI) —Authorities attempted Tuesday to determine the identity of a Negro man whose body was found in Big Grave Creek here Monday by a boy and girl. There was no indication of foul play, police said.

Lucky George Wins Atlantic City Feature

True Verdict 2nd, Victor Pays $22.80

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 26 (AP)—Lucky George carried the green and white silks of the P. & W. Stable to victory in today's featured Colton Manor Purse at Atlantic City.

There was not a trace of mud on Jockey Larry Gilligan as the Gallois gelding won the six furlong event by a nose. William G. Helis Jr.'s favored True Verdict denied Jockey Bill Hartack the victory.

The finish was deceiving to 17,751 fans as Lucky George crossed the line in the middle of the track while Hartack was hustling True Verdict along by the rail.

The race was run in 1.11. The winner returned $22.80, $6.00 and $3.60. True Verdict had a $2.80 and $2.40 place and show payoff with show tickets on Liberty Sun exchangeable at $3.20.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 heart	Pass	2 clubs	Pass
2 hearts	Pass	2 spades	Pass
3 clubs	Pass	6 hearts	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Diamond ace.

Today's hand presents an interesting paradox. As a safety measure, declarer takes a finesse in one suit in order to avoid the risk of a finesse in another. This sounds rather confusing, but before we get down to an analysis of play, let us look for a minute at the bidding.

North was just short of the requirements for a jump shift response. Two temporizing bids elicited from South the information that he had a rebiddable suit and a mild club fit. North felt this was sufficient basis to contract for a small slam in hearts.

The ace of diamonds was opened, declarer ruffed in dummy and drew the outstanding trumps in two rounds. It was time to develop the club suit and declarer realized that with a holding of nine cards in a suit the play for the drop was slightly superior to an attempt to finesse. If the club queen failed to drop, declarer still had open to him the 50 per cent chance that the spade finesse would work.

On the verge of executing this play, declarer suddenly saw a way to assure his contract regardless of the adverse holdings. When West played the club 10 at the second round of that suit, there is only one club missing — the queen. By finessing the jack declarer cinches the hand. If the finesse should win, declarer has but to try the spade finesse for an overtrick. If the finesse should lose, East will have the doubtful pleasure of presenting South with a trick.

If East returns a diamond, declarer ruffs in dummy, discarding one of the spades in the closed hand. The other spade goes on the long club. If East returns a spade, the result will be the same.

Lucky George Wins Atlantic City Feature

True Verdict 2nd, Victor Pays $22.80

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 26 (AP)—Lucky George carried the green and white silks of the P. & W. Stable to victory in today's featured Colton Manor Purse at Atlantic City.

There was not a trace of mud on Jockey Larry Gilligan as the Gallois gelding won the six furlong event by a nose. William G. Helis Jr.'s favored True Verdict denied Jockey Bill Hartack the victory.

The finish was deceiving to 17,751 fans as Lucky George crossed the line in the middle of the track while Hartack was hustling True Verdict along by the rail.

The race was run in 1.11. The winner returned $22.80, $6.00 and $3.60. True Verdict had a $2.80 and $2.40 place and show payoff with show tickets on Liberty Sun exchangeable at $3.20.

Gilligan hustled Lucky George right to the front from his number two post position and was challenged first by Sand Boy and subsequently by Chit Chat and Flying Chief.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 heart	Pass	2 clubs	Pass
2 hearts	Pass	2 spades	Pass
3 clubs	Pass	6 hearts	Pass
Pass	Pass

Opening lead: Diamond ace.

Today's hand presents an interesting paradox. As a safety measure, declarer takes a finesse in one suit in order to avoid the risk of a finesse in another. This sounds rather confusing, but before we get down to an analysis of play, let us look for a minute at the bidding.

North was just short of the requirements for a jump shift response. Two temporizing bids elicited from South the information that he had a rebiddable suit and a mild club fit. North felt this was sufficient basis to contract for a small slam in hearts.

The ace of diamonds was opened, declarer ruffed in dummy and drew the outstanding trumps in two rounds. It was time to develop the club suit and declarer realized that with a holding of nine cards in a suit the play for the drop was slightly superior to an attempt to finesse. If the club queen failed to drop, declarer still had open to him the 50 per cent chance that the spade finesse would work.

On the verge of executing this play, declarer suddenly saw a way to assure his contract regardless of the adverse holdings. When West played the club 10 at the second round of that suit, there is only one club missing — the queen. By finessing the jack declarer cinches the hand. If the finesse should win, declarer has but to try the spade finesse for an overtrick. If the finesse should lose, East will have the doubtful pleasure of presenting South with a trick.

If East returns a diamond, declarer ruffs in dummy, discarding one of the spades in the closed hand. The other spade goes on the long club. If East returns a spade, the result will be the same.

Canal Is Still No. 1 Project, Beall Reports

Says Public Power Advocates Killed Bill

United States Senator J. Glenn Beall said yesterday that the fight for the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal National Historical Park will go on.

"It will be my No. 1 bill next year," the Senator announced here yesterday.

The canal park plan has been Sen. Beall's No. 1 project for Western Maryland for almost a decade.

He said the lack of action in Congress again this year was very discouraging, adding that "now that the people of the East want it, the people in the West oppose it."

The plan to get the bill through Congress was defeated this year, he said, by public power advocates.

The Senate has twice passed the bill to create the 164-mile C&O Canal Park including a scenic highway overlooking the waterway from Paw Paw to Woodmont.

Last year, the Senate gave approval too late for the House to act. 'This year, Senate action came early enough, but the bill was bottled up by a House subcommittee headed by Rep. Gracie Pfost (D-Idaho), in spite of efforts of Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde, (R-Md. 6).

County To Pay Frostburger For Dog Calls

Because Mrs. Margaret Kidwell, who works in the office of the Mayor and City Council of Frostburg, spends so much of her time answering dog complaints from Frostburg area residents, the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday unanimously voted to augment her city salary with $25 a month from the county.

Mrs. Kidwell discussed this matter some time ago with County Commissioner William A. Wilson and he brought it to the attention of the other commissioners who concurred in the plan. Burza Hanlin, the dog warden designated to serve the Frostburg area, lives in Westernport.

Several road complaints were referred to County Roads Supervisor Harry T. Skelly yesterday.

Mrs. J. B. Stafford, who lives on Wildcat Hollow Road, informed the commissioners that the road is in need of repairs and at least one guardrail needs attention. Daphne Keller and Lelia Luzader appeared concerning the need for repairs to 21st Bridge Lane between McMullen Highway and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks. They also lodged a protest against the condition of a junkyard along that lane.

The commissioners also received a letter from Dr. Benedict Skitarelic informing them that Allegany County now has three deputy medical examiners. Besides himself they are Dr. Richard J. Williams, this city, and Dr. W. O. McLane, Frostburg.

Westvaco Cuts Dividend

NEW YORK (AP)—Directors of West Virginia Pulp & Paper Co. reduced the dividend on the common stock today to 30 cents from the 40 cent rate paid in recent quarters.

David L. Luke, president, said a cut in the dividend was necessary because capital requirements are growing as a result of recent extension of operations. He noted that while earnings are continuing to cover the previous rate of dividend payments, they are materially lower than in 1956 and 1957.

The company reported earnings of $6,820,000 or $1.26 per share for the nine months ended July 31 vs. $9,816,000 or $1.85 a share in the like period a year ago. Sales were a record $149,547,000 compared with $146,563,000 in the same period last year.

Luke said like other paper companies, the firm's profits have been hurt by a cost-price squeeze.

The 30 cent dividend is payable Oct. 1 to holders of record Sept. 15.

Area Landmark Goes Down

Wreckers are making progress on the demolition of the old Wolfe home on Route 40 just east of Nave's Crossroads. It is being razed to provide space for the east approach of the Cumberland Thruway. The older section in the right background is of log construction and is at least 150 years old. It was remodeled and enlarged in about 1850. From all appearances, the structure would have stood a few centuries more. The farmhouse has been a landmark in this area for many years.

Awards Rules For Fall Flower Show Announced

The awards rules for the fifth annual Community Flower Show September 8 and 9 at the Eagles home were announced last night by Mrs. William Frailey, chairman.

The flowers will be judged the morning of Monday, September 8, beginning at 10 o'clock. The rules:

—Awards of ribbons for all classes will be made only for the quality of the flowers and the decision of the judges will be final.

—The Sweepstakes Award ribbon will be given to the exhibitor winning the greatest number of blue ribbons in the horticultural arrangements division.

—The Tricolor Awards ribbon, the Award of Distinction ribbon and the Award of Merit may be given entirely at the discretion of the judges. They will be given only to members of the Federated Garden Club of Maryland.

—The Tricolor ribbon may be awarded to the highest scoring Blue Ribbon winner, who must score 95 or over in artistic classes where all plant material used in an exhibit is fresh-cut or where fresh-cut material provides the dominant interest.

—The Award of Distinction ribbon may be awarded to the highest scoring blue ribbon winner. The winner must score 95 or better in classes where other than all fresh-cut materials are used in arrangements, or dry material provides the dominant interest.

—The Award of Merit may be given to the finest exhibit in the horticultural division and the winner must score 95 or over.

—The Civic Club award will be given to the exhibitor scoring the most points in horticultural classes, first place five points, second place, three points and third place, one point.

—The Garden Club award will be given to the best in the invitational class.

—The Mrs. George Henderson award for juniors will be given to the best in junior arrangements division.

Mrs. Henderson is co-chairman of the program, which will be held from 3 p. m. to 10 p. m. the opening day and from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m. the following day.

Budget Reviews Planned Today

Police and Fire Department budgets will be restudied this morning, according to Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming.

The work will be done at conferences first with Fire Chief Virgil Parker and then with Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn.

The commissioner said they would go over the budgets and try to "cut some corners" to find funds for services which were not included in the budget adopted Monday.

These include guards for school crossings, a policewoman and a fire inspector.

Tax Bills To Go Out

The City of Cumberland is making a special effort to get corporation tax bills out as early as possible, according to Arthur B. Gibson, city auditor.

He explained that many corporations inquire constantly about their tax bills, as they are anxious to know the assessment and amount so they can adjust tax accounts which generally have been anticipated by reserves set up for that purpose.

The city is happy to oblige this time of the year, as the funds help tide the city over until real estate taxes begin to come in late in September.

Early this week, the city received certifications of assessments on the personal property of 134 corporations. About $150,000 of tax money is represented.

Mr. Gibson said all of the bills were tabulated yesterday afternoon and turned over to the City Collector for mailing.

Bills for real estate and personal property of individuals, some 12,700 of them, are being prepared and will be mailed by September 20.

Kiwanis To Hear Native Of Ireland

For the second successive week the Cumberland Kiwanis Club will hear a newcomer to the medical profession in Cumberland when Dr. Robert Feddis speaks of his native Ireland at the meeting which starts at 12:15 p. m. Thursday at Central YMCA.

Last week Dr. Abdul Hashim, a native of Iraq, who is a pediatrician here, discussed the Middle East.

A report will be made on the Kiwanis Club's sale of peanuts at the Cumberland Fair all last week. Some 24 members of the club assisted in the sale and they sold some 2,100 bags of peanuts for the benefit of two major Kiwanis boys and girls project, Sunshine Camp and the Kiwanis team in the Hot Stove League.

Drs. Coberly, Father And Son, Open Office

Dr. Bernie O. Coberly Sr., Mt. Savage dentist, and his son, Dr. Bernie O. Coberly Jr., announced yesterday the opening of a joint office at 37 Greene Street.

The elder Dr. Coberly is transferring his office from Mt. Savage, where he has practiced for several years.

His son, now entering private practice, was graduated from Allegany High School in 1947, received his B.S. degree at the University of Maryland in 1952, his D.D.S. at the university's Baltimore College of Dental Surgery in 1956, and has just completed two years of service at the U.S. Army Arctic Training Center, Fort Greeley, Alaska, where he served as post dental surgeon with the rank of captain.

Equity Suit Filed

Wilma E. Rizer yesterday filed an equity suit in Allegany County Circuit Court against Walter S. Rizer.

MRS. BETTY JOSE

Fatal Crash Investigation Will Be Started

The state's attorney's office has indicated it will investigate the death of a young Barton mother who died yesterday morning of injuries sustained in an auto crash Sunday at the east end of Lonaconing on State Route 36.

The victim, Mrs. Mildred Betty Jose, 30, of Mill Run Road, Barton, died in Miners Hospital, Frostburg.

Edwin R. Lilya, Allegany County investigator, said a full investigation will be made.

Mrs. Jose and three other persons were hospitalized Sunday evening when a ranch wagon operated by William K. Grady, 29, of Piedmont, W. Va., rammed into the abutment of a bridge which spans Georges Creek at the east end of Lonaconing.

The vehicle was traveling south on the highway, ran off to the right of the road and hit the bridge. Two other passengers, who were injured, are Okey W. Halbritter, 35, of Westernport, owner of the vehicle, and Doris Alice Michael, 17, of Midland.

Two Committed After Squabble

Two Frostburg men were committed to the County Jail yesterday on assault charges.

Magistrate Morris Baron sentenced Franklin A. Stott, 19, of 183 McCulloh Street, to 10 days and John Thomas Stott, 17, of 16 Taylor Street, to 30 days.

The magistrate said he reduced the sentence for the former youth so he could report back on time from his Army leave. The charges, he said, resulted from a squabble in which a shot was fired.

Committees To Plan For Defenders Day

Committees for the annual Old Defenders Day celebration September 6 at the Clary Club will make final plans this evening at 8:30 when members of Chief Justice Taney General Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus meet at the local K of C Home.

John W. Kreidler, general chairman, announced last night that the affair sponsored by the Assembly will begin with at dinner at 6:30 p. m. followed by a dance with music by Happy Laughner and his orchestra of Youngstown, Pa.

James F. Quinn, faithful navigator, has named the following committees:

Struntz, chairman; J. Donald Stillwagon and the entire committee. Secretary is Patrick J. Hopkins. Richard Mastrino and Frank Werner are in charge of publicity.

Members from K of C councils of Cumberland, Frostburg, Mt. Savage, Oakland, Piedmont and Martinsburg, W. Va., are expected to attend.

Health Officer To Attend Conference

Dr. Ton van Strien, Allegany County health officer, will go to Baltimore today to attend a session of the Local Health Services subcommittee of the State Health Department.

Dr. van Strien and Dr. William Peeples, Montgomery County, will represent the Western Maryland region at the conference.

The six health officers have been meeting each month with four division heads of the State Health Department to discuss local health problems and policies.

Man Sought In Attempt To Free Girl Prisoner

Driver Flees As Stolen Car Crashes

Local police have issued a pickup for James E. Parsons, 26, city, wanted in connection with a wild chase in a car early yesterday morning near the Allegany County Infirmary after an attempt was made to free a 17-year-old girl being detained there.

The chase came to an end when the car, presumably driven by Parsons, crashed into a utility pole in the 500 block of Valley Street. Harold Wickard, 19, a passenger in the car, was admitted to Memorial Hospital with severe lacerations of his face and forehead. His condition last night was reported as "satisfactory."

Also riding in the car were a 16-year-old boy, and two girls, 12 and 16. Wickard and the younger passengers all gave their address as 890 Sperry Terrace. Police said Parsons resides at the Smith Apartments, Kelly Boulevard.

Attempted Break Reported

The case developed about 3:45 a.m. yesterday when police received a call from the Infirmary that a group of youths was "trying" to free a 17-year-old girl."

The infirmary reported the car drove up to the infirmary, its lights were turned off, and the two older occupants wandered around the building. Later, they went to the door and asked for the girl, but the door was locked and they didn't get into the building.

The girl had been sentenced to the House of Good Shepherd, Baltimore, Monday morning in Juvenile Court and was scheduled to be taken there yesterday.

Officer R. L. Maiers answered the complaint and noticed the car traveling toward the infirmary on Furnace Street. The officer turned on his red blinker and siren, but the car "took off."

When the vehicles reached the institution the car circled the building, headed back toward the city, and finally came to a stop when it hit the pole. Officer Maiers said the driver of the car, presumably Parsons, fled from the scene.

Yesterday morning a warrant for his arrest was issued in Trial Magistrate Court.

Charges Are Filed

The youths were questioned yesterday morning by City Police Detective Lieutenant James E. Van and taken to Juvenile Court where warrants were issued charging the younger participants with being delinquent minors. Wickard and Parsons were charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors.

On investigation, police learned the car had been stolen from John F. Merten, RD 3, Bedford Road. A second warrant was issued against Parsons charging him with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

All will be given hearings later this week in Juvenile Court, according to police, who said a description and picture of Parsons have been sent to Maryland and West Virginia State Police, and to authorities of Keyser, Romney and Hagerstown.

Deadline Is Near

Allegany County taxpayers who have not yet paid their 1958 county real estate taxes drew a reminder yesterday from the office of Tax Collector J. Wallace Close at the Court House that this is the last week to obtain a three per cent discount on county taxes.

When September arrives one-half per cent interest will be charged on county real estate taxes.

Mr. Close's office will be open only today, tomorrow and Friday before closing for the three-day Labor Day holiday weekend. The office is open from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. daily. Mailed returns postmarked before midnight Sunday also will be entitled to the three per cent discount on county taxes.

Parent Leader Workshop Starts

Eleven leaders who will direct the parent-child study program in the Allegany County public schools during the 1958-59 school year began a two-day workshop at the Board of Education office yesterday. Pictured, left to right, are Miss Esther Carter, a visiting teacher in the pupil personnel department; Homer S. Higgins, supervisor of pupil personnel, who arranged the workshop, and Mrs. Kathleen Kave, one of the parent group leaders. Dr. Fred Thompson of the Child Study Institute of the University of Maryland will consult with the group when it meets from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. today.

MISS GRACE L. NAGLE

MRS. MILDRED O. RUSSELL

More Elementary School Teachers Are Named

Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster yesterday announced the appointment of three more teachers who will serve in Allegany County elementary schools during the school year starting next week.

Miss Grace L. Nagle, 310 Washington Street, will teach at Columbia Street School in the 1958-59 school year. A 1954 graduate of Allegany High School, she was graduated in June from Frostburg State Teachers College.

Mrs. Mildred O. Russell, 1 Glenview Drive, LaVale, will teach first and second graders at Ellerslie School when the new term begins. Mrs. Russell attended Concord College, Athens, W. Va., and was graduated in June from Frostburg State Teachers College. The mother of three daughters, Mrs. Russell previously taught in the county school system. She was at Pennsylvania Avenue School for one year and taught five years at LaVale School.

Mrs. Alice T. Harris, 860 Gephart Drive, has been appointed to teach at Oldtown Elementary School. A graduate of Slippery Rock (Pa.) State Teachers College, Mrs. Harris taught previously from 1940 until 1946. She was at Canonsburg, Pa., from 1940 until 1942 and at Oldtown from 1942 until 1946.

20 Firemen Will Attend Short Course

About 20 volunteer firemen of Allegany and Garrett counties plan to attend the 25th Annual Short Course for Firemen next week at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Cromwell Zembower of LaVale, a member of the firemen's training committee of the Maryland State Firemen's Association, will conduct one of the sessions.

He will be among past presidents of the association who will be honored at a banquet. Zembower's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Zembower, who is president of the Maryland State Firemen's Auxiliary, will accompany him to the banquet.

The course, being sponsored by the Fire Service Extension of the University under the direction of Robert C. Byrus, will begin Tuesday, September 2, with registration at 8 a. m. At 9:30 a. m. the sessions will begin in the auditorium of the Fire Service Extension Building.

Invocation by Rev. James W. Minter, chaplain of the association, will be followed by a welcome to the university by Dean Frederick T. Mavis, College of Engineering. A response will be by Howard B. Springer, president of the firemen's association.

Use of gas masks, fighting structural fires, fighting flammable liquid fires, handling rescue emergencies, officer training and practical demonstrations will be taught during the four-day course.

On Thursday morning, Mr. Zembower will instruct these attending class on the proper way to conduct better meetings, which includes any type meeting.

Pre-planning a meeting and lining up a program will be stressed by Zembower who will outline business meetings as well as open house meetings and field days.

The banquet will be held on Thursday, September 4. Remarks will be made by J. Millard Tawes, past president of the association. "Maryland Football 1958 Style" will be outlined by Coach Tommy Mont.

Two Are Jailed In Gas Theft

Two RD 1, Hyndman, men were committed to the Allegany County Jail yesterday in default of fines imposed on motor vehicle charges here.

Joseph Franklin McMannis, 22, was fined $100 by Trial Magistrate Morris Baron on a charge of operating a motor vehicle when a license had been refused. He was committed for 60 days after he was unable to pay.

He was committed for 30 more days when he failed to pay a $25 fine on a charge of tampering with a motor vehicle.

A companion, Charles Edward Gray, 22, was committed for 30 days in default of $25 fine on the tampering charge.

Magistrate Baron said they were arrested by Trooper John McFarland after they were seen trying to siphon gasoline from a car parked in a service station at Corriganville.

County Issues Six Permits For Dwellings

Six building permits for new residences in Allegany County estimated by the builders to cost a total of $38,500 have been issued in the past few days by the County Assessing Department.

Elmer C. Rexroad, Avenue D, Potomac Park, obtained a permit to build a 52 by 24 foot frame dwelling in Election District 6 for $11,000. George C. Miller obtained a permit to construct a $9,000 brick veneer dwelling along McMullen Highway near McCoole in Election District 31. It will be 24 by 42 feet in size.

Another permit was issued to Joseph F. Reissig, 508 Shriver Avenue, for construction of an $8,000 dwelling in Election District 23 east of Cumberland. The 48 by 32-foot dwelling will be of concrete block construction. Clyde W. Nazelrod, RFD 1, Flintstone, obtained a permit for construction of a $5,000 stone veneer dwelling in Election District 3 at Flintstone. The house will be 26 by 36 feet in size.

Harold Riggleman, Trost Avenue, got a permit for a five-room concrete block house to be built in Election District 5, the North End suburban area. His estimate of the cost was $4,500. Issued yesterday was a permit for Calvert P. Steed to construct a 30 by 45 foot, one-story concrete block dwelling in Election District 29 at LaVale for $1,000.

26 Complete Swim Courses

The other day 26 local and area youngsters completed swimming lessons sponsored by the county Red Cross chapter at St. Michael's Boys Camp in the Western Maryland Recreation Area in Garrett County.

Miss Maureen Manley of Frostburg taught the youngsters, and the tests were given by Robert Crowe Jr.

Those who passed the swimmer skill test are Burt Mason, 903 National Highway; Robert Barry, Frostburg; Curtiss Graff, James Graff and Dennis Graff, all of RD 1, Boonsboro.

Fulton Myers Plans Children's Picnic

Fulton Myers Post 153, American Legion, will hold a picnic for children on Labor Day at Malamphy's picnic grounds on Christie Road.

The picnic will begin at noon and will continue until evening. Admission and refreshments for children under 14 will be free.

Deaths

Kevialitis, George, 76, Kitzmiller.

Lamb, Mrs. Maria, 87, formerly of Lonaconing.

Price, Mrs. May V., 74, Buckhannon, W. Va.

Youngblood, Arthur E., 57, Great Cacapon.

Festival Planned

The Bedford Road Volunteer Fire Company will hold its annual fall festival Saturday from 5 to 8 p.m. at the fire house.

Canal Is Still No. 1 Project, Beall Reports

Says Public Power Advocates Killed Bill

United States Senator J. Glenn Beall said yesterday that the fight for the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal National Historical Park will go on.

"It will be my No. 1 bill next year," the Senator announced here yesterday.

The canal park plan has been Sen. Beall's No. 1 project for Western Maryland for almost a decade.

He said the lack of action in Congress again this year was very discouraging, adding that "now that the people of the East want it, the people in the West oppose it."

The plan to get the bill through Congress was defeated this year, he said, by public power advocates.

The Senate has twice passed the bill to create the 164-mile C&O Canal Park including a scenic highway overlooking the waterway from Paw Paw to Woodmont.

Last year, the Senate gave approval too late for the House to act. This year, Senate action came early enough, but the bill was bottled up by a House subcommittee headed by Rep. Gracie Pfost (D-Idaho), in spite of efforts of Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde, (R-Md. 6).

County To Pay Frostburger For Dog Calls

Because Mrs. Margaret Kidwell, who works in the office of the Mayor and City Council of Frostburg, spends so much of her time answering dog complaints from Frostburg area residents, the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday unanimously voted to augment her city salary with $25 a month from the county.

Mrs. Kidwell discussed this matter some time ago with County Commissioner William A. Wilson and he brought it to the attention of the other commissioners who concurred in the plan. Burza Hanlin, the dog warden designated to serve the Frostburg area, lives in Westernport.

Several road complaints were referred to County Roads Supervisor Harry T. Skelly yesterday.

Mrs. J. B. Stafford, who lives on Wildcat Hollow Road, informed the commissioners that the road is in need of repairs and at least one guardrail needs attention. Daphne Keller and Lelia Luzader appeared concerning the need for repairs to 21st Bridge Lane between McMullen Highway and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks. They also lodged a protest against the condition of a junkyard along that lane.

The commissioners also received a letter from Dr. Benedict Skitarelic informing them that Allegany County now has three deputy medical examiners. Besides himself they are Dr. Richard J. Williams, this city, and Dr. W. O. McLane, Frostburg.

Westvaco Cuts Dividend

NEW YORK (AP)—Directors of West Virginia Pulp & Paper Co. reduced the dividend on the common stock today to 30 cents from the 40 cent rate paid in recent quarters.

David L. Luke, president, said a cut in the dividend was necessary because capital requirements are growing as a result of recent extension of operations. He noted that while earnings are continuing to cover the previous rate of dividend payments, they are materially lower than in 1956 and 1957.

The company reported earnings of $6,820,000 or $1.26 per share for the nine months ended July 31 vs. $9,816,000 or $1.85 a share in the like period a year ago. Sales were a record $149,547,000 compared with $146,563,000 in the same period last year.

Luke said like other paper companies, the firm's profits have been hurt by a cost-price squeeze.

The 30 cent dividend is payable Oct. 1 to holders of record Sept. 15.

Lois Gank Marriott has been granted a divorce in Allegany County Circuit Court from Oliver S. Marriott.

Area Landmark Goes Down

Wreckers are making progress on the demolition of the old Wolfe home on Route 40 just east of Nave's Crossroads. It is being razed to provide space for the east approach of the Cumberland Thruway. The older section in the right background is of log construction and is at least 150 years old. It was remodelled and enlarged in about 1850. From all appearances, the structure would have stood a few centuries more. The farmhouse has been a landmark in this area for many years.

Awards Rules For Fall Flower Show Announced

The awards rules for the fifth annual Community Flower Show September 8 and 9 at the Eagles home were announced last night by Mrs. William Frailey, chairman.

The flowers will be judged the morning of Monday, September 8, beginning at 10 o'clock. The rules:

—Awards of ribbons for all classes will be made only for the quality of the flowers and the decision of the judges will be final.

—The Sweepstakes Award ribbon will be given to the exhibitor winning the greatest number of blue ribbons in the horticultural arrangements division.

—The Tricolor Awards ribbon, the Award of Distinction ribbon and the Award of Merit may be given entirely at the discretion of the judges. They will be given only to members of the Federated Garden Club of Maryland.

—The Tricolor ribbon may be awarded to the highest scoring Blue Ribbon winner, who must score 95 or over in artistic classes where all plant material used in an exhibit is fresh-cut or where fresh-cut material provides the dominant interest.

—The Award of Distinction ribbon may be awarded to the highest scoring blue ribbon winner. The winner must score 95 or better in classes where other than all fresh-cut materials are used in arrangements, or dry material provides the dominant interest.

—The Award of Merit may be given to the finest exhibit in the horticultural division and the winner must score 95 or over.

—The Civic Club award will be given to the exhibitor scoring the most points in horticultural classes, first place five points, second place, three points and third place, one point.

—The Garden Club award will be given to the best in the invitational class.

—The Mrs. George Henderson award for juniors will be given to the best in junior arrangements division.

Mrs. Henderson is co-chairman of the program, which will be held from 3 p. m. to 10 p. m. the opening day and from 2 p. m. to 8 p. m. the following day.

Budget Reviews Planned Today

Police and Fire Department budgets will be restudied this morning, according to Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming.

The work will be done at conferences first with Fire Chief Virgil Parker and then with Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn.

The commissioner said they would go over the budgets and try to "cut some corners" to find funds for services which were not included in the budget adopted Monday.

These include guards for school crossings, a policewoman and a fire inspector.

Tax Bills To Go Out

The City of Cumberland is making a special effort to get corporation tax bills out as early as possible, according to Arthur B. Gibson, city auditor.

He explained that many corporations inquire constantly about their tax bills, as they are anxious to know the assessment and amount so they can adjust tax accounts which generally have been anticipated by reserves set up for that purpose.

The city is happy to oblige this time of the year, as the funds help tide the city over until real estate taxes begin to come in late in September.

Early this week, the city received certifications of assessments on the personal property of 134 corporations. About $150,000 of tax money is represented.

Mr. Gibson said all of the bills were tabulated yesterday afternoon and turned over to the City Collector for mailing.

Bills for real estate and personal property of individuals, some 12,700 of them, are being prepared and will be mailed by September 20.

Kiwanis To Hear Native Of Ireland

For the second successive week the Cumberland Kiwanis Club will hear a newcomer to the medical profession in Cumberland when Dr. Robert Feddis speaks of his native Ireland at the meeting which starts at 12:15 p. m. Thursday at Central YMCA.

Last week Dr. Abdul Hashim, a native of Iraq, who is a pediatrician here, discussed the Middle East.

A report will be made on the Kiwanis Club's sale of peanuts at the Cumberland Fair all last week. Some 24 members of the club assisted in the sale and they sold some 2,100 bags of peanuts for the benefit of two major Kiwanis boys and girls project, Sunshine Camp and the Kiwanis team in the Hot Stove League.

Drs. Coberly, Father And Son, Open Office

Dr. Bernie O. Coberly Sr., Mt. Savage dentist, and his son, Dr. Bernie O. Coberly Jr., announced yesterday the opening of a joint office at 37 Greene Street.

The elder Dr. Coberly is transferring his office from Mt. Savage, where he has practiced for several years.

His son, now entering private practice, was graduated from Allegany High School in 1947, received his B.S. degree at the University of Maryland in 1952, his D.D.S. at the university's Baltimore College of Dental Surgery in 1956, and has just completed two years of service at the U.S. Army Arctic Training Center, Fort Greeley, Alaska, where he served as post dental surgeon with the rank of captain.

Equity Suit Filed

Wilma E. Rizer yesterday filed an equity suit in Allegany County Circuit Court against Walter S. Rizer.

MRS. BETTY JOSE

Fatal Crash Investigation Will Be Started

The state's attorney's office has indicated it will investigate the death of a young Barton mother who died yesterday morning of injuries sustained in an auto crash Sunday at the east end of Lonaconing on State Route 36.

The victim, Mrs. Mildred Betty Jose, 30, of Mill Run Road, Barton, died in Miners Hospital, Frostburg.

Edwin R. Lilya, Allegany County investigator, said a full investigation will be made.

Mrs. Jose and three other persons were hospitalized Sunday evening when a ranch wagon operated by William K. Grady, 29, of Piedmont, W. Va., rammed into the abutment of a bridge which spans Georges Creek at the east end of Lonaconing.

The vehicle was traveling south on the highway, ran off to the right of the road and hit the bridge. Two other passengers, who were injured, are Okey W. Halbritter, 35, of Westernport, owner of the vehicle, and Doris Alice Michael, 17, of Midland.

Two Committed After Squabble

Two Frostburg men were committed to the County Jail yesterday on assault charges.

Magistrate Morris Baron sentenced Franklin A. Stott, 19, of 183 McCulloh Street, to 10 days and John Thomas Stott, 17, of 16 Taylor Street, to 30 days.

The magistrate said he reduced the sentence for the former youth so he could report back on time from his Army leave. The charges, he said, resulted from a squabble in which a shot was fired.

Dr. Ton van Strien, Allegany County health officer, will go to Baltimore today to attend a session of the Local Health Services subcommittee of the State Health Department.

Dr. van Strien and Dr. William Peeples, Montgomery County, will represent the Western Maryland region at the conference.

The six health officers have been meeting each month with four division heads of the State Health Department to discuss local health problems and policies.

Man Sought In Attempt To Free Girl Prisoner

Driver Flees As Stolen Car Crashes

Local police have issued a pickup for James E. Parsons, 26, city, wanted in connection with a wild chase in a car early yesterday morning near the Allegany County Infirmary after an attempt was made to free a 17-year-old girl being detained there.

The chase came to an end when the car, presumably driven by Parsons, crashed into a utility pole in the 500 block of Valley Street. Harold Wickard, 19, a passenger in the car, was admitted to Memorial Hospital with severe lacerations of his face and forehead. His condition last night was reported as "satisfactory."

Also riding in the car were a 16-year-old boy, and two girls, 12 and 16. Wickard and the younger passengers all gave their address as 890 Sperry Terrace. Police said Parsons resides at the Smith Apartments, Kelly Boulevard.

Attempted Break Reported

The case developed about 3:45 a.m. yesterday when police received a call from the Infirmary that a group of youths was "trying" to free a 17-year-old girl."

The infirmary reported the car drove up to the infirmary, its lights were turned off, and the two older occupants wandered around the building. Later, they went to the door and asked for the girl, but the door was locked and they didn't get into the building.

The girl had been sentenced to the House of Good Shepherd, Baltimore, Monday morning in Juvenile Court and was scheduled to be taken there yesterday.

Officer R. L. Maiers answered the complaint and noticed the car traveling toward the infirmary on Furnace Street. The officer turned on his red blinker and siren, but the car "took off."

When the vehicles reached the institution the car circled the building, headed back toward the city, and finally came to a stop when it hit the pole. Officer Maiers said the driver of the car, presumably Parsons, fled from the scene.

Yesterday morning a warrant for his arrest was issued in Trial Magistrate Court.

Charges Are Filed

The youths were questioned yesterday morning by City Police Detective Lieutenant James E. Van and taken to Juvenile Court where warrants were issued charging the younger participants with being delinquent minors. Wickard and Parsons were charged with contributing to the delinquency of minors.

On investigation, police learned the car had been stolen from John F. Merten, RD 3, Bedford Road. A second warrant was issued against Parsons charging him with unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

All will be given hearings later this week in Juvenile Court, according to police, who said a description and picture of Parsons have been sent to Maryland and West Virginia State Police, and to authorities of Keyser, Romney and Hagerstown.

Deadline Is Near

Allegany County taxpayers who have not yet paid their 1958 county real estate taxes drew a reminder yesterday from the office of Tax Collector J. Wallace Close at the Court House that this is the last week to obtain a three per cent discount on county taxes.

When September arrives one-half per cent interest will be charged on county real estate taxes.

Mr. Close's office will be open only today, tomorrow and Friday before closing for the three-day Labor Day holiday weekend. The office is open from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. daily. Mailed returns postmarked before midnight Sunday also will be entitled to the three per cent discount on county taxes.

Parent Leader Workshop Starts

Eleven leaders who will direct the parent-child study program in the Allegany County public schools during the 1958-59 school year began a two-day workshop at the Board of Education office yesterday. Pictured, left to right, are Miss Esther Carter, a visiting teacher in the pupil personnel department; Homer S. Higgins, supervisor of pupil personnel, who arranged the workshop, and Mrs. Kathleen Kave, one of the parent group leaders. Dr. Fred Thompson of the Child Study Institute of the University of Maryland will consult with the group when it meets from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. today.

MISS GRACE L. NAGLE

MRS. MILDRED O. RUSSELL

More Elementary School Teachers Are Named

Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster yesterday announced the appointment of three more teachers who will serve in Allegany County elementary schools during the school year starting next week.

Miss Grace L. Nagle, 310 Washington Street, will teach at Columbia Street School in the 1958-59 school year. A 1954 graduate of Allegany High School, she was graduated in June from Frostburg State Teachers College.

Mrs. Mildred O. Russell, 1 Glenview Drive, LaVale, will teach first and second graders at Ellerslie School when the new term begins. Mrs. Russell attended Concord College, Athens, W. Va., and was graduated in June from Frostburg State Teachers College. The mother of three daughters, Mrs. Russell previously taught in the county school system. She was at Pennsylvania Avenue School for one year and taught five years at LaVale School.

Mrs. Alice T. Harris, 860 Gephart Drive, has been appointed to teach at Oldtown Elementary School. A graduate of Slippery Rock (Pa.) State Teachers College, Mrs. Harris taught previously from 1940 until 1946. She was at Canonsburg, Pa., from 1940 until 1942 and at Oldtown from 1942 until 1946.

20 Firemen Will Attend Short Course

About 20 volunteer firemen of Allegany and Garrett counties plan to attend the 25th Annual Short Course for Firemen next week at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Cromwell Zembower of LaVale, a member of the firemen's training committee of the Maryland State Firemen's Association, will conduct one of the sessions.

He will be among past presidents of the association who will be honored at a banquet. Zembower's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Zembower, who is president of the Maryland State Firemen's Auxiliary, will accompany him to the banquet.

The course, being sponsored by the Fire Service Extension of the University under the direction of Robert C. Byrus, will begin Tuesday, September 2, with registration at 8 a. m. At 9:30 a. m. the sessions will begin in the auditorium of the Fire Service Extension Building.

Invocation by Rev. James W. Minter, chaplain of the association, will be followed by a welcome to the university by Dean Frederick T. Mavis, College of Engineering. A response will be by Howard B. Springer, president of the firemen's association.

Use of gas masks, fighting structural fires, fighting flammable liquid fires, handling rescue emergencies, officer training and practical demonstrations will be taught during the four-day course.

On Thursday morning, Mr. Zembower will instruct these attending class on the proper way to conduct better meetings, which includes any type meeting.

Pre-planning a meeting and lining up a program will be stressed by Zembower who will outline business meetings as well as open house meetings and field days.

The banquet will be held on Thursday, September 4. Remarks will be made by J. Millard Tawes, past president of the association. "Maryland Football 1958 Style" will be outlined by Coach Tommy Mont.

Two Are Jailed In Gas Theft

Two RD 1, Hyndman, men were committed to the Allegany County Jail yesterday in default of fines imposed on motor vehicle charges here.

Joseph Franklin McMannis, 22, was fined $100 by Trial Magistrate Morris Baron on a charge of operating a motor vehicle when a license had been refused. He was committed for 60 days after he was unable to pay.

He was committed for 30 more days when he failed to pay a $25 fine on a charge of tampering with a motor vehicle.

A companion, Charles Edward Gray, 22, was committed for 30 days in default of $25 fine on the tampering charge.

Magistrate Baron said they were arrested by Trooper John McFarland after they were seen trying to siphon gasoline from a car parked in a service station at Corriganville.

County Issues Six Permits For Dwellings

Six building permits for new residences in Allegany County estimated by the builders to cost a total of $38,500 have been issued in the past few days by the County Assessing Department.

Elmer C. Rexroad, Avenue D, Potomac Park, obtained a permit to build a 52 by 24 foot frame dwelling in Election District 6 for $11,000. George C. Miller obtained a permit to construct a $9,000 brick veneer dwelling along McMullen Highway near McCoole in Election District 31. It will be 24 by 42 feet in size.
